

SOCIETY

MISS MAMIE SOCKWELL, EDITOR PHONE 215

Miss Tomlinson Is Hostess At Bridge

On Friday evening at the home of Mrs. James O'Daniel, Miss Annie Ruth Tomlinson delightfully entertained the members of her bridge club with three additional guests, Mrs. Ivey Moore, Misses Grace Dean Forester and Mamie Witherpoon. Two tables were in play with the visitor's award going to Mrs. Moore. Within the club Miss Hallie Waugh proved to be the most efficient. A delectable salad and sweet course followed the game. A variety of summer flowers were used in the decorations.

Friday Club Meets With Mrs. Horton

Mrs. W. P. Horton was gracious hostess to the members of the Friday club at her home on Friday afternoon. A beautiful array of garden flowers made a festive background for the rooms where the guests were entertained. With the club president, Mrs. C. E. Jenkins, presiding, Miss Lizzie Hisle called the roll which was responded to with current events of decided interest. Following this the members spent an enjoyable hour in sewing, conversation and playing rook. At the close of the happy afternoon the hostess, aided by her daughter, Mrs. W. R. Newton, served delicious refreshments in two courses. Two additional guests enjoyed the hospitality of Mrs. Horton.

"Sunrise Trail" Is G. A. Program Topic

The theme, "Sunrise Trail," made up an inspiring program for Group No. 1 of the Intermediate G. A.'s of the First Baptist church in their monthly meeting that was held on Thursday evening with their president, Miss Amy Catherine Myers. The program was in charge of Miss Bessie Chloe Rhodes who was assisted by Misses Mamie Yates, Martha Valentine, Margaret Casel and Miss Myers. Miss Lura Reynolds met with the group and explained to them the requirements of becoming a "Lady in Waiting." Those that attain this goal will be given a trip to the Izaak Walton Camp. Dainty refreshments were served during the social hour to the fourteen members attending.

Members Of Fidelis Class Met Tuesday

Twenty members of the Fidelis class of the First Baptist church attended their monthly meeting on Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. J. B. Williams. Mrs. Jake Caudill was joint hostess for the evening. The regular routine of business was transacted with the president, Mrs. A. H. Casey in the chair. Mrs. Eugene Olive led a very impressive devotional. A delightful social hour followed the meeting with tempting refreshments being served by the hostesses.

Baptist Junior Girls In Meeting

Both groups of the Junior Girls Auxiliary of the First Baptist church held enthusiastic meetings on Friday afternoon. Miss Elizabeth Neal was hostess to the white group at her home in Wilkesboro with an attendance of thirteen members. Beth Jones presided for the business part of the meeting after which a splendid program was given by the members of Mabel Johnston's circle. The meeting throughout was an outdoor affair. The program was given on the lawn of the Neal home and from there the members with their leader, Miss Lunda Hendren, went to Peden Hill where lemonade and sandwiches were served. Mildred Campbell entertained the green group. Twelve members were present and heard the splendid program given under the direction of Miss Marie Haigwood, leader of the group. The topic was, "Youth, Messenger of To-morrow." Several of the children assisted Miss Haigwood in the program. The hostess, assisted by her mother, Mrs. George Campbell, served delightful refreshments to close the afternoon.

Mrs. C. C. Kilby Is Circle Hostess

Mrs. C. C. Kilby was hostess to the members of Circle No. 1 of the First Baptist church at her home on Friday evening. The devotional for the evening was led by Mrs. Kilby and the prayer offered by Mrs. Tip McNeil. The study book, which had been taught by different members of the class was completed. Plans were made to begin the new study course, this is to be taught by Mrs. Eugene Olive. Mrs. D. T. Belsh held the chair for the business session.

Members Of Busy Bee Club In Meet

A pleasant and profitable evening was spent by the members of the Busy Bee Sewing club on Thursday evening with Mrs. Everett Elledge as hostess. Needle work and chatting occupied the members throughout the evening. A profusion of cut flowers were attractively arranged in the home giving a colorful background for the guests. When the sewing was laid aside the hostess, assisted by her little nieces, Nelue and Blanche Hall, served delicious refreshments.

