

SOCIETY

MISS MAMIE SOCKWELL, EDITOR

PHONE 215

Miss Marie Haigwood Honored At Party

To honor Miss Marie Haigwood, who left Monday to enter school at the Asheville Normal, the members of the North Wilkesboro Y. W. A. of the Baptist church entertained at a picnic supper at the Isaac Walton camp ground. The affair was given under the direction of the social committee, Mrs. W. K. Sturdivant, Misses Manie Brewer and Mabel Wiles. Supper was prepared on the ground and was enjoyed by a number of people, other than members of the Y. W. A. During the supper period, Miss Lola Church, president of the Y. W. A., presented the honorarium with a beautiful Bible from the members of the Auxiliary as a token of their love and esteem for Miss Haigwood, who has been very active in the work of the church.

Mrs. Ralph Duncan Hostess To Club

A pretty club party was given by Mrs. Ralph Duncan at her home on Friday evening having as guests the members of the Tea and Topics club and several other friends. Those attending besides the club members were Mrs. B. S. Call, Mrs. Rosa Reeves, Mrs. W. J. Allen, Mrs. Jake Caudill and Misses Anne and Wren Duncan. Gorgeous dahlias and roses formed a festive scene for the rooms where the guests gathered for an hour or more of sewing and chatting. A tempting salad course followed by an ice course was served, from small tables which were festooned with crystal bud vases containing bright roses. Miss Anna Duncan and Mrs. A. B. Johnston assisted the hostess in serving the guests.

Dorcas Sunday School Class Holds Meeting

The monthly meeting of the Dorcas Sunday school class of the Wilkesboro Baptist church was held on Friday afternoon with Mrs. F. G. Holman, teacher of the class. The president, Mrs. Bob Turner, was in the chair for the business session, several matters of business being dispensed with. At the close of the business period the members spent some time in sewing. The meeting was well attended.

Wilkesboro Y. W. A. Met Monday Evening

With Mrs. John Cashion presiding an interesting meeting of the Y. W. A. of the Wilkesboro Baptist church was held on Monday evening. Hostess for the meeting was Mrs. Hazel Davis Johnson and program leader Miss Grace Blevins. The study of the French people in the southern part of the United States proved to be an interesting topic and, those helping Miss Blevins with the program were Mrs. Cashion and Miss Sue Lyon. During a pleasant social hour the hostess served delightful refreshments.

Mrs. J. C. Hubbard Entertains Club

The members of the Wilkesboro Book club and a number of additional friends were delightfully entertained by Mrs. J. C. Hubbard at her home in Wilkesboro Friday afternoon. Four tables were placed for bridge in an attractive setting of cut flowers. The game was enjoyed throughout the afternoon after which the hostess had the aid of her mother, Mrs. J. W. White, in serving a delectable salad course. Mrs. R. O. Rex, of Philadelphia, was an out-of-town guest attending the club. Mrs. Rex is here for a visit with her mother, Mrs. F. B. Hendren.

Idlewise Club In Meeting Thursday

The fortnightly meeting of the Idlewise club was held on Thursday evening with Mrs. J. B. Williams as hostess. Roses and other cut flowers tastefully arranged made bright decorations for the rooms where the guests were entertained. Needlework and conversation filled the evening and when the sewing was laid aside Mrs. Williams assisted by Mrs. Ed Long served delicious refreshments.

Mrs. A. T. Lott Is Charming Hostess

Three tables of bridge were in play on Wednesday evening when Mrs. A. T. Lott was charming hostess to the members of her bridge club and a trio of visitors, Mrs. W. M. McCulley, of Salisbury, Mrs. Hunter B. Keck, and Miss Lois Scroggs. Refreshments in two courses were served following the game. A series of interesting progressions resulted in the top score award going to Mrs. Frank Eller while Mrs. Jule Deans received the second high. Dahlias, roses and other garden flowers made gay decorations for the home.

Misses Irvin And Ford Entertain

Around twenty-five members of the younger set were delightfully entertained on Friday evening at the home of Miss Mildred Irvin with Miss Ruth Ford as joint hostess. A number of games and contests provided an evening of fun followed by dainty refreshments.

Circle Meetings Held On Tuesday

The circles of the North Wilkesboro Methodist church Auxiliary met in their monthly meetings on Tuesday with much interest being shown in the work. Circle No. 1 met at the home of Mrs. E. W. Trogden with Mrs. B. F. Estes as associate hostess. Mrs. R. M. Brame was in charge of the meeting due to the absence of the chairman, Mrs. J. C. Smoot. The devotional for the afternoon was led by Mrs. J. H. Armbrust. Thirteen members were in attendance.

