Jos. M. Prevette Named Conciliation Commissioner Ashe By Judge Hayes

Appointment Made Yesterday In Federal Court At Wilkesboro

Into Brazilian Jungles

Sailing the high seas enroute to Brazil are Mrs. Alice La Varre (top), and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Andre La Varre (below), the two women members of the La Varre Brazilian Guiana Expedition headed for unexplored jungles. They will be the first white women ever to go into this great jungle sector.

In compliance with a petition filed in federal court by fifteen farmers of Ashe county, Judge Johnson J. Hayes, who is presiding over the term now in session, Wednesday, appointed Attorney Joseph M. Prevette as Conciliation Commissioner for Ashe.

Mr. Prevette immediately filed the necessary bond and was sworn into office.

Under the provisions of the act of Congress amending the bankruptcy law, federal judges, when petitioned by fifteen or more farmers of a county, may appoint a Conciliation Commissioner, whose duty it is to handle petitions to prevent foreclosure on mortgages and to prevent judgments on other indebtedness.

The law provides, it is stated, that any person hard-pressed by debts may apply for a stay of all proceedings against him and this bars proceedings for collection as long as the farmer or individual is in the control of the federal court.

Petitions must be filed with the clerk of federal court through the commissioner whose services are free. A ten-dollar filing fee is paid to the federal court.

Until a commissioner is appointed for adjacent counties, the farmers of Wilkes, Watauga and Alleghany counties may avail themselves of the services of the Ashe commissioner.

Blackfaced comedians will entertain in the school auditorium tonight (Thursday) when the minstrel show, "Scuffle Town Ebony Review" is presented by an excellent cast from Wilkesboro. The program will begin at 8 p. m.

The performance is being sponsored by the athletic associations of the Wilkesboro and North Wilkesboro high schools.

ON MOTHER

By NITA PARLIER
PORES KNOB, Route 1, May 16.—As usual Sunday was set aside as a special day on which to pay due homage to the motherhood of the nation, the greatest estate to which any woman can lay claim. Every day should be "Mother's Day," but it is well for us to observe one special Sunday in her honor.

The mothers of the world have produced its great men. By their precept and example, their painstaking care, their instructions and prayers, they have reared sons who have gone forth to accomplish much for their country. The Mothers of great men are rarely heard of, yet they are due all the praise and the honor bestowed upon their sons. Our greatness is due to our mothers of the past but our future greatness is to the young mothers. Isn't that last statement just as true as the old adage that "the hand that rocks the cradle rules the world?"

The following tribute to "My Mother," was written by an anonymous writer and doesn't it truly deserve to be reprinted at this time?

My Mother
She carried me under her heart; Loved me before I was born; Took God's hand in hers and walked through the valley of shadows that I might live; Bathed me when I was helpless; Clothed me when I was naked; Gave me warm milk from her own body when I was hungry; Rocked me to sleep when I was weary; Pillowed me on pillows softer than down, and sang to me in the voice of an angel; Held my hand when I learned to walk; Nursed me when I was sick; Suffered with my sorrow; Laughed with my joy; Glowed with my triumph; and while I knelt at her side, she taught my lips to pray. Through all the days of my youth she gave strength for my weakness, courage for my despair, and hope to fill my hopeless heart; Was loyal when others failed; Was true when tried by fire; Was my friend when other friends were gone; Prayed for me through all the days, when flooded with sunshine or saddened by shadows; Loved me when I was unloved, and led me into man's estate to walk triumphant on the King's Highway and play a manly part; Though we lay down our lives for her we can never pay the debt we owe to a Christian mother.

Cotton Carnival Being Staged At Penney's Store

The J. C. Penney company, joining in the observance of National Cotton Week, is offering some splendid values in cotton goods this week. Penney's Cotton Carnival promises to be one of the biggest events the store has staged in many weeks and is expected to attract a large number of people to the store.

A variety of cotton goods and materials are listed in their advertisement found elsewhere in this issue and Journal-Patriot readers are invited to check this ad carefully. "Buy cotton goods at Penney's" is a good slogan this week.

Radium has a devastating effect on disease-causing bacteria. Dr. Otto Mayer, of Berlin, has discovered.

HOW SHE LOST 29 POUNDS IN 3 MONTHS

"I am using your Kruschen Salts to reduce and I've used a bottle and a half and dieted some and lost 29 pounds in 3 months. I feel so much better and intend to keep on taking the Salts as I was almost 50 pounds overweight." Mrs. Thelma Graveville, Roseville, Calif. (Jan. 11, 1933).

To lose fat and at the same time gain in physical attractiveness and feel spirited and youthful take one half teaspoonful of Kruschen in a glass of hot water before breakfast every morning.

A jar that lasts 4 weeks costs but a trifle at Horton Drug Co. or any drugstore in the world but be sure and get Kruschen Salts the SAFE way to reduce wide hips, prominent front and double chin and again feel the joy of living—money back if dissatisfied after the first jar.