Mrs. James W. McNeill Is Charming Hostess

Mrs. James W. McNeill was charming hostess at the home of her son, Dr. J. H. McNeill, on Saturday afternoon entertaining at bridge and tea. Three tables were placed for the game amid a lovely setting of garden flowers. Winners for the table prizes were Mesdames Carl Coffey and Gene Poe and Miss Lillian Stafford. Tea was poured at five o'clock by Mrs. J. E. Spainhour.

Hollywood Lake Is Scene Fine Party

Hollywood Lake was the scene of much merriment on Tuesday evening when around sixteen boys and girls of the younger set motored out to the lake for a picnic supper. The party motored out about five o'clock, later enjoying a sumptuous supper. Even though it was cool some of the group braved the chilly waters for a swim.

Mrs. Will Blair Is Bridge Hostess

A pretty club party was given by Mrs. Will Blair at her home on Friday afternoon when she entertained the members of the Friday bridge club and a few additional guests. Contract bridge was in play at two tables. Garden flowers attractively placed added to the charm of the home. The hostess served delicious refreshments in two courses following play.

Mrs. C. D. Coffey, Jr. Sewing Club Hostess

The members of the Wednesday Sewing club and a few additional guests enjoyed a delightful afternoon yesterday, being entertained by Mrs. C. D. Coffey, Jr., at her home on Memorial Avenue. Cut flowers were used in profusion throughout the home forming a festive background for the guests, who spent a happy period in needlework and chatting. The hostess, aided by her daughter, Miss Lura Coffey, and sister, Mrs. L. M. Nelson, served a delectable salad course at the close of the sewing period.

Delightful Meeting Of Auxiliary Held

Representatives from the surrounding units of the Legion Auxiliary, Boone, Lenoir, Hickory, Newton and Charlotte, attended the monthly meeting of the Wilkes unit here that was held in the Legion Auxiliary club house Monday afternoon. The meeting was called to order by the local chairman, Mrs. A. W. Horton, who gave a splendid report of the year's activities of the organization.

At the close of the business part of the meeting, Mrs. L. P. Frans, of Hickory, Department Fidac Chairman, was introduced and spoke very interestingly on June, the Fidac month. Others appearing on the program were, Mrs. C. P. Andrew, of Charlotte, Department Radio Chairman, who made a talk on radio programs; Mrs. Joseph Yount, of Newton, 16th District Committeeman brought greetings from the district; and Mrs. Broome, of Newton, indorsed the candidacy of Mrs. W. R. Absher for president of the North Carolina Department of the American Legion Auxiliary. Miss Challie Brandon Hall, also of Newton, a department committeewoman, was another special guest.

Hostess for the afternoon were Mesdames J. A. Rousseau, John E. Justice and Miss Nell Rousseau and with the assistance of other members served ice tea, sandwiches and cakes. During the social hour the guests were shown through the building. A variety of cut flowers tastefully arranged added to the attractiveness of the club room.

Y. W. A. Meets With Mrs. John Cashion

The Wilkesboro Y. W. A. of the Baptist church held its monthly session on Monday evening at the home of Mrs. John Cashion. The meeting was largely attended and heard a splendid program given by Miss Mabel Hendren, those assisting Miss Hendren were Misses Virginia Johnson, Sue Lyons, and Grace Blevins. Several important matters came up for discussion with Mrs. Cashion in the chair. Conests and delightful refreshments filled the social hour.

Dorcas Class Was Entertained Friday

With Mrs. O. K. Whittington as hostess the Dorcas class of the Wilkesboro Baptist church held an interesting meeting on Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Whittington. A large number of members were in attendance. Mrs. F. G. Holman opened the meeting with a very impressive devotional service. Following the business part of the meeting the members engaged in a period of sewing. Dainty refreshments were served to close the afternoon. Mrs. Zeb Davis will be hostess for the July meeting.

