The Brushy Mountain B. Y. P. U. Associational meeting was held with Pleasant Home church Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

The meeting was called to order and was presided over by the Associational President, Mrs. John Cashion. An inspirational program was rendered on the B. Y. P. U. theme for 1933—"Looking Unto Jesus" by the following: Misses Marie McNeil, Marie Haigwood, Eula Lowe, Grace Blevins and Messrs Bill Dancy and Vaughn Jennings. After the program, the following officers were elected:

President, Mrs. Helen L. Cashion; vice president, division No. 1, Fate Matherly; vice president, division No. 2, Ella Mae Foster; vice president, division No. 3, Bill Sturdivant, secretary-treasurer, Manie Brewer; chorister, Hubert Bullis; pianist, Joyce Wellborn; Junior-Intermediate leader, Marie McNeil.

After the election of officers, Mr. Bryan Hurd, regional president and Miss Winnie Rickett, State B. Y. P. U. secretary, delivered inspirational addresses. The service was closed with a quartette by Messrs. A. H. Andrews, D. E. Elledge, Avery Church and Hubert Bullis.

Methodist Church Notes

Mr. Howell Gabriel taught the Men's Class Sunday in the absence of Prof. Halfacre. Fifty-three men heard him with deep interest. A comparison for June and July this year and last year reveals an increased attendance to this year's credit. Men's class last year 372, this year 391. Sunday school last year 1689, this year 1726.

At the morning a large congregation greeted the pastor. The sermon theme was "Is Religion A Burden?" Miss Lois Scroggs was at the organ and rendered the offertory using, "A Mighty Fortress," as a motif. Special prayer was offered for the bereaved.

The pastor announced that all the programs which were planned last November for the Conference year had been carried out to date. We try to plan our work and work our plan.

The Woman's Wesley Bible Class was announced to meet with Mrs. J. Clinton Smoot on Tuesday, 3:30 p. m. at her summer home on Brushy Mountain. Miss Lizzie Hisle is joint hostess.

The W. C. T. U. will meet with Mrs. W. P. Horton on Thursday, 3:30 p. m. All ladies invited.