Mrs. R. P. Cassel was hostess to Circle No. 2 with 13 members attending. Mrs. P. J. Brame, the chairman, was in charge and also gave the devotional period.

Mrs. H. V. Wagoner and Mrs. J. D. Schafer joined their hospitality to the Franklin circle at the home of Mrs. Wagoner. Mrs. A. W. Horton held the chair for the business part of the meeting and also conducted the devotional hour. Sixteen members were present. Following each of the meetings a pleasant social hour was enjoyed with tempting refreshments being served.

Miss Vannoy Is Hostess To G. A.'s

Group No. 2 of the Intermediate Girl's Auxiliary of the First Baptist church held their September meeting on Monday evening with Miss Annie Vannoy as hostess at the home of Miss Mamie McNeill. The program for the evening was given by Miss Arlee Bumgarner. Mrs. J. N. Shockey and Mrs. H. G. Nichols met with the group and made interesting talks on the work of the Women's Missionary Society. The worship period was in charge of Miss Vannoy with Miss Edna Bullis presiding for the business session. Delightful refreshments were served during the social hour following the meeting.

W. M. S. In Splendid Meeting On Tuesday

The inspirational meeting of the Women's Missionary Society of the First Baptist church was held on Tuesday afternoon at the Isaac Walton camp ground with around thirty-five members being in attendance. The opening prayer was offered by Mrs. R. P. Casey with Mrs. C. E. Jenkins giving a special prayer for the cause of missions and the missionaries after which the members joined in singing, "Jesus Calls us Over the Tumult."

The program for the afternoon was given by members of Mrs. D. T. Belsh's circle with Mrs. Eugene Olive as leader. The topic, "The Word of God in a French Country," was well presented by the following ladies, Mesdames Eugene Olive, John Rhodes, Tip McNeill, D. T. Belsh, Gilbert Foster, A. H. Andrews and W. A. Bullis.

An impressive worship period was led by Mrs. Chal McNeill using as her theme the, "I Am's," in the gospels followed by a vocal duet rendered by Mrs. C. S. Sink and Mrs. Tal Barnes, who sang, "O Love that will not let me go." Other special prayers were led by Mrs. M. L. Gilreath, E. M. Blackburn and Mrs. C. N. Myers. The closing prayer was given by Mrs. J. N. Shockey.

The business session was omitted and at the close of the program the circle leaders and officers of the society served a bounteous picnic supper.

Officers Installed At Auxiliary Meeting

The installation of officers, a report from the state convention at Wilmington, and a full attendance of members featured the September meeting of the Legion Auxiliary that was held on Monday evening at the Legion club house. Mrs. W. R. Absher, state department president, officiated at the installation service. The same set of officers will head the Wilkes unit again with the exception of Miss Toby Turner, who was elected as first vice president to succeed Mrs. Absher, who was recently chosen as state department president at the convention in Wilmington.

For the business part of the meeting, the president, Mrs. A. W. Horton was in the chair the usual routine of business being transacted, also splendid reports were submitted by the different committees. Mrs. T. A. Finley gave an interesting report of the state convention in Wilmington.

Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. A. H. Casey, Mrs. R. P. Casey, Mrs. John Hall and Mrs. Jack Quinn, who at the close of the evening served tempting refreshments consisting of a salad course with sandwiches.

Sewing Club Meets With Mrs. Carlton

The members of the Wednesday Sewing Club were charmingly entertained on Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Hill Carlton as hostess at her home on Sixth street. Needlework and conversation filled the late hours of the afternoon and at the close of the sewing period Mrs. Carlton served delicious refreshments.

WANT ADS

WANTED—1,000 burlap sacks at once.—E. E. Eller Produce Co. 4-18-3t

CROSTIES WANTED—Will pay prices as follows: 75c for No. 5; 60c for No. 4. Buy your feedstuff from us. Lowest prices.—Wilkes Tie & Feed Co. 9-4

LOST—On Milas Brown Mountain, Fox Hound, white legs, black back; about two years old; weight about 50 pounds. Notify Isaac Eller, North Wilkesboro, N. C. 9-14-1t-pd

WANTED—Man for Tea and Coffee Route through North Wilkesboro and Wilkes county. Apply by letter immediately. N. C. Kennedy Coffee Co., Kokomo, Ind. 9-14-t-pd.