Betty Summers Is Hostess To Friends

Betty Summers, small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Summers, was hostess to twelve of her little friends Thursday afternoon when she celebrated her 4th birthday anniversary at her home on Memorial Avenue. The small guests spent an enjoyable hour playing on the lawn, later being called into the dining room which was attractively decorated in pink and white. On the table reposed a white birthday cake topped with four pink candles. The cake was cut and served with ices. Dolls and miniature automobiles were given as favors. Mrs. Summers was assisted by her sister, Miss Evelyn Gentry, and Mrs. Glenn McNeill in the entertainment of the children. The honoree was the recipient of a number of lovely gifts.

Mrs. Frank Smith Is Honored Here

A pretty courtesy was shown Mrs. Frank Smith, of Cleveland, Tenn., on Thursday afternoon when Miss Hallie Waugh entertained at her home on D street honoring Mrs. Smith. The honoree, who prior to her marriage was Miss Beulah Waugh of this city, is spending sometime here with relatives. Garden flowers made effective decorations for the rooms where contract and auction bridge were enjoyed at four tables. Winners of the high score prizes were Mrs. A. J. Hughes and Mrs. Bill Absher. Mrs. Smith was also remembered with a lovely gift. After the removal of cards a salad and ice course was served by the hostess, aided by Mrs. N. H. Waugh, mother of the hostess, Mrs. Jay Johnson and Mrs. B. H. Waugh.

Current Topics Club Met On Thursday

The members of the Current Topic club, with their husbands, enjoyed a delightful outing on Thursday evening. About six o'clock the party motored out to the Izaak Walton camp where a sumptuous picnic supper was served. Around twenty-five people composed the group.

Baptist Circles In Fine Meetings

The inspirational meeting of the North Wilkesboro Baptist church missionary society was held on Tuesday afternoon at the church and was largely attended. The opening prayer was offered by Mrs. C. D. Coffey, Sr., after which Circle No. 2, Mrs. A. C. Dennis leader, presented a most interesting program on, "Youth, To-morrow's Messenger of the Word." A number of the ladies took part on the program. A fitting feature of the program was the special music rendered by the little folk. The Sunbeam Band sang, "Be a Sunbeam" and Little Miss Hilda Dennis, four year old daughter of Mrs. Dennis, sweetly sang, "Jesus Loves Me." In the absence of the president, Mrs. J. N. Shockey, the business part of the meeting was presided over by Mrs. R. P. Casey.

Girls' Group Met Monday Evening

Thirteen members and three visitors attended the monthly meeting of Group No. 3 of the First Baptist church Intemedi-

Denmark Appointment

Miss Helen Lee Doherty, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry L. Doherty of New York, is now in Denmark, going there to be Assistant to Mrs. Ruth Bryan Owen, now U. S. Minister.

ate Girls Auxiliary on Monday evening at the home of Miss Lois Wiles. The regular routine of business was transacted with the president, Miss Wiles in the chair. The topic for discussion was "Along the Sunrise Trail" and was given by Miss Annie Jo Haigwood, with the assistance of a number of the members. Miss Elsie Nichols conducted the devotional. Delightful refreshments were served during the enjoyable social hour.

Idlewise Club Is Entertained Here

Mrs. Tal Barnes and Mrs. W. G. Brandon jointly entertained the members of the Idlewise club, and four visitors at the home of Mrs. Barnes on Thursday evening. Needlework and chatting filled the evening after which tempting refreshments were served. Visitors for the evening were Mesdames Claude Gentry, Kent Thomas, Grady Nichols and Ruby Pendley. A picnic will take the place of the next regular meeting and at this time the husbands of the members of the club will be special guests.

Misses Stafford Honor Visitors

Misses Lillian and Mary Lindsay Stafford complimented a pair of visitors when they entertained at bridge Thursday afternoon at their home on E street, the honorees being Mrs. Gene Poe, of Lenoir, and Mrs. Charles E. Wilson, of Catonsville, Md., Mrs. Poe, a sister of Mrs. George Forester, and Mrs. Wilson, sister of Mrs. Dudley Hill, both were guests of their sisters in the city for some time. Five tables were set for bridge among summer flowers, which filled the hours of the late afternoon. A salad and ice course was served after the game. A series of spirited progressions resulted in the top score prize going to Mrs. Max Barker with Miss Clyde Scroggs receiving the consolation award.

