Blackburn-Stevens Vows Announced

(Greensboro Daily News)
Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Doris Azalee Blackburn and Morris E. Stevens, both of Asheville, on Friday, November 17, 1933, in Asheville. The bride, a native of Wilkes county, has been in Asheville for about three years. Her mother, Mrs. L. J. Blackburn, has made her home in Greensboro for the past year. Mr. Stevens, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Stevens, of Biltmore, is connected with the Dixie Bonding company in Asheville. Mr. and Mrs. Stevens are now at home in Asheville at the Knickerbocker apartments, College Park place.

Wilkesboro Missionary Society Meets Thursday

The November meeting of the Wilkesboro Baptist Missionary Society was held on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. E. Harris with Mrs. W. A. Stroud as associate hostess. The theme for the afternoon was, "Stewards of the Word," and was in charge of Mrs. J. F. Jordan and Mrs. Bob Turner. The program was so arranged that practically all the members took part. Rev. Avery Church, pastor of the church, was present and made an interesting talk. The devotional period was led by Mrs. O. K. Whittington.

A number of important business matters came up for discussion during the business period. The members made plans to hold frequent prayer meetings in their homes; also to remember some needy family at Christmas. A nominating committee was appointed to name officers for the coming year and they will make their report at the December meeting. Mrs. R. L. Wellborn and Mrs. George Johnson were announced as program leaders for the next meeting and Mrs. S. T. Mitchell as hostess. A pleasant social hour followed the meeting at which time delicious refreshments were served.

Wilkesboro Woman's Club Has Interesting Meeting

Joining as hostess to the members of the Wilkesboro Woman's club in their monthly meeting on Friday afternoon were Mrs. N. O. Smoak, Mrs. M. G. Edwards and Mrs. B. H. Goss at the home of Mrs. Smoak. With the president, Mrs. L. B. Dula, in the chair, several matters of interest claimed the attention of the members during the business session. The club is planning to build a clubhouse and it will be of interest to know that Mrs. F. G. Holman has donated a lot for this purpose. The building will be known as the Holman Community House. Plans were made to plant shrubs on the courthouse lawn. Program chairman for the afternoon was Mrs. J. G. Hubbard and the topic for discussion was "American Homes," and was given by Mrs. Archie Ogilvie and Mrs. A. R. Gray. The musical part of the program consisted of a piano solo by Miss Ursula Blevins and a vocal solo by Mrs. E. E. Prevette. A full attendance of members were present and were served tempting refreshments during a pleasant social hour that followed the meeting.

Mrs. J. M. Blackburn Entertains Bridge Club

Mrs. Jeter Blackburn charmingly entertained the members of her bridge club and a number of other friends at her home on Thursday evening. Late fall flowers made a pretty setting for the game at three tables. After the removal of cards the hostess had the aid of Mrs. James O'Daniel in serving a delectable salad course followed by sweets. In the bridge competition the visitor's award was won by Mrs. Hunter B. Keck and within the club, Mrs. O'Daniel.

The November meeting of the W. C. T. U. was held on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. R. M. Brame with a splendid attendance of members and much enthusiasm manifested in the work. Presiding was Mrs. R. E. Paw with the usual routine of business being transacted and a general discussion of the work. Mrs. C. D. Coffey, Sr., assisted by Mrs. P. J. Brame gave an interesting Thanksgiving program.

Mrs. J. C. Hubbard Is Hostess To G. C. Club

The Greensboro College Alumnae Association of Wilkes county held a delightful meeting on Friday evening at the home of Mrs. J. C. Hubbard in Wilkesboro with a large number of the members being present. During the business part of the meeting the president, Mrs. C. S. Sink, presided and important matters were brought forth for discussion. An enjoyable feature of the evening was a number of readings given by Miss Fan Cranor in her own charming manner. To close the evening Mrs. Hubbard assisted by her little daughter, Nellie White, served dainty refreshments.

Busy Bee Sewing Club Entertained By Mrs. Church

The members of the Busy Bee Sewing club spent a pleasant and profitable evening at the home of Mrs. Rufus Church on the Boone Trail Friday evening. Around a dozen guests were present and spent an hour or more in sewing and chatting. Mrs. Tom Williams, sister of the hostess, was the only visitor of the club and assisted Mrs. Church in serving a salad course with sandwiches and coffee. Others assisting in the serving were Betty Gray and Ralph, small children of Mrs. Church.

Mrs. R. M. Brame Book Club Hostess

Mrs. R. M. Brame was gracious hostess to the members of the Friday Book club at her home on Memorial Avenue Friday afternoon. Practically all the members were present and responded to the roll call by Miss Lizzie Hise with current events of decided interest. Mrs. C. E. Jenkins, president of club, presided for routine business. At the close of the pleasant afternoon Mrs. Brame had the assistance of her two daughters, Misses Ruth and Rebecca Brame, in serving a delectable salad course.

