Birthday Supper Given Mrs. Pardue

Brier Creek Lady Honored Saturday Night; Other News Of Dellaplane

ROARING RIVER, Route 2, June 17.—A birthday supper honoring Mrs. Wilson Pardue, of the Brier Creek section, was given last Saturday night.

Mrs. Ransie Staley has been quite ill with something akin to flu or grippe since last Sunday, but is improving.

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Eller, who live near the cotton mill, attended the funeral last Sunday of his aunt, Mrs. B. H. Proffit, of Evanston, Wyoming, at Mount Pleasant.

Mrs. Laura Linney spent last Wednesday afternoon in the Cranberry section with her sister, Mrs. N. T. Jarvis. She also called at the home of Mr. J. M. Ray, who passed away the night before, and spent a short time with Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Jarvis.

Mrs. J. S. Pardue lost the majority of a flock of 105 hens and several turkeys, including a 22-pound gobbler, with limberneck last week.

children were among those going to the cherry orchard last Sunday.

Revs. W. G. Mitchell, of Jennings, and Rev. J. B. Ray visited at Rev. N. Jarvis' the second Sunday. Mr. Ray was called to Fall Creek, near Elkin, to hold the funeral for Mrs. Bryant.

Rev. N. T. Jarvis and daughter, Miss Minnie Sue, of the Cranberry section, and Mrs. Laura Martin Linney spent Friday in North Wilkesboro shopping.

The reunion of Cedar Run Academy was held at Vashiti June 10. Addresses were made by Prof. J. W. Hendren, a former principal of the school, and by F. C. Gwaltney, and others. J. C. Linney, postmaster at Hiddenite, one of the earliest students of the academy and one of the founders of the Bentonian Literary Society, who is very familiar with the history of the Cedar Run Academy, is said to have also made a talk. As perhaps very few know, Mrs. Laura Martin Linney, of the Dellaplane victory, was once a member of the Cedar Run faculty, having taught piano and "callisthenics" there in 1887-1888.

The company store at Roaring River is under construction and the work progressing very rapidly.

Mrs. T. P. Ray, of Taylorsville, spent two days in this community where she was called on account of the death of her brother-in-law, Mr. Marshall Ray. Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Wright and two daughters, of Hunting Creek, were also here. Mr. Wright is a first cousin of C. C. Wright, our veteran superintendent, who taught at Dellaplane in the late nineties and who is retiring after 34 years.

Messrs. J. B. Henderson Jr., and Charles Hulcher, of Wilkesboro, visited in the home of Mr. L. M. Jarvis, of the Cranberry section, Thursday afternoon.

Mr. Worth Sale and daughter, Miss Mary Kate, of the Brier Creek section, were in North Wilkesboro shopping Friday.

John W. Shepherd Dies At Ferguson

He Was Native Of Catawba County; Death Came As He Was Out Fishing

FERGUSON, June 19.—Our community was greatly saddened last Saturday afternoon by the sudden death of Mr. John W. Shepherd. Mr. Shepherd in company with Mr. Jas. Barlow was fishing on Elk Creek when he was suddenly seized with a heart attack, evidently, and was dead before Mr. Barlow could get to him. Mr. Shepherd came to this section several years ago from Catawba county and was a substantial resident of our community. At his death he was fifty-four years of age. He leaves a wife, Mrs. Ella Shepherd and the following children: George Shepherd, of Akron, O., John Greene, of Evanston, Wyoming, Garner, of Hickory, Clay and Eugene, of Ferguson, Mrs. Wayne Proffit, of Evanston, Wyoming, Elizabeth, of Hickory, and Hazel, of Ferguson.

