ARING RIVER, Route 1. was notified recently of the outh in September of her first sin, Mr. William Fears Martin, 72, until recently connected with a Wilmington fertilizer coneern. Mr. Martin had been frequently in Wilkes and the Wilboros on business, visiting Gra Linney, Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Lane, a few other relatives, and a close friend, Mr. S. V. Tomlinson. He died in Oklahoma City at the home of his son, Wilford lartin, who with the widow, Mrs. Wright Martin, are the onimmediate survivors, and was aried at Madison, Georgia, his orhood home. Several brothers and sisters are still living. Mrs. Linney was also informed that Mr. Martin's oldest sister. Mrs. Fanny Martin Gibbs, near 80, of Atlanta, died last spring. They were a daughter and son of the late Felix Martin, a native of his community.

Rev. Pervis C. Parks preached

Sunday afternoon at Oak Forest from Hebraws 14; "Here have we no continuing city, but seek one to come." Mr. A. H. Roberts also made a talk.