Current Topic Club Meets With Mrs. F. C. Forester

A pretty club party of the week was the one given by Mrs. F. C. Forester at her home on Wednesday afternoon when she entertained the members of the Current Topic club and several additional guests. The home was attractively decorated in holly and other greenery which was suggestive of the Christmas season making a lovely background for the guests at five tables. At one o'clock Mrs. Forester with the assistance of Mrs. Henry Moore and Miss Lina Forester served a delicious turkey dinner with all accessories.

After the dinner a short business session was held with the president, Mrs. W. J. Allen, presiding. Mrs. Allen called the roll with members giving helpful items on flowers. The program was in charge of Mrs. C. F. Morrison who gave a splendid talk on "Birds and Bird Baths." At the conclusion of the program the guests played rook for sometime.

St. Cecilia Music Club In Delightful Meeting

The St. Cecilia Music Club was delightfully entertained Thursday evening at the home of Prof. and Mrs. T. E. Story with Tom Story and Lucille Hartley as host and hostess. Twenty-four members answered the roll call. The meeting was presided over by Virginia Laws, president of the club.

George Ogilvie read of the life and works of Johann Strauss, the waltz king of Germany, and then played his most popular waltz, "The Blue Danube." Lucille Hartley gave a sketch of Felix Mendelssohn, and played his "Fantasia in A Minor." Vocal solos were sung by Miss Doris Bangsman, Forest Church, and Hazel Shephard, accompanied by Mrs. Prevette.

Katharine Hendren told the story of the opera "Mignon" by Thomas, and played the "Polonaise" from this opera. Eva Lee Guthrie read a paper on "The Music of Spain," after which Virginia Laws played "Spanish Dance" by Iturbil. Other piano numbers were played by Alma Dennis, Ruth Hulcher, Neil Henderson and Ella Joyner Brame.

An interesting music contest, led by Lucille Hartley, was greatly enjoyed by the club. Delicious refreshments were served by the host and hostess, assisted by their mothers.

Mrs. Worth Morrison Is Charming Hostess

Mrs. Worth Morrison was hostess at her home Friday evening entertaining at four tables of bridge. The guest list included members of the Wilkesboro bridge club and a number of other friends. The maker of high score, Mrs. Gordon Forester, received a double deck of cards. In serving a salad course at the end of play, the hostess was assisted by Misses Lucille Hart and Marjorie Deans. The tallies and other appointments were suggestive of the Thanksgiving season.

Baptists Prepare For Big Canvass

In the Baptist churches of North Carolina preparation for the Annual Enrollment is nearing completion. On or near December 3 it is expected that the churches will observe Loyalty Day. Rev. Eugene Olive, of North Wilkesboro, is leading the movement in the Brushy Mountain Association which embraces twenty-eight churches in Wilkes county. In this program North Carolina is keeping step with other states in the Southern Baptist Convention. There is, however, a new emphasis this year in North Carolina. In the enrollment in North Carolina the members of the churches will be asked first of all to give themselves in service, and then asked to undertake to contribute a definite amount for the support of the local expense of the church and for the objects fostered by the Denomination. These objects are Missions, Foreign, Home and State, Christian Education and Benevolence, with the exception of the Orphanage. This last named institution depends for its support upon once-a-month offering in the Sunday schools and a Thanksgiving offering.

In order to provide for a real dedication, a double card has been distributed among the churches, part one challenging each member to give himself and part two to give of his income.

Pastors and churches desiring enrollment cards may secure them upon application to Rev. Eugene Olive, North Wilkesboro.

Reports indicate that the enrollment this year will be unusually successful. It is believed that this success will be due to the fact that the appeal is made not only for funds but for personal service as well; that the spirit of unity in the churches as well as in the denomination at large has never been finer; and that the people on the whole have more which they can and will give. Recently the State Convention met in Greensboro, and the reports of that meeting indicate that the Baptist people are united and face the future with high courage.

There are at present 2,375 churches in the state and on the rolls of these churches about 440,000 members.

Miss Bullis Is Bride Of Mr. Clifford J. Jackson

A wedding of much interest to a wide circle of friends was solemnized Saturday afternoon at five o'clock at the home of the bride's parents at Sanford, when Miss Viola Mabel Bullis became the bride of Mr. Clifford J. Jackson, of Sanford. Rev. J. A. Denton officiated, using the impressive ring ceremony.

The home was attractively decorated in green and white. The vows were spoken under an altar improvised of long leaf pines, trailing ivy, white chrysanthemums, candelabra and ferns. The bride and groom entered together unattended, while the wedding march was played by Mr. Manley Logan. The bride was becomingly attired in eel gray with accessories to match. She wore a corsage of peal flowers.

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Jackson were entertained at a four-course dinner by the bride's sister, Mrs. W. H. McDuffie. Immediately afterwards Mr. and Mrs. Jackson left for a motor trip to the western part of the state.

Mrs. Jackson is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Bullis, formerly of Wilkes county and a sister to Mr. C. W. Bullis, of Wilkesboro.

Mr. Jackson is the son of Mr. J. W. Jackson and the late Mrs. J. W. Jackson, of Sanford. He holds a responsible position with J. W. Jackson & Son.

The wedding was attended by immediate members of both families and a few intimate friends.
