entire recovery program. Noting today's opening of the long-planned buying drive, Johnson asked the country's support:

"Industry and trade, co-operating with the government, under codes of fair competition or agreements with the President, have done and are doing their part. Hundreds of thousands of men, long idle, have gone back to work and millions of dollars have been added to pay rolls.

"These pay rolls cannot be maintained and new jobs for other hundreds of thousands of workers cannot be made unless every consumer in the land does his or her part now."

Attorney Swanson Elected Leader Of Wilkesboro Scouts

Wilkesboro Scouts To Hold Meeting Each Thursday At 5 P. M. and 8 P. M.

Attorney Paul Swanson, who recently opened an office in Wilkesboro for the practice of his profession, was elected Scoutmaster of Wilkesboro Troop No. 37, Boy Scouts of America, at a meeting of the troop committee a few days ago and was installed Tuesday afternoon at a session of the Court of Honor.

The Wilkesboro committee is composed of T. E. Story, Rev. Avery Church, Dr. G. T. Mitchell, N. O. Smoak and Attorney F. J. McDuffie.

Attorney Swanson is an experienced Scoutmaster, having served as leader of the J. O. U. A. M. troop at Lexington in 1928-29 and again in this capacity with the Highland Troop at High Point in 1932.

Mr. Swanson expects to hold regular meetings for the Scouts each Thursday, one patrol to meet at 5 p. m. and a second patrol to meet at 8 p. m. The meetings will be held at his office.

County Election Officials Asked To Attend School Of Instruction for the election officials of the primary and general elections of 1934.

Mr. Coates gave high praise to Mr. Hampton for his work in the preparation of the guidebook, a pamphlet of 32 pages, well indexed, and acknowledged with appreciation, suggestions and criticisms by Attorney-General Dennis G. Brummitt, Assistant Attorney-General A. A. F. Seawell, Raymond C. Maxwell, Henry Brandels, Jr., and Clifford Smith.

He commended especially the work of Major McLendon, chairman of the State Board of Elections, "whose cordial cooperation and leadership has helped make possible this first venture in guidebooks."

The Association of Election Officials was organized as a division of the Institute of Government on May 6, 1932. Its membership is open to the State Board of Elections, the county boards of elections, registrars, and judges of elections. Its advisory committee consists of W. A. Lucas of Wilson, John C. Sikes of Monroe, Fred D. Hamrick of Rutherfordton, and Adrian S. Mitchell, of Raleigh, members of the State Board of Elections.

Cooper Tires Now Handled Locally

C. & C. Chevrolet Company Secures Agency; Series Of Ads To Appear in Paper

The C. & C. Chevrolet company, local automobile firm, has secured the agency for the popular Cooper Tires and is now in position to supply the motorists of this section with tires that are bonded to give service and satisfaction.

The Cooper Tire is built by the renowned Armored-Cord construction principle by which every one of the thousands of cords are armored with a coating of tough live rubber. This is said to prevent tire trouble by eliminating internal friction, adding greater strength, flexibility and safety.

A series of advertisements on this popular tire started in The Journal-Patriot Monday and these advertisements will appear regularly for the next several weeks.

Motorists not acquainted with Cooper Tires are invited to visit the C. & C. Chevrolet company and check the prices and quality of these tires.

Messrs. W. E. Colvard and W. D. McMillan, at the C. & C. Chevrolet place, will be glad to quote you prices at any time and to tell you in detail of the value offered in a Cooper bonded tire.

The U. S. Department of Agriculture says that both ripe and green olives contain abundant quantities of vitamin A.

H.F. Bouknight To Head Scout Troop

Elected To Fill Vacancy as Scoutmaster; Succeeds Ralph Reavis

The Boy Scout Troop Committee of Troop No. 34 of the Methodist church, met at the parsonage on Monday night to elect a Scout Master in place of the former occupants, Ralph Reavis, who has moved from the city. The committee consists of H. F. Bouknight, chairman, H. V. Wagoner and Hoyle Hutchens.

Mr. H. F. Bouknight was unanimously elected to the office of Scout Master. Mr. Murphy Hunt continues as first assistant, and Clyde Pearson was elected second assistant. The troop committee will choose a new member to take the place of Mr. Bouknight and have the new nominee up for election next Monday night.

Mr. Bouknight is well qualified for his new office as he has been making a study of Scouting during the past year as Chairman of the Troop Committee. He will preside at next Monday night's meeting of the Troop.

Watch AMERICA follow FORD to the "8"

Follow the trend to the 8 and your car won't be out-dated next year...

IN 1925 there were eighteen 8-cylinder cars made in the United States. Today there are twenty-six. Next year there will be more.

95% of all cars that have finished among the first ten at Indianapolis since 1919 have been eights.

The trend is toward the "8"! And there is a good reason for it. Slip into the new Ford V-8 and find out for yourself.

Put this car into second gear and step on the accelerator. You do 50 easily—and don't realize you're in second. Slip into high and go 80, if you like! Here is a combination of power, pick-up, smoothness and flexibility never possible before in a low priced car.

What's more—it's performance plus economy. 17 to 20 miles to the gallon, low oil consumption, and lowest cost of replacement parts of any car on the market.

There will be more eights! Ford has taught America the thrill of real 8-cylinder motoring. Buy a Ford V-8 and your car won't be out-dated next year.

A wide variety of colors and models—prices $499 and up, F. O. B. Detroit.