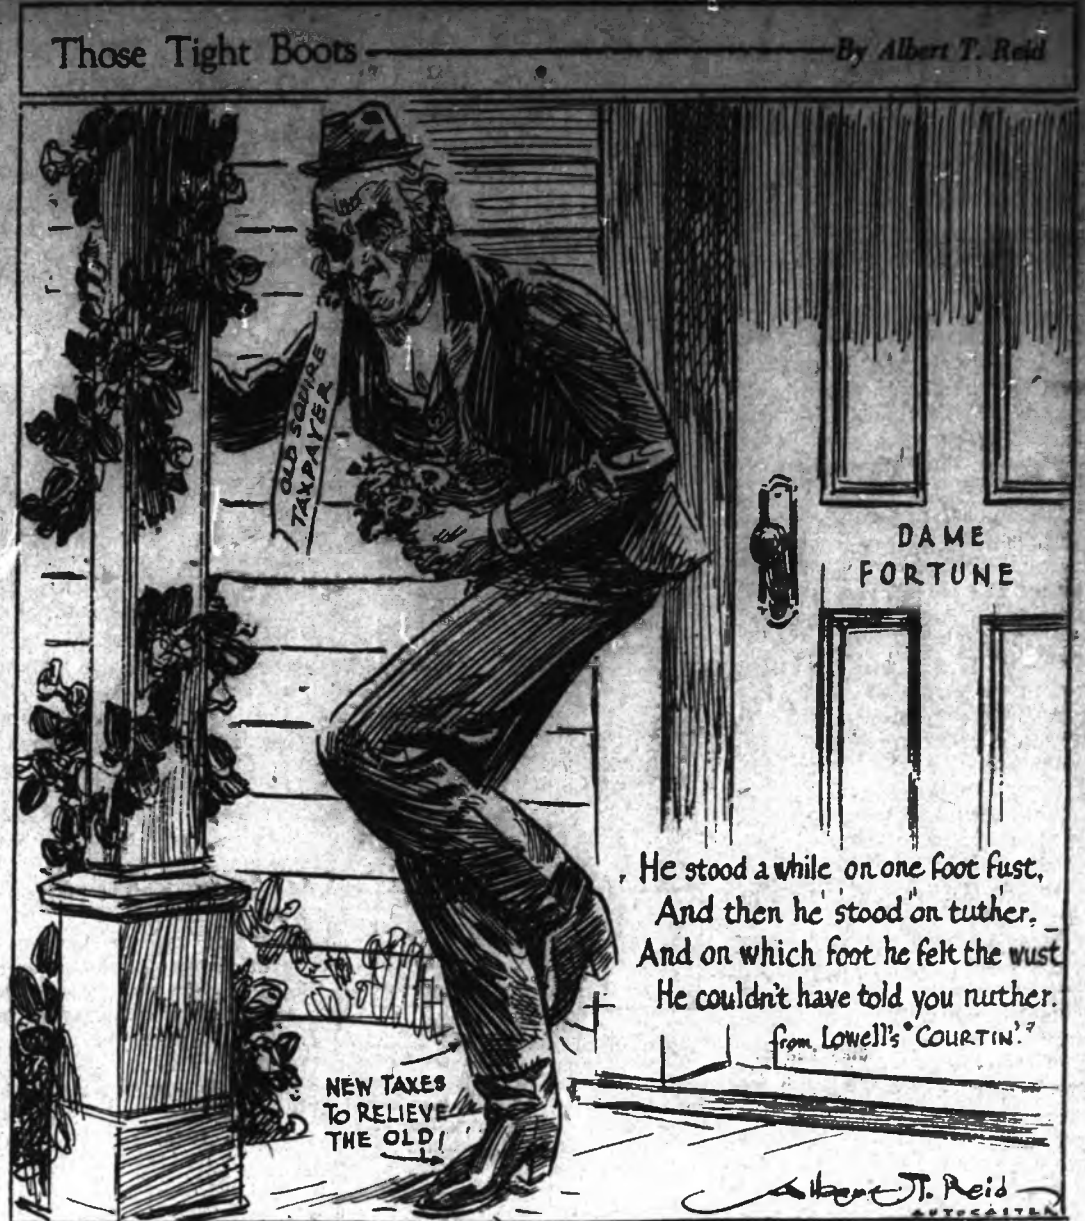

The prayer group will meet on Friday, 7:30 p. m. with Mrs. W. G. Gabriel. All the ladies are invited to participate in this "heart of religion" service.

Last Friday six children were left at the parsonage by the Children's Home truck to be distributed to Lenoir and other places for a two weeks' stay in homes. This will be a blessing to the children as a respite from an institutional home to private homes, and a benediction to the hostesses for they will be entertaining God's little ones. Any one around here wanting a child for a while notify the pastor.

Two hundred fruit jars are also here. Who will take one or more to fill with fruit or vegetables for the Children's Home? Phone 80.

Joe Brame acted as Secretary of the Sunday school in the absence of Jack Brame, the regular secretary. Joe also led the Senior Young People's Fellowship service.

At the evening service several of the young people gave talks on the camping trip recently made to Chimney Rock. The pastor spoke on, "Life's Last Thirty Minutes." At the close of the service the Stewards met and planned to visit Rev. Poovey on Tuesday to offer any service to him and his family during his illness. But while we were planning this trip, death was taking hold on him. "Be ye even so ready for in such an hour as ye think not the Son of Man Cometh." Four of our active preachers have died within about a months time.

WILKES WOMAN IS CLAIMED BY DEATH

(Elkin Tribune, July 20)

Mrs. Emma Holcomb, 71, passed away at her home near Benham, Wilkes county, Sunday night, following a lengthy critical illness. Her death had been expected for a week and members of the family from a distance had been summoned to her bedside.
