

The Journal-Patriot
 INDEPENDENT IN POLITICS
 Published Mondays and Thursdays at
 North Wilkesboro, N. C.
 B. J. CARTER and JULIUS C. HUBBARD,
 Publishers.
 SUBSCRIPTION RATES:
 $1.00 Year in the State; $1.50 Out of the State.
 Entered at the post office at North Wilkesboro,
 N. C., as second class matter under Act of March 4, 1879.
THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 9, 1933

A Word To Contributors

The Journal-Patriot regrets exceedingly that many splendid contributions from various readers on the subject of prohibition had to be omitted for lack of space. These contributions were used when possible and there was no discrimination against anyone, each being filed in the order in which it was received.

Now that the repeal election is over, these contributions will not have the same reader interest and will be permanently filed for those who wish to call for them.

We regret that every article could not be published, but the deluge was too great for the short time in which we had to use them. So if your letter was not published, it was not because we had any feeling toward the writer or his views.

Has Served Well

"Farmer Bob" Doughton, who celebrated his 70th birthday anniversary Tuesday, can look back with satisfaction upon a long record of public service. For 22 years, Mr. Doughton has had little opposition within his party ranks and a man has to be something more than a good politician to avoid competition from members of his own party.

Year after year the voters have sent him back to Washington as their representative, showing their confidence in his ability to serve them and the nation. He has had a few close calls, yes, but that is to be expected in political life. But each time he has been triumphant and gone on to even greater majorities.

Congressman Doughton has risen to a position of power and usefulness in the nation and his district and all North Carolina have reasons to be proud of his record. Friends everywhere extend felicitations upon the occasion of his three score and ten anniversary.

To The Victors Belong The Spoils

To the victors belong the spoils. The nation has repealed the Eighteenth Amendment to the constitution unless the vote of Utah is different from early reports. Uninterrupted, the repeal parade has swept on to victory and the return of legalized liquor, at least in many states, is a certainty.

The caption of this editorial might be taken as an ironical allusion to a serious issue. It is not so intended. The spoils in this case is not liquor; rather it is the greatest problem outside the depression that confronts the American people today—namely, control.

Repealists should be given the lead in working out the plan of control. The advice of all should be given freely when sought, but the millions who conscientiously believe that the wave of crime and racketeering and bootlegging will be halted by repeal are entitled to a chance to see what they can do.

The problem is now one of control of liquor. It is hoped by even those who vigorously opposed repeal that the cause of temperance will be advanced by the new status. It is hoped that effective means of control can be set up. There must be rigid enforcement of regulatory laws. Whatever the expense, there must be no compromise on the question of enforcement.

Those who favored repeal and those who opposed it, except for a few radicals, were agreed on one point: They wished to do what was best for the American people. They differed only in their interpretation of the best position. On one side were those who thought repeal preferable to the evils of prohibition and on the other side were those who believed that the Eighteenth Amendment has succeeded and would succeed if given a chance.

It was no disgrace to be aligned with either side. It will be to the glory of all if the American people will now align themselves with the cause of temperance and sobriety. Liquor control should be given a chance to succeed and no stone should be placed in the way of those upon whom the duty of enforcement of regulatory laws devolves.

Railroad Project

The Charlotte Observer, whose editor, Wade Harris, has always manifested a real interest in Wilkes county's development, editorially comments on the local railroad reconstruction project. Mr. Harris says:

"It is an interesting railroad reconstruction project that is on foot in North Wilkesboro, a new corporation, known as the Wilkes & Western Railroad Company, having made application to the Interstate Commerce Commission to take over the wreckage of the Watauga & Yadkin road and reconstruct and equip it for resumption of business. This is a little railroad that was operated for a number of years by Captain Landon, and extended up a Wilkes County valley for 25 miles to a point known as Darby. It was chiefly used as a lumber road and had invaded a section of the biggest poplars this side of California. The road was doing a good business until the notable flood of 1916 came along and practically wiped it out. Proposition for its rehabilitation looks to a new era of prosperity in that section of the State. It is a prospect the Interstate Commerce Commission could scarcely turn down."

Sunrise

No longer when we voice our faith in the recovery of American business need we wonder if we give expression only to our hopes. That faith which kept America's eyes turned toward the promised sunrise of better times is being rewarded.

