

Millers Creek School Finals Ended Monday

Excellent Program Given During Commencement Season at School

MILLERS CREEK, May 2.—Millers Creek high school finals began this year with a program given by the grammar grades and primary grades on Thursday evening, April 27. The program consisted of plays, recitations Friday evening the high school seniors gave the class day program. It was in the form of a radio party and was enjoyed by all and singing.

The following program was given:

Announcer, Helen Kilby; salutation, Albert Wellons; president, Albert Wellons; historian, Gwyn Nichols; gifforian, Janie Wilson; poet, Alvin Kilby; pianist, Winnie Marie Vannoy; prophet, Lucille Hayes; Mukerji, a crystal gazer, Hazel Nichols; page, Ernest Eller; testator, Vernice Whittington; valedictorian, Estelle Yates; other members of the class: Edith Kilby, Dare Hayes, Ruth Warren, Pearl Wagoner, Mabel Baker; mascot, Curtis Weiborn; sponsor, W. G. Faw; class flower, Juncus; class colors, yellow and white; class motto, "Build for Character; Not for Fame."

Preceding the senior class day exercises the music class of Miss Helen Parks gave a piano recital.

The following program was given:

Through the Air (Kern), Marie Benton; Melody of Love (Vaughn), Gozal McNeil; Humoresque (Dvorak), Hester Tubert; Sweet Heart Waltz (Anthony), Vena Osborne; Dance of the Sunflowers (Story), Leslie Benton; Mocking Bird (Kern), Winnie Marie Vannoy; The Dreamers and The Rustic Dance, Rowena Smithey.

Saturday evening the junior class presented the play, "Two Days to Marry." The cast of characters was as follows:

Simon P. Chase, as black as his race, John Walter Gaither; James J. Dare, a wifeless heir, Brian Miller; Ruford B. Sawyer, a timid lawyer, Bill Nichols; Emily Jane Pink, blacker than ink, Ina Church; Sadie L. Boise, a widow by choice, Drutheda Welsh; Imogene McShane, the sweet young thing, Hester Tubert; Walter M. Blair, a millionaire, Roscoe Staley.

The play was considered a success by everyone who saw it. Sunday afternoon, Rev. Eugene Olive, pastor First Baptist church of North Wilkesboro, delivered the Baccalaureate sermon, His subject, "How to Succeed," centered around four things:

1933 Bathing Suit

It is a ribbed blue and white one-piece bathing suit worn by Miss Verna Hillie, the feature being that little trick tie on skirt which neatly creates two suits in one. It is a new model for 1933.

four things: (1) Trying, (2) Telling, (3) Thinking, (4) Trusting.

These were the reasons assigned for the success of a man who had succeeded in a large way both in accumulating this world's goods and in distributing these goods in a way that would honor his Lord and Master. The sermon was a classic. It was indeed a sermon for the senior class, but good for all. The speaker declared that most all students could be placed in one of four classes:

1. The wish-bone class, those who sit and wish for things to come their way; 2. The funny-bone class, those who wish to be amused and nothing more; 3. The jaw-bone class, those who do nothing but talk and give worthless advice to others; 4. The back-bone class, those who really stand for something and really get up and do something.

Monday night, May 1st, was graduation night. Prof. A. B. Hurt, principal of Nathan's Creek high school in Ashe county, delivered the address. Prof. Hurt has done an outstanding piece of work at Nathan's Creek in building a large new school plant there with very little money from Ashe county to do it with. His message was enthusiastically received.

The speaker was introduced by Willard Cole, editor of The Journal-Patriot. Mr. Cole paid a fine tribute to Prof. Hurt. After the address, Mr. C. O. McNeil, Chairman of the County Board of Education, delivered the diplomas to the graduating class, fifteen in number. Mr. McNeil said some very fine things to the graduates and briefly outlined some of the future plans for educational progress in Wilkes.

Those receiving diplomas were: Albert Wellons, Dare Hayes, Lucille Hayes, Alvin Kilby, Hazel Nichols, Helen Kilby, Mabel Baker, Gwyn Nichols, Edith Kilby, Vernice Whittington, Ruth Warren, Pearl Wagoner, Estelle Yates, Janie Wilson, Winnie Marie Vannoy.

The following received diplomas from the Seventh grade:

Len Smithey, John Kilby, Jay Church, Carl McGlamery, Theodore Nichols, Conrad Nichols, Jessie Minton, Willa Nichols, Arlene Rhodes, Toyce Rhodes, Sadie Rhodes, Marcile Deal, Pearl Mahaffey, Viola Carlton, Dollie Mae Taylor, and Pauline Greene.

The following students received Certificates of Award for perfect attendance this year:

Gwyn Nichols, Vaughn Reeves, Mabel Baker, Dare Hayes, Lucille Hayes, Edith Kilby, Hazel Nichols, Winnie Marie Vannoy, Vernice Whittington, Estelle Yates, Bruce Jones, DeLoe Bumgarner,

Commencement Exercises Are Held At Lincoln Heights High

Program Friday Evening Will Bring Scholastic Year to Close

The commencement exercises at Lincoln Heights began Saturday, April 29, with the county commencement exercises under the supervision of Superintendent C. C. Wright. Thirty-four students of Lincoln Heights high received 7th grade diplomas. Mrs. Mary Osborne, teacher of the 7th grade, carried out a very delightful and varied program which was greatly enjoyed by all in attendance. Dr. B. B. Dougherty, President of the Appalachian State Teachers' College delivered the annual literary address.

