Eshelman Honors Mrs. P. D. Robbins
A pretty club party was given on Friday by Mrs. P. W. Eshelman at her home "Locklyn" having as guests the members of the Friday club and a few other friends. Summer flowers made a festive setting for two tables of bridge which was followed by delicious refreshments. A special guest of the club was Mrs. Phillip D. Robbins, of Durham, who was here visiting her mother, Mrs. W. P. Horton. Mrs. Robbins was remembered with a lovely gift by Mrs. Eshelman.

M. E. Auxiliary Met On Tuesday
The July meeting of the local Methodist Auxiliary was held on Tuesday afternoon at the church parlor with the president, Mrs. J. C. Reins, presiding. The usual routine of business was transacted followed by an interesting discussion on "The Woman's Place in the Church." Mrs. J. H. Armbrust and Mrs. P. J. Brame gave the program. The opening prayer was offered by Mrs. J. C. Reins. The attendance amounted to Circle No. 1.

Mrs. Robbins Feted At Bridge Party
Several delightful courtesies have been extended Mrs. Phillip D. Robbins, of Durham, who has been here visiting her mother, Mrs. W. P. Horton and other relatives. On Friday evening Mrs. Horton and Mrs. Walter Newton combined their hospitality at the Horton home honoring Mrs. Robbins. Five tables were placed for bridge amid a lovely setting of summer flowers. The top score prize for the evening went to Mrs. Henry Reynolds. Following play a tempting ice course was served. Miss Willard Sharpe, of Statesville, house guest of Miss Clyde Scroggs, was an out-of-town guest attending the party.

Mrs. Spruill Entertains At Bridge Parties
Two lovely parties were given by Mrs. E. R. Spruill on last Wednesday and Thursday evenings at her home in Wilkesboro. On Wednesday guests were members of the Wilkesboro Contract bridge club. Cosmas, dahlias and other flowers were used for decorations in the room where the game was played at two tables. Miss Beatrice Guthrie proved to be the most successful at cards and was awarded an attractive prize. At conclusion of play, the hostess aided by her sister, Miss Blanche Carrigan, served delicious refreshments. The members of the Monday night Contract Bridge club made up the guest list for Thursday evening. Two tables were in play again with Miss Anne Duncan winning out in the bridge competition.

Miss Bumgarner Is Hostess To Club
The "As You Like It" tennis club of Wilkesboro was delightfully entertained by Miss Helen Bumgarner on Friday afternoon. After playing several sets of tennis the girls returned to Miss Bumgarner's home where a delicious ice course was served by the hostess, assisted by her mother, Mrs. J. M. Bumgarner. Guests besides the club members were Miss Frances Reins, of Lenoir, Miss Grace Gilreath, Mrs. J. M. Brown and daughter, Nancy Brown.

W. C. T. U. Holds Monthly Meeting
The July meeting of the W. C. T. U. was held on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. P. Horton with a good attendance. The president, Mrs. R. E. Faw was in the chair for the business part of the meeting. Mrs. C. D. Coffey, Sr., led a very impressive devotional service after which interesting reports were given by Mrs. Horton and Mrs. Faw from the meeting held recently in the courthouse of the United Dry Forces. Mrs. Eugene Olive was received into the union as a new member.

Visitors Honored At Bridge Luncheon
Charming in every detail was the bridge luncheon given by Mrs. W. R. Absher on Thursday at her lovely home "Wisteria" on Memorial Avenue. The reception rooms were made lovely with summer flowers where the game was enjoyed for sometime followed by a tempting luncheon. Attractive gifts were presented the following guests of honor, Mrs. Max Barker, of Salisbury, who was here visiting her son, Mr. Max Barker and Mrs. Barker, Mrs. Marvin McCulley, of Salisbury, and Mrs. Mabel Foy, of Mt. Airy, both houseguests of Mrs. E. E. Eller and Mrs. Russell Hodges, a recent bride. Mrs. Hodges prior to her marriage was Miss Bill DeLaney, of Charlotte.

Mrs. Finley Is Club Hostess
With Mrs. T. A. Finley as hostess the members of the Thursday bridge club enjoyed a delightful afternoon on Thursday when Mrs. Finley entertained the members at two tables of bridge. When count was taken Mrs. Palmer Horton was found to hold the grand total and was awarded with a dainty prize. After the removal of cards the hostess with the assistance of Miss Marie Hagwood, served a delectable salad course. Gladiolas and roses made lovely decorations for the home.