Whether this economic improvement now so tangibly evident can be credited principally to the National Recovery program or whether it is but the fruit of that sound basic rightness which has carried America triumphantly through past financial crises is beside the point. The fact remains that we have indisputably made substantial progress on our road to business betterment. The sun is up.

And so we are building back a new edifice of national prosperity. We are building it slowly, as it should be built to survive. We want no more flimsy structures built on fictions, such as that unwittingly erected in the decade following the World War. That toppled overnight. In its place we are building a fortress.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By REV. CHARLES E. DUNN

PAUL IN MACEDONIA

Lesson for November 12th. Acts 15:36-17:15. Golden Text: Acts 16:31.

The lesson describes a vision, a prayer-meeting, and an earthquake conversion. At Troas Paul had a dream. He saw a man from Macedonia, and heard him cry for help. Prof. Ramsay has suggested that this mysterious figure was none other than St. Luke, the beloved physician. This is an intriguing guess. But the main point of the incident is that Paul obeyed the summons, entered Europe, and so planted the seeds that led to the evangelization of the western world.

Today SOS calls are sounding from every direction. The world is in a sorry plight. The atmosphere is tense with suspicion, and electric with excitement. War-clouds are gathering again on the horizon. Economic distress is universal. The prophecy of the Master, "It must needs be that offences come," has been fulfilled. A prospect of long-continued suffering looms before us. Therefore there is enormous need for the dedicated life Paul represents.

Consider now the prayer-meeting held in Philippi by the river. Note that it was a congregation of women. This is typical of the modern prayer-meeting, as well as of our Sunday worship. Women greatly outnumber men in the more spiritual phases of church work. It is a pity that this is so, for the Christian religion is a thoroughly virile interpretation of the interest of men in God's Kingdom and man's origin and destiny. The need of patent.

And what shall we say of that drastic midnight conversation of the terrified jailor who almost committed suicide? It is a thrilling story suggesting two truths. The first is that prison bars cannot crush the soul of man. Here we find Paul and Silas praying and singing hymns though confined in a filthy den. The second is that when a sick soul cries for redemption, the answer of Paul to the jailor, if geared to the needs of the particular patient, is adequate.

Borrowed Comment

All peace treaties are good until a crisis requires their practical application.—Washington Post.

This 3.2 beer is good enough to pass the entrance examination to Wisconsin university.—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

It's contrary to public decency to desecrate a grave until the occupant has been dead a few centuries.—Toledo "Blade."

Prehistoric remains of men with high brows and long faces have been unearthed by archaeologists on the west coast. If that is what they were looking for the excavators might have visited the modern cemetery of the living dead.—Knickerbocker "Press."

Edwards Sunday School Meeting To Be Held Soon

Program For Township Convention Announced; To Be At Benham Nov. 25-26

The following program for the convention of the Edwards Township Sunday school association which will be held at Benham Baptist church on Saturday and Sunday, November 25-26, was announced last week:

Saturday
 1:00 p. m. Devotional, Mr. G. W. Curry.

1:15—Reports from the different Sunday schools.

1:30—"The Life and Character of Paul: Life and Character up to the time he began to preach," by Rev. I. W. Vestal. From there on by Rev. Levi McCann.

Saturday Night
 7:00—Sermon by Rev. John Burcham.

Sunday Morning
 9:30—Sunday school.

10:30—Address by Mr. J. F. Jordan.

11:00—Sermon by pastor, Rev. I. W. Vestal, after which adjournment.

Northern Alexander News

PORES KNOB, Route 2, Nov. 6.—Rev. T. E. Payne, of Hudson, filled his appointment at Mt. Olive Saturday night. The threatening weather caused the crowd to be small.

The monthly meeting at Mt. Olive has been changed from the 4th Sunday to the 2nd Sunday in each month.

Mr. Fred Sloop, of the C. C. Camp near Hendersonville, spent a short time Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Deal.

Mr. Tom Sherrill, of Granite Falls, spent awhile with his cousin, Mrs. H. S. Deal, Friday.

Mr. N. C. Deal, Sr., of Taylorsville, is spending some time in this section with relatives.

