W. C. A. Is Given Splendid Support

Officials Are Pleased With Splendid Results That Have Been Obtained

(Rev. J. H. Armbrust, Chairman)
The officials of the Wilkes Citizens Association feel greatly encouraged at the favorable reception its program has received at the hands of the public. Several townships have been organized and many churches and lodges have effected plans of work.

The two main features of the Association are Law Observance and Education. The first seeks to get citizens to respect and observe the law. The second aims to get into homes, schools, churches and other organizations with a program of education of children in knowing and keeping the law. The original sources of the Association program lies with the children. It is therefore expected that a long time is necessary to finally complete the work.

It is quite certain that the work has had an effect. The greatly decreased crime wave is an encouraging feature.

Immediately after the opening of the schools the work will be begun there. The school authorities are enthusiastic in their praise of the program and they have agreed to promote it in the schools.

It is for the chairman of each township to complete the organizational work in his area. They are called upon to do this as early as possible and report to headquarters. The citizens are asked to lend every encouragement and cooperation possible.

$14,962,208 DEFICIT FOR STATE REPORTED

Raleigh, Aug. 11.—North Carolina's general fund deficit at the end of the 1932-33 fiscal year on June 30, was $14,962,208, Frank L. Dunlap, assistant director of the budget, announced yesterday.

Of this amount, $8,410,600 was accumulated during the last fiscal year. The deficit on June 30, 1932, was $6,551,608, which included a debit balance of $2,231,198 carried over from the 1930-31 fiscal year.

"The amount of the debit balance is considerably in excess of the amount anticipated," said Dunlap in a formal statement, "and is due in the main to the failure to realize anticipated revenue."

A rosier picture was shown in the highway and agricultural funds. There was a credit balance of $4,666,332 in the highway fund for the year ending June 30, while the agriculture fund was $102,544 to the good.

Barren Corn Has High Feed Value

Barren Corn Stalks Should Be Removed From Field While Still Green

Barren corn stalks should be removed from the fields while still green to obtain the greatest possible feed value.

E. C. Blair, extension agronomist at State college, says that "in 1933 as in every dry year, many North Carolina corn fields will make a very low yield, and such fields always contain a high percentage of barren stalks."

"In order to get the greatest possible amount of feed value, the barren stalks should be cut from the field while still green. They may be either fed green, or cured in the shock."

"When cut at this stage, the corn stalks and leaves will cure into a bright green roughage of higher feeding value and greater palatability than the mature stover will be later on."

He points out that an analysis shows that the green cured stalks contain three per cent digestible protein against two per cent for ordinary corn stover, and the percentage of carbohydrates and fats is also higher.

"Another advantage in taking out barren stalks at this time is that fruitful stalks will not have to compete with barren corn for moisture during the remainder of the growing season," he said.

The Family DOCTOR

By John Joseph Gains, M. D.

Just a word to the shut-ins, or the wheel-chair folk. Suppose we consider the feminine patient; the ones who began to lose their activity in the knees and other portions of the lower extremities. I have seen and treated these many times. I have found that they have usually been subject to treatment for "rheumatism," although they have not had a single lame joint above the waist!

Such patients are usually housewives, that have done their share in bearing children. Busy workers as well. They may be just approaching, or over with the menopause. Indeed this sort of "rheumatism" I am talking about, is noted for appearing about that time. This shows plainly that the CAUSE of the disabling trouble is situated in the GENERATIVE organs.

Get it plainly: there is no joint-trouble above the waist-line. Have your doctor look you over thoroughly. He may find lacerations, scars, internal hemorrhoids, prolapsed uteri, or, disease of the bladder. These things should receive attention at once. I have seen ulcer of the neck of the uterus put a patient in an invalid chair, and the treatment given for "arthritis," "rheumatism," and so on—which did no good, because the real trouble was neither.

The good woman should submit to thorough examination without any hesitation; it may mean recovery for her. She should submit to rational treatment, even if it demand surgery; at any rate, she should ask for removal of the CAUSE of her trouble.

Not every laming complaint is rheumatism or arthritis, when we find its cause. Nothing but removal of the cause will cure.

The cause is in the pelvis, in nine-tenths of the patients whose lameness is in extremities below the waist. I hope these hints may prove of worth.