Miss Hazel Templeton Is Wed To Mr. Lebesque

A wedding of interest to a wide circle of friends here was solemnized in Glen Cove, New York, Saturday, June 10th, when Miss Hazel Templeton became the bride of Mr. Alfred Lebesque, of New York. The ceremony was performed by Judge A. Scott.

The bride was lovely in a suit of white flannel with white accessories and was attended by her sister, Miss Bernice Templeton, of New York, as bridesmaid. Mr. Charles T. Krup acted as best man.

Immediately after the ceremony, the bride and bridegroom left for Niagra Falls and other points of interest and after July 1st will be at home, Brentwood Long Island, New York.

Mrs. Lebesque is the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J.

Templeton, of Hays, and was educated at Guilford College. She is a graduate nurse of King's Park Hospital, Long Island, New York. The bridegroom holds a responsible position with a Veteran's Hospital in New York.

The following announcement was received here "Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Templeton announce the marriage of their daughter, Hazel, to Mr. Alfred Lebesque, Saturday, June the tenth, Nineteen hundred and thirty-three, Glen Cove, New York."

Lightning Kills Two

New York, June 12.—Two members of a picnic party of five were killed and another seriously injured when lightning today struck a tree on Pelham parkway, the Bronx, under which the five men had sought shelter. Frank De Palo, 53 years old, was killed instantly, and Frank Ella, 40, died later at a hospital.

NOTICE

All persons having friends or relatives buried at Briar Creek Baptist church are requested to meet Saturday morning, June 17th, at 7 o'clock to clean off church grounds and graveyard. MRS. SHIRLEY ROBERTS.

New Goods--New Styles

On account of the rapidly changing prices we have made two very recent trips to market, and consequently our store is filled with unusually large assortments of the latest style merchandise. We strongly advise buying at present prices as merchandise of all kinds unquestionably must advance, and the Sales Tax must be added after July 1st.

Newest Styles In Millinery

The large hat is coming into its own, even the big "Merry Widow" hat of the '90's. Be well dressed in one of our large crystal straws, a flower-trimmed leghorn or a large hair hat. Each—

$3.95	$4.95	$5.95
--------	--------	--------

Wide Pique and Linen Hats, All White—

$1.98	$2.98
--------	--------

New Lace Hats to match the lace dresses, each ..... $1.98

White Pique and Linen Hats, newest shapcs, each ..... $1.00

$5.95 Group of Summer Dresses

"They look like $10.00 Dresses."

Our Llewellyn group, arriving new each week, has been a phenomenal success. All made of high grade silks, in white and pastel washables, as well as plains or prints in darker colors.

Newest In Dresses

Novelty cotton laces and eyelets are sweeping the country. Be well dressed in one of these. They come in white and pastel colors as well as darker shades. Prices from—

$2.88 to $9.95 each

Also an assortment of new suits in monotone silk printed sheers and Mallinson's crepe.

$9.95 to $10.95 each

New Wash Materials

New "Lady Lovelace" voiles, yard .....	39c
New Pique Voiles, yard .....	25c
New Organdy, yard .....	25c
New Dimity, dainty patterns, yard .....	19c
Large assortment of Sheer Materials, yard .....	15c

New White Jewelry Is Now In Vogue

BRACELETS, NECKLACES, EARBOBS

at 50c each

BRING ME YOUR Watches, Clocks and Jewelry that need repairing when you come to town on "NORTH WILKESBORO DAYS" Friday and Saturday Lowest prices charged and work guaranteed.

Carl W. Steele
Next Door to Postoffice

IT WILL SURELY PAY YOU TO VISIT OUR STORE ON "NORTH WILKESBORO DAYS"—FRIDAY AND SATURDAY

Spainhour-Sydnor Dry Goods Co.

NORTH WILKESBORO, N. C.