Mr. June Lowe has gone to the State Hospital at Morganton, for treatment. His health has been failing for some time.

Mrs. Essie Lowe Bowman, of Newton, spent last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Lowe.

Mrs. Ray Rodgers, of the Lebanon community, spent last week with her sister, Mrs. R. L. Fin-cannon, at Stony Point.

The many friends of Mr. Wiley Gryden will be sorry to learn of his death. He had many friends in Wilkes and Alexander counties as well as in other sections of the state. He was the oldest Mason in the county in point of age as well as membership. He had been a member for over sixty years.

Pie Supper To Be Given At Roaring River School

Roaring River high school announces that a pie supper will be given in the school auditorium Saturday evening, November 11, at 7:30 o'clock. Special entertainment will be offered and the proceeds will be used for the benefit of the school.

Since the N. R. A. blue eagle has appeared in thousands of show windows in New York, there has been an unusual demand for new cash registers.

NOTICE OF SALE OF REAL ESTATE

North Carolina, Wilkes County. In the Superior Court. C. S. Foster against F. L. Webster, Trustee and George Edwards.

Under and by virtue of the powers contained in a certain judgment in the above entitled cause, dated June 1st 1931, and recorded in Minute Book 26, page 123, in the office of the Clerk of the Superior Court of Wilkes county, and also under and by virtue of a certain order signed in said cause on the 26th day of October 1933, said judgment and said order empowering and directing the undersigned Commissioner to advertise and sell certain real estate described in the proceedings in the above entitled cause, I will on Saturday, November 25th, 1933, at one o'clock p. m., at the Court House Door in Wilkesboro, North Carolina, offer for sale to the highest bidder for cash, the following described tract of real estate to-wit:

Lying at the station of Ronda, on the N. W. N. C. Railroad, and bounded as follows: Beginning at a sycamore on the west side of school house branch, Mrs. A. J. McBee's corner, and running along the east side of an alley south 20 degrees east 2 chains 35 links to a stake, Mrs. McBee's corner; thence north 72 degrees east with Mrs. McBee's line four chains and 37 links to a small willow on the east bank of a small branch; thence north 10 1-2 degrees west one chain 16 links to a persimmon near said branch; thence north 48 degrees west 73 links to a beech; thence north 22 degrees west 63 links to a pine; thence north 70 degrees west three chains 70 links to the beginning, containing one acre, more or less.

That the above sale is made subject to the confirmation of the Court.
 This 26th day of Oct., 1933.
 JOHN R. JONES,
 Commissioner.

Claude E. Holleman Dies At Cycle, N. C.

Was Son Of Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Holleman; Funeral At Union Grove Church

Claude E. Holleman, eighteen-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Holleman, of Cycle, was claimed by death on Saturday, October 26.

The funeral service was conducted Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock from Union Grove Baptist church in the presence of many friends and relatives. Interment took place in the church cemetery.

He was a splendid young man and made a profession of faith in Christ before his death.

Surviving him are his parents, four sisters, Frances, Ruby, May and Sadie, and three brothers, Paul, Clyde and Calvin.

Buggaboo News

RONDA, Nov. 7.—The entire community was saddened Monday by the death of Mr. Charlie Durham, of Cycle, who was a former resident of this community. Funeral services were held at Macedonia church Wednesday, Nov. 1, by Rev. Mr. J. W. Bryant, of Elkin, and Rev. N. T. Jarvis, of Roaring River.

Mr. Ervin Key spent the weekend in Winston-Salem the guest of his sister, Mrs. R. S. Farlier. Misses Nellie and Susie Tharpe spent Monday night with Miss Blanche Adams, of Austin.

Miss Ila Anthony, of Roaring River, spent the week-end with her cousin, Miss Ruth Anthony.

The many friends of Mrs. T. L. Byrd are pleased to know that she is improving.

Mrs. Elmer Anthony and little daughter, Bettie Lee, spent Saturday in North Wilkesboro, shopping.

Miss Ruth Tharpe spent Sunday night with Miss Kathlene Adams, of Austin.

Miss Lena Anthony and Mr. Fennie Anthony, of Roaring River, visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Anthony.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Byrd spent Saturday in North Wilkesboro, shopping.

