

Brier Creek Is Ready For Meet

Sesqui-Centennial Is To Be Held at Church June 25; Much Other News

ROARING RIVER, Route 2, June 14.—The public at large are cordially welcomed, and the pastors and congregations of the nearby churches, such as Cranberry, Oak Forest, Antioch, Pleasant Grove, Roaring River Baptist and Roaring River Methodist, Union, Ronda, Dennyville, Bethel, Swan Creek, and many others, are extended an especial invitation to attend the sesqui-centennial and home coming at Brier Creek, June 25. Miss Mattie Sale, of the committee, is especially anxious to have representatives of the congregations of all the churches formed from Brier Creek, and of all the churches of which Rev. N. T. Jarvis is pastor, present.

The pastors, Revs. W. G. Mitchell, of Jennings, and Pervis C. Parks, of Cycle, held services at Cranberry and Oak Forest, respectively Sunday.

Judge Phlete A. Martin, of Wichita Falls, Texas, has written that he will not be able to be present at the Brier Creek sesqui-centennial and deliver an address, as he has to hold court all through June. As Judge Martin was born and grew to manhood within a mile of the church and attended both the Baptist and the Episcopal services there, the community was especially anxious to have him present.

Cranberry church is much improved in appearance by the new recess built back of the pulpit, and the interior is to be painted and the exterior repainted soon. According to the pastor, he and the women of the congregation are planning to paint the inside and the men the outside. Considerable money has already been collected and the redecorating will probably be completed before the revival, which usually comes the second Sunday in August. New pews are also projected.

Mrs. N. T. Jarvis and daughter, Miss Minnie Sue, spent last Monday in North Wilkesboro, visiting Mrs. Jarvis' sister, Mrs. D. S. Lane.

Rev. and Mrs. N. T. Jarvis and little grandsons, Jim Frank and Shirley Roberts and Gray Jarvis, spent a short time Tuesday morning with Mrs. Jarvis' sister, Mrs. Laura Linney.

Mr. Worth Sale, of the Brier Creek community, lost one of his horses last week.

Rev. N. T. Jarvis preached at Union Baptist church near Cycle, Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. George Harvey Sale, who formerly worked with Mr. O. Dean Bentley, of Wilkesboro, of the highway commission, is now at home helping farm.

Mr. Vilas Glass, of Spurgeon, who was a member of the senior class of the University of North Carolina the past year and who is also an alumnus of Bluefield College, Bluefield, W. Va., visited recently in the home of his uncle, Rev. N. T. Jarvis. He is also a former teacher.

Rev. and Mrs. N. T. Jarvis, of the Cranberry community, and Mrs. Laura Martin Linney, of this neighborhood, spent last Thursday afternoon with Misses Mattie E. and Armisa Sale, of the Brier Creek community, and worked on plans for the Brier Creek sesqui-centennial.

The Brier Creek grave yard will be cleaned off and other work done on the grounds there Saturday.

The Cranberry and Brier Creek choirs are practising singing. There will be an all-day fifth Sunday singing at old Brier Creek church the fifth Sunday in July.

Mrs. Lois Jarvis Roberts and sister, Miss Minnie Sue Jarvis, were among those in North Wilkesboro shopping after services at Cranberry Saturday.

Mr. Noah Jarvis, Jr., of the Cranberry vicinity, is recovering from a recent illness.

Mrs. Joe Love and small daughter, Madeline, visited Mrs. Love's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lee St. John, of Clingman, Sunday.

Rev. N. T. Jarvis was the minister holding the funeral for Clyde Anderson at Fishing Creek Wednesday of last week.

The revival at Antioch will probably be held the fifth Sunday in July, or the first Sunday in August.

Rev. N. T. Jarvis visited Mrs. Duck Walker, who is very feeble, last Thursday, in the Brier Creek section.

It is reported that a company store is to be established at Roaring River.

REPEAL FORCES LEAD IN MASSACHUSETTS

Boston, June 13.—Prohibition repeal forces got away to a long lead in returns in Massachusetts' special election today of delegates to a constitutional convention for ratification of an amendment to repeal the 18th amendment.

Massachusetts is the 11th state to vote on the repeal question, the 10 others, all of which voted wet, were Wyoming, Illinois, Indiana, New York, New Jersey, Michigan, Rhode Island, Delaware, Wisconsin and Nevada.

With 1,685 precincts out of 1,707 in the state tabulated, the wets had a combined high vote of 434,062 against 97,733 for the dries.
