Miss Spainhower Is Tuesday Club Hostess

The members of the Tuesday Bridge Club and a trio of additional guests were most delightfully entertained by Miss Daphne Spainhower at her home on Tuesday evening. Lovely garden flowers decorated the home. Several lively games of bridge were played which resulted in high score prize falling to Miss Annie Ruth Tomlinson. Among the guests of the club Mrs. A. J. Hughes was most proficient and was awarded an attractive novelty. At the conclusion of the game the hostess, assisted by her sister, Miss Treva Spainhower, served a most delicious salad course followed by strawberry tarts with ice cream.

Miss Myrtle Norris Entertains At Bridge

Miss Myrtle Norris was hostess to the members of her bridge club and two additional guests at her attractive home Saturday afternoon. Two tables were placed amid a setting of beautiful spring flowers and a number of interesting progressions were played. Following the game the hostess served a delectable frozen salad with accessories.

Sewing Club Held Meeting On Friday

Miss Beatrice Jennings and Dare Bumgarner joined hospitality in entertaining the members of the Busy Bee Sewing Club Friday evening at the home of Miss Jennings, on Kensington Drive. After a pleasant period of sewing and conversing the hostess served delicious sandwiches and tea. Miss Mattie Hendren who has been in New York for several months was welcomed back as a member of the club. Miss Lula Jennings was an additional guest at this meeting.

B. Y. P. U. Enjoyed Picnic Last Tuesday

The B. Y. P. U. of the Baptist church enjoyed a picnic on Finley hill on Tuesday afternoon. Upon arrival at the hill outdoor games and contests were engaged in for a brief period after which supper was cooked in the open. Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Sturdivant, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Blackburn and Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Myers and the general officers of the organization were chaperones. Approximately seventy-five young people enjoyed this outing.

Girl Scout Troop Visits Jefferson

Troop No. 3 of the Girl Scouts was extended a most enjoyable courtesy on Saturday when they spent the day as the guests of the Jefferson troop. The twelve girls accompanied by their leader, Miss Mabel Topping, and Miss Virginia Hix and Mrs. W. D. Halfacre motored to that city and joined the Jefferson troop on a hike up Negro Mountain. After enjoying the scenery from the summit of the Mountain a delicious picnic dinner, which was prepared by the hostess troop, was spread. Later in the afternoon the girls returned to North Wilkesboro each reporting a splendid trip and voting the Jefferson troop ideal hostesses. Mrs. Joseph M. Prevette, formerly of this city, is leader of the Girl Scouts in Jefferson.

Mrs. Don Coffey Is Hostess At Bridge

The members of the Friday Bridge Club were the guests of Mrs. Don Coffey at her attractive home on Friday afternoon. Lovely roses, peonies and other garden flowers decorated the spacious rooms where the tables were placed for the game. Following a number of progressions the hostess served delicious refreshments in two courses.

Mrs. Max Barker Is Hostess At Party

Mrs. Max Barker entertained at one of the most delightful parties of the spring season at her home on Memorial Avenue, Tuesday afternoon. Lovely garden flowers were profusely used in the rooms where four tables were placed for play. High score prize went to Mrs. Henry Moore. When cards were put aside dainty covers were placed on the tables and a delicious salad course followed by sweets was served by Mrs. Barker.

Richard Reins Is Honored On Birthday

Honoring her little son, Richard, on the sixth anniversary of his birthday, Mrs. Ralph Reins entertained quite a number of small friends on Wednesday afternoon at her home in Wilkesboro. Various games which children love were played on the lawn. The treasure hunt proved to be a real thrill for the youngsters and their enthusiasm was almost unbounded when the treasure was discovered by little Margaret Jones. The climax of the afternoon came when the small guests were ushered into the dining room. Here a color motif of pink and white was carried out in detail. Lovely roses were used and the beautiful white birthday cake topped with six glowing pink candles held central place on the table. Delicious ice cream and cake was served by Mrs. Reins, assisted by her mother, Mrs. A. L. Lippard. Each guest received a bright colored balloon as a memento of this happy afternoon.

Woman's Wesley Bible Class Meets

The Woman's Wesley Bible class of the Methodist church met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. P. Horton, with sixteen members present. Mrs. Horton, the newly elected president, held the chair during a short business session. Mrs. R. M. Brame conducted the devotionals and also had charge of the program on "Fellowship." Following the program a pleasant social period was enjoyed at which time the hostess, assisted by her daughter and little granddaughter, Mrs. Newton and Mary Louise Newton, served delicious refreshments.

Ladies Aid Society Held Meet Tuesday

The Ladies Aid Society of the First Baptist church met Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. L. A. Hauser. The president, Mrs. C. O. McNeil, presided over a brief business session at which time the routine business was transacted. A social hour followed the business and the hostess served sandwiches and sweets. The last meeting of the year will be held in June and the year's business will be ended at this time and reports made of the work.

Tenth Grade Students Have Fine Outing

The boys and girls of the tenth grade of the high school accompanied by their home room teachers, Miss Wilhelmina DeLaney and Mr. H. V. Overcash, and Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Halfacre enjoyed a most delightful outing at the Isaac Walton recreation grounds on Monday afternoon. The group left town at five o'clock and at six a sumptuous picnic supper was served. Approximately twenty-five young people enjoyed this outing.

Girl Scouts On Hike On Monday

Troop No. 2 of the local Girl Scouts accompanied by their leader, Mrs. H. V. Overcash, went on a hike to Lovers Lane on Monday afternoon. The troop was divided into two teams and a nature contest followed. Later in the afternoon a delicious picnic supper was spread after which the girls returned home.

Lovely Party Given In Wilkesboro Monday

The attractive home of Mrs. Joe Barber in Wilkesboro was the scene of a lovely party Monday afternoon when Mrs. Barber and Miss Frank Somers were joint hostesses to a number of friends. Early summer flowers in all their radiant beauty were lavishly used throughout the home as decorations. Bridge was played at three tables during the afternoon and at the conclusion of the game Mrs. Louis Nelson was awarded high score prize. A delicious course of refreshments consisting of salad with accessories followed by strawberry tarts with whipped cream was served by the hostesses.

Birthday Dinner Given On Sunday

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Hall entertained at a lovely dinner at their home on Trogon Street, Sunday, May 21, in celebration of the sixty-ninth birthday of Mrs. Hall's father, Mr. R. E. Faw, Sr.

Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. John A. Faw, and daughter, Jean, and son, John A. Jr., of Greensboro, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Williams and daughter, Ruth Ray, of West Jefferson, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Elledge of North Wilkesboro, and Mr. Faw.

This bride went home to HIS mother

THEY'LL be married a year this June, and he needs new undershirts. The bride asked his mother "What kind?"—and got the answer, "HANES!"

HANES Shirts cling closer than a poor relation—but never cut or bind. Cool, comfortable, and only 25c for the combed-yarn number! No matter how many times a HANES goes into the tub, it still keeps its s-t-r-e-t-c-h! Keeps its original length too.

If you don't know a HANES dealer, please write P. H. Hanes Knitting Co., Winston-Salem, N. C.

HANES makes luxurious Lisle, Durene, and Rayon shirts. Only 35c and 50c. The combed-yarn shirt is 25c • 25c 35c 50c