Mr. and Mrs. Hoyle Anthony visited Mrs. Anthony's parents, Rev. and Mrs. J. Z. Adams, of Austin, Sunday.

Miss Nell Byrd, of North Wilkesboro is spending this week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Byrd.

William Ellis Dies

William Ellis, of McGrady, was claimed by death on Saturday. He was 90 years, 3 months and 21 days of age.

Funeral services were held Sunday at McGrady, being in charge of Rev. J. Crouch.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Samantha Ellis, and several children.

Big shipment of Peter Shoes just received. $1.98 and up.—Payne Clothing Co.

"A Little Neater—A Little Better"

THAT'S THE WAY WE DO THE JOB

Right-Way Shoe Shop

C. G. PLEXICO, Prop. Telephone 98

How Black-Draught Holds its Popularity

A LAXATIVE made from highly approved, medicinal plants—yet about the least expensive laxative you can find: Thedford's Black-Draught.

There's no expensive container for you to buy when you ask your dealer for Black-Draught. And its light weight has saved freight bills in your favor. Black-Draught is right with you in economy. It brings prompt, refreshing relief to sufferers from constipation troubles.

Don't put up with sick headache, sluggishness, gas, dizziness, bad taste in the mouth, biliousness, coated tongue, bad breath, distress after meals, when due to constipation, but take Thedford's Black-Draught.

1/2 of 1 Per Cent DISCOUNT

on 1933 County Taxes if paid on or before

Dec. 1st, 1933

W. B. Somers Sheriff Wilkesboro, N. C.

FLOZON
 The Rustless Anti-Freeze
$2.89 per gallon
 CHEAPEST IN THE LONG RUN—DOES NOT EVAPORATE
 Batteries ..... $3.95 up
 Washing, Greasing, Storage
 Wiley Brooks and Jeter Orsdel
The Motor Service Co.
 North Wilkesboro, N. C.

Billie Gryden Dies
 Billie Gryden, Jr., infant son of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Gryden, died yesterday. Funeral and burial were at Flint Hill at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon. He was three days of age.

If You Get Up Nights
 Lax the Bladder With Juniper Oil, Buchu, Etc.
 Drive out the impurities and excess acids that cause irritation, burning and frequent desire. Juniper oil is pleasant to take in the form of BUKETS, the bladder laxative, also containing Buchu leaves, etc. Works on the bladder similar to castor oil on the bowels. Get a 25c box from any drug store. After four days if not relieved of "getting up nights" go back and get your money. If you are bothered with backache or leg pains caused from bladder disorders you are bound to feel better after this cleansing and you get your regular sleep.

Reins-Sturdivant
 Inc.
 "THE FUNERAL HOME"
 Phones—
 Day - 85
 Night - 85-328

NEW ORPHEUM THEATRE
 PROGRAM
FOR WEEK OF NOVEMBER 13

MONDAY AND TUESDAY, NOV. 13-14—
"SATURDAY'S MILLIONS"
 Johnny Mack Brown, Andy Devine, Lucille Lund (The All-American Girl and the All-American Football Stars) in the greatest Football Game of the season. The year's biggest football romance.
 ADDED ATTRACTIONS
 Eli Culbertson in "Bridge Tricks," and Micky Mouse Cartoon.

NOTICE—North Wilkesboro and Wilkesboro football teams will be admitted free to see "Saturday's Millions."

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 15—
"FLYING DEVILS"
 with Bruce Cabot, Eric Lenden, Arline Judge and Ralph Bellamy. Also Comedy and Cartoon. Oh, boy, what a show!
 FAMILY DAY—10c TO EVERYBODY

THURSDAY AND FRIDAY, NOV. 16-17—
"Life of Mary Stephens, M. D."
 with Kay Francis, Lyle Talbot and Glenda Ferrell. Also News, Comedy and Cartoon

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 18—
"CROSSFIRE"
 with Tom Keene, in a hard-riding, hard-fighting, rip-roaring Western. Also Buck Jones in the greatest serial ever shown—"GORDON OF GHOST CITY."
 Comedy and Cartoon

WACH FOR OUR AD FOR OUR ANNIVERSARY AND JUBILEE WEEK