

Wake Up Your Liver Bile —Without Calomel

And You'll Jump Out of Bed
in the Morning Rarin' to Go

If you feel sour and sunk and the world looks punk, don't swallow a lot of salts, mineral water, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine.

For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily.

If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just drops in the bowels. One blocks up your stomach. You have a thick, bad taste and your breath is foul, often often breaks out in blisters. Your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned.

It takes thousands of CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get those two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." They contain wonderful, harmless, gentle vegetable extracts, causing when it comes to making the bile flow freely.

But don't put for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Look for the name Carter's Little Liver Pills on the red label. Beware of substitutes. See at all stores. © 1931, C. M. Co.

Shaw To Deliver Address For G.C. College May 5th

Miss Mary Hix To Be Member of Court of Queen On Founders' Day

Greensboro, April 1.—Dr. S. B. Turrentine announced today that Thomas J. Shaw, superior court judge of Greensboro, has accepted an invitation to deliver the address on the occasion of Founders' and Benefactors' day at Greensboro college. Judge Shaw was born in Montgomery county, March 5, 1861. His father, the late Peter C. Shaw, was an educator who served as principal of a number of schools in the state, and Judge Shaw received his secondary school training in the schools of the various localities to which his father's professional duties called him. He received his legal training in the law school of Dick and Dillard at Greensboro. Judge Shaw has served on the superior court bench since 1913.

Founders' and Benefactors' day will be observed on May 6. A special feature of the occasion this year will be the observance of home coming day and the exercises in connection with the coronation of the May queen. Miss Emma Blanche Warren, of Snow Hill. The court of the queen will consist of the following: Misses Tommie Louise Mitchell, of Kinston, a junior, will be the queen's maid of honor; senior attendant, Susan Egan, of Snow Hill, and Elizabeth Campen, of Zebulon; junior attendants, Miss Imogene Boyles, of Thomasville, and Louise Taylor, of Greenville; sophomore attendants, Mary Ellen Milard, of Greensboro, and Freda Strong, of Sanford; freshman attendants, Mary Hix of North Wilkesboro, and Elizabeth Lodge, of Hickory, Va.

MOB IS REPELLED

Virginia, Minn., March 30.—A crowd of angry farmers that besieged John Wyberg in his farm home at Markham near here after he shot one of their number during a dispute over road work fled tonight on the approach of officials.

Wyberg, his wife and son, all armed, had held off the crowd for several hours under threats to shoot anyone who approached the place. A group of men attempted to prevent Wyberg from working and he shot into their midst, wounding Oscar Carlson. He then fled to his home and barricaded himself with his family.

The men raced after him to his home, but Wyberg held them off successfully until deputies and police arrived from Hibbing, Duluth and Virginia.

AFTER 40 bowel trouble

Constipation may very easily become chronic after forty. And any continued constipation at that time of life may bring attacks of piles and a host of other unpleasant disorders.

Watch your bowels at any age. Guard them with particular care after forty. Whenever they need any help, remember a doctor should know what is best for them.

"Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin" is a doctor's prescription for the bowels. Tested by 47 years' practice, it has been found thoroughly effective in relieving constipation and its ills for men, women and children of all ages. It has proven perfectly safe even for babies. Made from fresh laxative herbs, pure pepsin and other harmless ingredients, it cannot gripe; will not sicken you or weaken you; can be used without harm as often as your breath is bad, or when your tongue is coated; whenever a headachy, bilious, gassy condition warns of constipation.

Gold Continues To Be Received From Hoarding

Washington, March 31.—Gold continued to pile up in the vaults of the federal reserve reserve banks during the week ending March 29.

A weekly statement of the reserve board revealed that $44,444,000 had been returned during this period to bring the total gold reserves of the 12 institutions to $3,236,766,000.

The present level is more than $550,000,000 above that existing when President Roosevelt closed all banking institutions and issued his call for a segregation of the metal at the regional banks. In the meantime, an abated fear on the part of bank depositors combined with expanded banking facilities to return $255,000,000 of money in circulation to its normal resting place in the treasury and in the reserve banks.

Money in circulation is the amount outside the treasury and the reserve banks, and therefore cannot be accounted for. It represents, also, all money hoarded.

Federal reserve notes in actual circulation amounted to $3,747,626,000, a decline of $186,716,000 for the week and a drop of $468,000,000 since the week ended March 8. The reserve banks held $2,616,013,000 exclusively in gold.

Other than allaying a temporary fear, the new federal reserve bank note has played an inconspicuous role, the weekly statement disclosed. Only $14,228,000 of the new money had been put in actual circulation.

Seabury Given Medal
New York, March 30.—Samuel Seabury, who was counsel to the Hofstadter legislative committee which investigated the municipal government, was presented a gold medal tonight as the citizen who did most "for the civic and industrial development of the city" in the past year.

AUTHORITY TO PROBE MORGAN BANK ASKED

Washington, March 30.—A senate investigation headed to-night toward the inmost files of one of the world's great banking houses, J. P. Morgan and company, determined to bring to light anything that has a bearing on the central task of correcting stock and bond sale practices.

Authority to inspect the Morgan records was sought of the senate by its banking committee, which disclosed it had been rebuffed so far in its efforts to bring the big private banking concern into the light of its stock market investigation. There appeared to be no doubt that the senate would grant this power. But not even that investigation was allowed to stand in the way of action on the Roosevelt proposal for immediate legislation to bring security insurance and sale under the regulation of the federal government, to afford investors protection against dishonesty and give them full opportunity to know what they are buying.

Both the banking committee of the senate and the interstate commerce committee of the house set for tomorrow morning the start of hearings on this legislation.

Attorney General Cummings and Hoston Thompson, one-time member of the federal trade commission, were invited as first witnesses, but Cummings will be unable to appear.

Congratulations

This company most heartily congratulates the local banks on the occasion of their opening. Such loyalty as shown by the officers, directors and stockholders of our banks is most commendable, and only goes to further demonstrate that we have one of the best counties in the State—populated by a people imbued with that "carry on" spirit.

During the abnormal period through which we have gone, the people have shown a wonderful spirit of cooperation and patience, believing all the time that everything would work out for the best. Now that our banks are open again, we feel sure that even greater confidence is extended those who have kept them on a safe and firm foundation all of these years. The re-organization of our banks, always in a sound condition, has only made them even stronger, and better able to serve the community.

This company looks to the future with optimism. We believe in our local financial institutions, and the people of Wilkes County. A new era is here. A new day has arrived.

Now Let's All Pull Together For Better Business

Sale of Electrical Appliances Going Over Big

You would be surprised to know how many of our customers have taken advantage of the special sale on electrical appliances now under way. Each week brings increased business. Prices on all appliances have been greatly reduced and we offer such liberal terms that most any home may now have the convenience of electrical servants. These little electrical servants are such a help to the housewife that we don't believe she will want to go without them any longer. Especially when they may now be purchased so reasonable and when electricity is now so much cheaper. You can cook from any light socket in your home.
