Miss Edna Melton Is Bride Of Charles W. Gilliam, Jr.

RONDA, Route 2, Oct. 9.—In a private ceremony Saturday afternoon at 5 o'clock Miss Edna Melton was united in marriage with Charles William Gilliam, Jr., at the home of the brides parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Melton, near Jonesville.

The ceremony which was characterized by dignity and simplicity was performed by Rev. R. J. Pardue, the groom's pastor.

Miss Mamy Isaacs, of Zephyr, was maid of honor and Mr. John Melton, brother of the bride, was best man.

For her nuptials the bride wore a suit of the new brown crepe with accessories to match and a shoulder bouquet of pink rose buds and oleander.

Immediately after the vows were spoken the guests were ushered into the dining room where a bounteous wedding dinner was served to near relatives and a few intimate friends.

Mrs. Gilliam is the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David J. Melton, of Jonesville, and a niece of Rev. N. A. Melton, of Henderson, a former superintendent of Fruitland Institute. She received her education at Dobson high school, and is very popular.

The bridegroom is the younger son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Gilliam, Sr., of near Ronda. He attended high school at Ronda and the A. S. T. C. and is prominently connected with the Gilliam-Stroud, Inc., a newly organized concern at North Wilkesboro. Mr. and Mrs. Gilliam will re-