Mr. Shepherd was largely a self made man and a hard worker as long as he was physically able to work. He was quiet and unassuming, had firm convictions and lived up to them. It is true he had his enemies as any one will who endeavors to do his duty. Many people are disliked because they are misunderstood. He also had his friends by the hundreds as was evidenced by the large number who attended his funeral. His opportunities in life were very meagre, but in spite of his handicaps it can be truly said he made one of the greatest contributions to the world it is possible for anyone to make. He reared and educated a highly creditable family which is a priceless heritage for him to leave behind. He was a member of the Lutheran church at Hickory. His funeral was conducted at the home Monday morning by Rev. A. J. Foster and interment will take place at Beaver Creek Baptist cemetery Tuesday a. m. All the family were present except Mrs. Wayne Proffit and Mr. John Greene Shepherd who were unable to get here.

Many visitors from Hickory, North Wilkesboro, Lenoir and other places were here this week attending the funeral of Mr. J. W. Shepherd.

Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Kyles, Mr. Harold Kyles, Mr. and Mrs. Byron Bradburn and children, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Kyles, of Troutman were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Ferguson, Sunday.

Friends here of Mr. Ervin German, of Lenoir, will be glad to learn that he is much improved from his recent illness.

We regret to learn that Mr. Clingman Minton, who is sick in the Caldwell Hospital, continues very ill.

The local Grange will meet the last Friday night in June (the 30th). An interesting program will be given.

Durham, June 20.—The Durham County Bar association will present the name of J. Elmer Long, Durham attorney, for the presidency of the state bar association at the annual convention July 6-8 at Wrightsville Beach. A resolution to that effect was unanimously adopted by the Durham bar tonight.

Washington, June 20.—Mrs. Palmer Jerman, it is now understood, is to be appointed assistant to the collector of internal revenue, C. H. Robertson, who is to assume his new duties about the first. Mr. Robertson yesterday conferred with Mr. Helvering, commissioner of internal revenue. He was accompanied by Senator Bailey.

Nashville, Tenn., June 20.—After listening to arguments for three hours, the Tennessee Supreme court today took under advisement the habeas corpus case of Colonel Luke Lea and Luke Lea, Jr., who for almost two years have carried on a fight to escape penalties imposed in North Carolina as a result of their conviction of bank law violations.

Raleigh, June 20.—Harry McMullan, Washington attorney, will be director of the sales tax division to be organized in the department of revenue. He will take office within the next few days.

Washington, June 20.—H. G. Baily will probably be put in charge of the North Carolina branch of the public works program. Mr. Baily is dean of the school of engineering at the state university.

Miss Ferguson Will Make Keynote Talk

Young Democrats Expected To Face Repeal Issue "Standing Up" Says Dorsett

Raleigh, June 19.—Young Democratic clubs of North Carolina will face the question of repeal of the 18th amendment "standing up." Dewey Dorsett of Raleigh, state president, said in a statement today announcing that Miss Isobel Ferguson, of Waynesville, has been chosen keynote speaker for the annual convention July 8 at Wrightsville Beach.

Miss Ferguson, secretary of the state organization and a member of the Haywood county club at Waynesville, is a granddaughter of the late Judge Ferguson, a distinguished jurist in his day in the western part of the state. She is professor of history on the faculty of Salem college.

Dorsett also announced that Representative J. Bayard Clerk, of the seventh congressional district, has accepted an invitation to make the address of welcome. At the banquet the night of July 8, Governor Ehringhaus and Senator Reynolds will speak.

Miss DeLaney Is Winner In Photo Contest In City

Judges Award Prize To Cascade Scene Taken By Member Local School Faculty

Those who have been interested in the kodak contest conducted by the Blue Ridge Studio and sponsored by the Woman's Club will be interested to know that the final decision of the judges went in favor of the cascade scene made by Miss Wilhemina DeLaney. The contest ran for several weeks, the outstanding picture for each week being given an enlargement. From these weekly winners the final decision was made.

Some very fine kodak work was exhibited, and the final choice was difficult. Before a picture was eliminated it was carefully studied for placing of object, naturalness of pose, background, blemish and lighting of subjects face, whether shadowy or chalky in effect.

The studio will soon offer attractive 8 x 10 cabinet size photos for only $1.00 and it is hoped that in appreciation of Mr. Johnson's very liberal commission of 33 1-3 per cent given the Woman's Club in the contest just closed, that members of the