MEN WANTED for Rawleigh Routes of 800 Consumers in Wilkesboro, Counties of Wilkes, Caldwell, Surry. Reliable hustler can start earning $25 weekly and increase every month. Write immediately. Rawleigh Co., Dept. NC-14-S, Richmond, Va. 9-28-3t-pd

I will have several nice young fresh Jerseys for sale or trade for dry cattle at Finley's stables at Reddies River Bridge, Saturday, Sept. 16th. Terms if desired.—Leonard Templeton, Harmony, N. C.

Delightful Bridge Luncheon Given Monday

Leading in interest on this week's social calendar was the lovely bridge luncheon given at the home of Mrs. F. C. Forester on Monday when she and her two daughters, Mrs. Frank Blair, Jr., and Miss Lina Forester entertained a number of their friends. Guests sufficient for eight tables were served a tempting three course luncheon at one o'clock, bridge being enjoyed afterwards. Mrs. Frank Eller had the highest number of points in the bridge competition and was given an attractive award. The traveler's prize was won by Mrs. Don Coffey. Remembrance gifts were presented to Mrs. Russell Hodges, who prior to her marriage was Miss Bill DeLaney, of Charlotte; Mrs. W. M. McCulley, of Salisbury, who is here visiting her mother, Mrs. E. E. Eller and Dr. Dorothy Brame, of Charlottesville, Va., Dr. Brame is spending her vacation here in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Brame. Roses and dahlias tastefully arranged made lovely decorations throughout the home.

Woman Attempts Suicide By Drowning At Marion

Marion, Sept. 11.—Discouraged and believed temporarily demoralized from worry over loss of her husband and the burden of maintaining a family, Mrs. Annie Evans, 28, mother of three children, attempted suicide today by drowning. Mrs. Evans gave no hint of her intention when she walked to the reservoir impounding a company water supply and jumped in.

B. L. Robbins, constable, seeing the act from a distance, hurried to the scene and rescued the woman. Mrs. Evans was taken to State hospital, Morganton, for treatment.

Tire Prices Are Going Up

Buy FIRESTONES Now!

DICK'S SERVICE STATIONS

"ALL OVER TOWN"

FREE FOOTBALL

A Football Free with the purchase of a large size tube of Astring-O-sol Tooth Paste, special at 49c.

HORTON DRUG STORE

OPEN SUNDAY

YOU ARE INVITED TO JOIN OUR MUTUAL BURIAL ASSOCIATION

This invitation is intended for everyone in all stations of life . . .

During those unavoidable hours of grief, the protection this association offers, will be a comfort to those bereaved . . .

REINS - STURDIVANT BURIAL ASSOCIATION

NORTH WILKESBORO, N. C.

WELCOME

TO THE

Great Wilkes Fair

We also welcome the people of Wilkes and adjoining counties to our shop—where work is done right and the best of materials are used.

IT WILL PAY YOU TO TRAVEL A LONG WAY IN ORDER TO GET US TO DO YOUR

Truck and Wagon Body Work
Repairing and Horse-Shoeing

City Blacksmith Shop

CARL BUMGARNER, Manager

Near Depot

North Wilkesboro, N. C.

A Few of Our Specials For the Week End At Horton Drug Store

OPEN SUNDAY

Extract Cod Liver Oil, Large	54c
Pure Cod Liver Oil, Pts., Highest quality	69c
Prince Albert	10c
Z. L. Mouth Wash, Pts.	49c
Listerine, $1.20 size	69c
Dr. West Tooth Paste, Large Tube	10c
Flit, Pints	39c
Cigarettes, Camels, Luckies, Chesterfields	10c

COME TO SEE US—WE APPRECIATE YOUR PATRONAGE

FAIR WEEK COMING

North Wilkesboro, N. C., Sept. 19-23

Welcome To Our Place

Fair Visitors

We Are Prepared to Sell You "That Good Gulf" Gasoline & Motor Oils

SAVE MONEY

ON YOUR

GROCERIES

AND

FEEDSTUFF

OUR LOW

CASH PRICES

WILL ALLOW YOU

TO FILL YOUR PANTRY

MORE COMPLETELY.

Murray TIRES

Our place is out of congested traffic. As you travel to and from the Fair, stop and let us serve you.

Authorized Dealer In Wilkes For Exide Batteries

Joe's Service Station

JOE ADAMS, Proprietor

End of Fairplains Hardsurface Highway

North Wilkesboro, N. C.