

Trade Carnival Week Is Expected to Attract Big Army of Thrifty Buyers

Begins Tomorrow And To Continue Until August 31st

Prices on Cotton Goods Will Advance First of Coming Month

PROCESS TAX IS CAUSE Merchants Here Arrange Big Event For Thrifty Buyers Of County

A big Trade Carnival Week is announced today by merchants of North Wilkesboro and a big army of thrifty buyers are expected here during the coming week.

Special mention is made in the announcements of the merchants of the fact that all cotton goods will take a sharp rise in price on September 1 due to the process tax which goes into effect on that date.

"Few people realize that the price on all cotton goods is bound to go up, as we are telling them," one merchant stated yesterday. "Yet it is a fact. We are endeavoring to convince our customers that this is no advertising scheme to get them to buy. If we succeed, Trade Carnival Week should result in a big saving to thousands of people who trade in North Wilkesboro."

A large number of the merchants are co-operating in this event and thrifty buyers will receive the opportunity to carefully study their messages and hear in plain language the truth when they state that prices will increase sharply the first of the month.

Wilkes Officers Get Men Who Got Away In Davie

Arrest Was Made Tuesday In Longbottom Section Of County

ALL ARE LONG TERMERS

Ellis Bratton Was Among The Four; Officers Come Here For Them

Four escaped convicts from the Mocksville chaingang were rounded up in the Longbottom section of Wilkes county late Tuesday when Wilkes officers set a trap from which the criminals had no chance to escape.

The four men taken were Ellis Bratton, Ed Smith, Griffin and Bernard Allbrook, all of them long termers, who escaped from the Davie county camp last week.

A stolen automobile, which contained smoking tobacco, glass tumblers and a variety of merchandise, was also brought in by the officers.

The officers noticed an account of the escape of the convicts in the state dailies, and were on the lookout, suspecting that Bratton, who was arrested here about two weeks ago when he attempted to sell stolen wheat, would again head to the upper edge of Wilkes.

The officers went to the community and completely surrounded the home of Philo Candill, where they had learned that the men had arranged for supper. The convicts surrendered without resistance.

The capture was made by Sheriff W. B. Somers, Chief Deputy Old Wiles and Deputies H. C. Kilby, Elijah Sheets, S. M. Shumate and Luther Prevette.

Authorities came here yesterday from Mocksville to return the men to the prison camp.

Sentences of the four men range from 5 to 15 years, it was reported.

At the time of Bratton's arrest two weeks ago, an automobile owned by Clarence Rash, of this city, was recovered. He was taken to Mocksville to serve out his term, but escaped last week along with the three other men. His escape last week was his second within a period of a few weeks.

Family Of 11 Sees Motion Picture For First Time

Mr. and Mrs. John Helton and their nine children, of Low Gap, Surry county, saw their first moving picture show last Friday night while in the city.

The Surry folks were making their way to Caldwell county and came here from Elkin on a truck. Without money or any place to stay they applied to the city welfare department and were given meals and rooms at the Central Hotel.

When it was learned that not a single member of the family of eleven had ever been to a motion picture house, the management of the Liberty Theatre gave passes to each of them. "They sure enjoyed it," Chief of Police Jimmie Anderson said.