The baccalaureate services were held in the school auditorium Sunday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock. The faculty, high school graduates and speaker all dressed in caps and gowns lent much dignity to the occasion. The sermon, which was delivered by Dr. D. G. Garland, pastor of Goler Memorial A. M. E. Zion church of Winston-Salem, was both impressive and inspirational. All assembled were awed by the force and power of his words, which brought to the graduates real life situations to be confronted as they leave the doors of high school. He charged the graduates to go up into the mountains where there is plenty of room for honest courageous workers, and where great tasks were yet to be done. The following program was carried out:

Proclamation, Piano, March From Tanhauser—Wagner; Opening Anthem, Holy, Holy, Holy, Assembly; Scripture lesson, Rev. H. H. Bingham; prayer, Rev. J. W. Hairston; Chant, Sweet Is Thy Mercy, Lord, Choral Club; Tenor solo, His Blessed Face—Geibel, Dawkins E. Barber; sermon, Dr. D. G. Garland; Musical presentation, Be Thou All In All—Conhurst, Choral Club; Announcements, Ass't. Prin. L. H. Key; anthem, God Bless You All—Parks, Choral Club; Benediction, Rev. H. H. Bingham; recessional, piano, March From Tanhauser—Wagner.

On Monday night the primary department presented a very beautiful and interesting operetta entitled "The Land of Dreams Come True." This presentation was under the supervision of the Misses Sara Smith, Vivian Twitty, Catherine Moore, Ruth Williams and Mrs. W. Burt Harper. The costumes were artistically designed and made, and added a touch of beautiful color combination to the occasion. A packed house witnessed and enjoyed the production.

Tuesday night witnessed the exercises of the elementary department, which was in the form of a Marionette Circus and Rhythm Band. This entertainment was under the direction of the Misses Lillian Barnett, Kitty Mason and Professor L. H. Key. Though the weather was very unfavorable, a large number enjoyed most highly this unique and new type of entertainment.

Wednesday was termed vocational night and the exercises

GRIGGS AND BLACKBURN IN FRANKLIN REVIVAL

It was the privilege of the First Baptist church of Franklin to have Rev. W. L. Griggs, pastor of Ninth Avenue Baptist church, of Charlotte, and Mr. John Kermit Blackburn, of North Wilkesboro, in a series of meetings recently. Rev. Mr. Griggs did the preaching and caused our people to be uplifted by his wonderful messages from God's word. This series is considered as one of the greatest in the history of the church. It resulted in 35 additions to the church with 27 of that number for baptism.

This is the third meeting in which this church has had Rev. Mr. Griggs as the preacher and the second in which Mr. Blackburn directed the music. Rev. Mr. Griggs is a native of Macon county and is loved throughout the entire county. Macon county is proud to own him as her son.

We feel that our church has been greatly blessed spiritually. More than a hundred of our members reconsecrated their lives to God's service.

KILLS HORSE IN HIS CHICKEN LOT

(Statesville Daily) Will Rickert, well known and respected colored man of the community known as Rabbit Town, South Statesville, who holds a job as trucker with the Southern railway at the station here, shot a plug horse Monday night, mistaking the animal for a chicken thief.

Will does not leave his work at the station until after No. 35 runs about 11 o'clock at night. It was about midnight, that he heard in the darkness an object moving around in his poultry yard and observed that his chickens were greatly disturbed. When there is a question as to whether a burglar is invading his private premises in the darkness of the night Rickert's motto is, "Shoot first, and ask questions afterward." So, the head of this peaceful household, in defense of his personal rights, fired several shots in the direction of the noise. Investigation by lantern light a little later, revealed that apparently every shot had entered the frame of his neighbor's old horse that had gotten loose and wandered away from his stall. The life of the age-worn plow animal that had seen better days had passed out—his privations and earthly toils and cares had come to an untimely end.

The matter is said to have been harmoniously adjusted between Rickert and the owner of the deceased plow horse.

Side Quit Hurting, Got Stronger, Well; CARDUI Helped Her

WOMEN! Get rid of the handicaps of a weak, debilitated condition with the assistance of Cardui.

Mrs. R. L. West, of Huntsville, Ala., writes: "I was weak and run-down. I had a pain in my side, and I kept losing weight. I grew nervous over my condition—this was unusual for me, for I am very cheerful when I am well and don't easily get nervous. I knew I ought to take something. My aunt told me I ought to try Cardui, which I did. I began to feel better. I kept it up until I had taken three or four bottles. My side quit hurting and I was soon feeling strong and well."

Cardui is sold at drug stores here.

BOWELS need watching

Let Dr. Caldwell help whenever your child is feverish or upset; or has caught cold.

His simple prescription will make that bilious, headachy, cross boy or girl comfortable, happy, well in just a few hours. It soon restores the bowels to healthy regularity. It helps "break-up" a cold by keeping the bowels free from all that sickening mucus waste.

You have a famous doctor's word for this laxative. Dr. Caldwell's record of having attended over 3500 births without loss of one mother or baby is believed unique in American medical history.

Get a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin from your drugstore and have it ready. Then you won't have to worry when any member of your family is headachy, bilious, gassy or constipated. Syrup Pepsin is good for all ages. It sweetens the bowels; increases appetite—makes digestion more complete.