John Ellis Justice Host To Playmates
John Ellis Justice, small son of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Justice, played host to a number of his little playmates at his home on Friday afternoon. The occasion was in honor of Little Louise Robbins, of Durham, who was here visiting her grandmother, Mrs. W. P. Horton. A period of games was enjoyed followed by delightful refreshments.

Idlewise Club Met On Thursday
Mrs. R. P. Casey and Mrs. A. H. Casey delightfully entertained the members of the Idlewise club on Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. R. P. Casey. At seven o'clock the guests were invited to the porch where a delectable picnic supper was served amid a lovely setting of garden flowers. Besides the regular members present were Mesdames Eugene Olive and C. B. Eller who were welcomed into the club as new members. After a short business session was held the guests were taken to the Orpheum theatre.

Delightful Surprises For Mrs. Minnie Hunt
Two delightful surprises were given Mrs. Minnie Hunt on Tuesday evening. The first was a surprise picnic supper given at the home of her son, Mr. Murphy Hunt, in honor of Mrs. Hunt's natal day. All of her children were present except one daughter, Mrs. B. T. Steele, who lives in Virginia, and a number of other relatives and close friends. The children present were Messrs. Stokes, Charlie and Murphy Hunt and Mrs. A. B. Johnston, all of this city. Mrs. R. L. Lovelace, of Elkin, and Miss Myrtle Hunt, of Detroit, Michigan. The dining table was centered with a huge white birthday cake topped with blue candles. Summer flowers were used in profusion throughout the home. The supper was served at seven o'clock with around thirty-five guests enjoying the occasion with the honoree. The second surprise for Mrs. Hunt was when Miss Myrtle Hunt came in for the supper. Miss Hunt had been in town since Sunday but no one knew that she was here except the family of Mr. A. B. Johnston.

Holmans Hostesses At Luncheon Tuesday
Mrs. F. G. Holman and her two daughters, Misses Ila and Bert Holman, were charming hostesses at a delightful luncheon at their home on Tuesday. The luncheon was to honor their two house guests, Mrs. Earl Carr, of Hickory, and Mrs. Walter Spivey, of Rich Square. Mrs. Spivey is a daughter of Mrs. Holman. A tempting three course luncheon was served at one o'clock with covers for sixteen. Following the luncheon some time was spent in sewing and a musical program was also enjoyed. Miss Bertha Holman singing very beautifully several numbers. The honorees were remembered with lovely gifts by the hostesses. A color scheme of lavender and white was carried out very effectively in the dining room.

Four Presbyterian Church Circles Meet
The four circles of the Presbyterian church held meetings of unusual interest on Tuesday as follows: Circle No. 1 with Mrs. S. P. Mitchell as chairman was entertained by Misses Mary Finley and Norma Stevenson at the home of Miss Finley. The Bible study was taught by Miss Elizabeth Finley followed by an interesting talk by Mr. Rufus Morrow on Mexico. Mr. Morrow is a native of Mexico and is here this summer as assistant pastor at the Presbyterian church. At the close of the meeting the guests were invited out on the lawn where delightful refreshments were served.

Miss Clara Gentry was hostess to Circle No. 2 and in the absence of the chairman, Miss Virginia Lane, Miss Julia Finley held the chair for the business part of the meeting. The Bible study was given by Miss Clara Ogilvie. Nine members were present.

Circle No. 3 was entertained at the home of Mrs. E. G. Finley with nine members and two visitors present. Mrs. A. A. Cashion presided for the business part of the meeting after which Mrs. A. R. Ogilvie presented the Bible lesson.

Circle No. 4 met at the home of Mrs. Gordon Finley with Mrs. H. B. Smith presiding. Nine members were present and heard the Bible lesson given by Mrs. J. R. Finley. Mrs. C. C. Faw, president of the Auxiliary met with the group.

Circles No. 1 and No. 2 met in the evenings and the other two held their sessions in the afternoon. To close each of the meetings light refreshments were served by the different hostesses.

TWO METHODIST TEAMS TO PLAY
Wilkesboro Outfit Will Meet North Wilkesboro At Fairgrounds This Afternoon
The Sunday school of Wilkesboro Methodist church will send a baseball team across the river today to engage Sam Cassel's Methodist team at the fairgrounds at 3 o'clock this (Thursday) afternoon. Baseball fans will be interested to note that this is the first scrap between teams of the same denomination and a household combat is expected to bring forth plenty of rivalry. Proceeds of the game will be donated to charity in the two towns. An amusing new croquet set, in which the wickets represents animals and figures, is on sale in New York. The game is becoming increasingly popular.
