Interesting Trip

ROARING RIVER, Aug. 30.—Following is an account of an interesting trip made by Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Morrison and family: We left Roaring River the morning of August 16th, at seven o'clock. Went by Winston, Reidsville, Danville, South Boston, Franklin, Suffolk and Portsmouth. Crossed the ferry to Norfolk and Virginia Beach. We camped at Oceana Camp, and spent several hours at the beach. We went from there to Ocean View. Crossed the bay on a ferry boat to old Point Comfort, and spent some time looking over the army fort. From there we went to Newport News, then to Cornwallis' cave. Went from there to Yorktown, crossed the York river on a ferry boat to Fredricksburg. We camped that night at Camp Monroe. Next morning we visited Washington's home at Mount Vernon. From there we went to Washington City, and saw many things of interest. Spent several hours at the zoo in Rock Creek Park. Spent the night at Camp New Deal. Went to Baltimore and Bel Air, Maryland next day. Spent the night with Mr. and Mrs. Tom Morrison from North Carolina. Went to church there and saw a lot of old friends. Spent Sunday night with Mr. and Mrs. Sam Poplin, who are originally from North Carolina. Next day we went back through Baltimore and Washington. Went to the White House and up in Washington's Monument. Also went to Arlington Cemetery and to the tomb of the Unknown Soldiers grave. On our way to Richmond we went through the battle ground of Fredricksburg. Camped at Camp Reams, south of Richmond that night. Next day we went to Chase City, Virginia, and visited Mr. and Mrs. Walter Boldin, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Foldwin who are natives of North Carolina. Came back by Reidsville and Winston-Salem. Drove 1,219 miles.

There is a little book shop down on Sixth avenue, that had a sign in its window, "Out to Lunch," for four months. The owners, now back from a trip around the world, explained they hung up the sign to keep burglars away.

Northwest Wheat Belt Farmers Sign for Crop Control

Thomas Peterson, (center) of Cass County, North Dakota, was the first spring wheat farmer of the Northwest belt to apply for a contract with the Agricultural Adjustment Administration and thus cooperate with the government in trying to solve the problem of getting a reasonable price for wheat. Right, is County Extension Agent, E. A. Calhoun. Left, R. W. Madison, neighbor wheat grower who also signed.

WILKES ALL-STAR TEAM WILL PLAY WATAUGA 9 HERE TODAY

Game Will Be Called Promptly at 3:45 at Fairgrounds This Afternoon; Manager Cole Announces Probable Starting Lineup; Carmichael or Rhoades On Mound

The all-star aggregation of the Wilkes County Baseball League is in readiness for the clash this afternoon with the all-star team from the Watauga Baseball League, officials of the county league announced late yesterday. The "dream" game of the baseball season will be played strictly at 3:45 o'clock unless the weather man interferes. Showers were predicted yesterday, but baseball fans are hopeful that the sun will shine bright in time for the umpire's call, "Play Ball" this afternoon. No casualties had been reported to league officials yesterday and every player invited to play in the game is expected to report in good shape this afternoon.

Willard G. Cole, president of the county league and manager of the all-star team, announced late yesterday that either Leslie Rhoades, Millers Creek mound ace, or Ernest Carmichael, North Wilkesboro's new sensation, will be sent to the hill today in an effort to tame the Watauga sluggers. In readiness for relief roles will be Tom Bumgarner, of Wilkesboro, Phil Scroggs, of Moravian Falls, and Coy Billings, of North Wilkesboro.

After a conference with Dwight Nichols and Clay Pardue, coaches, Manager Cole announced the probable starting lineup will be as follows:

First base, Jimmie Henderson; second base, Carl Church; shortstop, Joannie Osborne; third base, Rob Billings; right field, Gwyn Cooper, center field, Russell Hayes; left field, Hugh Reavis.

Either E. P. Green or Winfield Cooper will receive.

Matthews Again At Mt. Pleasant

Splendid Faculty Elected at Mt. Pleasant High School Recently

Prof. S. E. Matthews, who has been principal of Mt. Pleasant high school for the past six years, was re-elected for another year at a meeting of the central committee a few days ago. Mr. Matthews has made a splendid record at the school, it is reported, and his re-election was well received in the community.

Mr. Matthews, Mack Proffitt, Carl Hendrix and Charles Elledge compose the high school faculty.

Elementary teachers elected are: Quentin Eller, seventh grade; Miss Elizabeth German, sixth grade; Mrs. Anna Miles, fifth grade; Miss Marie McNeill, fourth grade; Miss Verna Foster, third grade; Miss Ruby Dockery, second grade, and Mrs. S. E. Matthews, first grade.

The school will open on September 6 along with the other schools of the county.

The central committee of the Mt. Pleasant District is composed of T. O. Minton, chairman, J. C. McNeill, secretary, and Dr. W. W. Miles.

Officers Destroy Brandy In Making

25 Barrels of Pummies Destroyed Ruthlessly By County Officers

In utter disregard of the wishes of those who would quench their thirst with apple brandy, county officers destroyed twenty-five barrels of apple pummies which were located in the woods near the home of Luther Johnson in the Clingman-New Castle section Friday.

A large load of apples and a horse and wagon were abandoned by their owner when the presence of the officers in the neighborhood was discovered. The outfit was taken in charge by the officers.

A large distillery, located nearby, was also destroyed. The raid was made by Sheriff W. B. Somers, Chief Deputy Old Wiles and Deputy Sheriff H. C. Kilby. An apple grinder, mounted on a sled, was also found by the officers.

If the tenants of the skyscrapers in lower New York for any reason had to vacate all at one time, the streets would not be big enough to take care of them.
