Tammany members, as Mr. LaGuardia took office: "Back to the wigwam, boys, there'll be no war-pum!"—Boston Globe.

Insult has decided to live in England now. Having decamped with the Yankee jack, he turns to the Union Jack.—Dallas News.

The agricultural adjustment act is to fix it so a bumper crop will not bump the farmer.—Frederick Herald.

The puffer fish, says a nature note, blows itself up like a balloon when frightened. Manifestly the inferiority complex.—Arkansas Gazette.

But, general, we're not asking much. We only want low prices on everything we have to buy and high prices for everything we have to sell.—Atlanta Journal.

"The air belongs to the common people!" shouts a speaker in a talk on radio control. Well, keep your shirt on, brother: they've been getting it all along.—Atlanta Journal.

Listing five causes for the repeal of the 18th amendment, Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler cites nationwide bootlegging, hypocrisy of legislators, Elihu Root's warning, and two Supreme court decisions. Then there was also, of course, that minor matter of a lot of people wanting a legal drink.—Boston Evening Transcript.

It may be, as Prof. Irving Fisher, of rubber-dollar fame, says, that 11 college professors, two bankers and five foreign authorities are the only persons in the world who know the real meaning of money, but there are a good many others that know the real meaning of a lack of it.—Indianapolis News.

A Worthy Recommendation
The Boy Scout Court of Honor could have selected no more fitting leader for boys in this district than H. V. Wagoner, whose appointment as Scout commissioner may be announced before this appears in print. Mr. Wagoner is interested in boys; he is mindful of their need for an organization such as the Boy Scouts. It is safe to predict that if he becomes head of the Scouts as recommended, there will be a number of new troops organized in Wilkes and Watauga.

In Carl Coffey, whose resignation was tendered a few days ago, the Scouts lose an able leader. During the year and a half he served as commissioner, Mr. Coffey did some very effective work and the present advanced position the Scout movement occupies is due in a large degree to his interest and hard work. But Mr. Coffey will always be a Scout at heart and while losing his leadership, Boy Scouts of this district have reason to know that he will always remain their friend, ready to help when he can be of service.

Skating Is Banned
Chief of Police John Walker in announcing that he intends to see that the ordinance forbidding roller skating and coaster wagon riding on the sidewalks and streets is enforced, has taken a step in the interest of safety that the public generally will approve most heartily.

There has been an ordinance on record for years, but because this dangerous form of play has been practiced to such a limited extent, little attention had been paid to the matter of enforcement. It seems that Santa Claus furnished skates and wagons in abundance and children entered upon the streets and sidewalks with an indifference that causes one to wonder why a serious accident did not occur before the police took a hand. Two children were struck by automobiles, but fortunately were not hurt seriously. Parents and children alike should realize that Chief Walker's purpose in banning skates and wagons on the streets is not to deprive children of their pleasure, but to prevent serious accidents. Many pedestrians who have been forced to leave the sidewalks in order to avoid being struck by the youngsters will join motorists in approving Mr. Walker's action.

A Remarkable Conversion
It is an interesting story that Josiah William Bailey writes in The State, Carl Goerch's Raleigh publication, on the remarkable conversion of John T. Pullen who changed from a wayward son into a mighty power for good.

Mr. Bailey describes Pullen as "a young man living the worldly, self-indulgent life rather than the really bad life." Mr. Bailey goes on: "He was a good fellow—the best field-shot in Raleigh, if not in the state, and one of the best at pool. The barroom and the poolroom in his day were usually one—and the barroom was his loafing place. He drank but was not a drunkard. He kept late hours, and, coming home late, would find his mother on her knees praying for him. She loved him with a mother's love and would not give him up.

"Just for what definite cause I do not know, but probably on general account, charges were preferred against John in the First Baptist church of Raleigh, which he had joined in his youth. That was the day when 'church discipline' was applied for dancing, card-playing and other forms of 'worldly living' not now so severely regarded."

The pastor of the church found Pullen in the saloon playing pool when he went to notify him of the charges, Mr. Bailey goes on to state. Pullen answered the minister with an oath. "Young man," the minister replied, "you do not know what this means. I cannot compel you to come. But all this day you will have on your mind what you have said and tonight when the church bell rings, with every stroke you hear, remember what you have said—and you will come."

The bell rang and John Pullen was drawn irresistibly to the church. When the accusations were read, Pullen went forward, confessed his wrong-doing and asked for another chance because of his praying mother.

What happened afterwards is history. John Pullen forsook his old haunts, gave up his wayward journey and became a powerful preacher of the Gospel.

Perhaps the churches of today ought to borrow a leaf from the strict book of discipline used in the days of John Pullen. Perhaps there's a lesson to be learned from Senator Bailey's story.

Praying mothers are an asset in any age and a careful watch by the church over its flock has a steadying influence that many times changes the whole course of a career.

Auto Tags
That the so-called "hard-boiled" decision not to allow any days of grace for purchasing automobile license plates has parked some 150,000 cars is admitted. That revenue has been lost thereby is evidence no one can refute. But it is not admitted that these facts are arguments for a different policy next year.

The state has established a precedent that should be followed in the years to come. Motorists have 12 months in which to prepare for the purchase of these required plates and why should the state allow days of grace? Set February 1 as the day when new plates should be put on and motorists would get around to buying their tags along about March 1. No one knows this better than those who are bellyaching the loudest about the state's policy.

But we admit that the argument for a lower-priced set of tags is sound and should be given a hearing by the next general assembly. If there is any way to raise sufficient revenue without doing some other particular type of taxpayer a greater injustice than is now being done the motorist, that way should be found, and the poor motorist, who pays a property tax to the county, a property tax to the city, a city license tax, a gasoline tax to the state, a gasoline tax to the federal government and a tax on the check he writes, give him some relief.

Attend The Ball
Don't forget to attend the Roosevelt Birthday Ball which will be given in the new armory in this city on Tuesday, January 30, for the benefit of the Warm Springs Foundation. It is a patriotic movement that is worthy of our support.

It should be clearly understood that the ball is not intended solely for the people of North Wilkesboro and Wikesboro. It is a nation-wide affair and nearby counties which are not sponsoring a ball should send representatives here.

The intention of the local committee is to make the ball interesting for everybody whether dancers or not. And besides special entertainment, everybody at the ball will hear President Roosevelt's special message during the evening.

Let's put the ball over in a big way and help the sufferers from infantile paralysis.

A law to punish stock market gambling is proposed. Recalling the warning on the high-tension tower: "50,000 volts; don't touch under penalty of the law."—Detroit News.

Funeral Is Held For Mr. Smithey
Well Known Citizen of Wilkesboro Route 2, Died On Wednesday

Funeral services for Thomas J. Smithey, prominent citizen of Wilkesboro Route 2, who died Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock, were conducted from Fishing Creek Baptist church Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Rev. N. T. Jarvis and Rev. Mr. Payne conducted the service. Interment was made in the church cemetery.

Mr. Smithey was 78 years of age and was highly regarded in his community.

Surviving Mr. Smithey are his wife, Mrs. Bertha Smithey, two daughters, Mrs. J. R. Johnston, of this city, and Mrs. E. H. Dinkler, of Erwin, Tenn., and one son, Thomas J. Smithey, Jr., of Wilkesboro.

TAMMANY HAS BOOS FOR ALFRED E. SMITH
New York, Jan. 18.—The name of Alfred E. Smith, long an idol of Tammany Hall, was booed and hissed tonight at a banquet of the Tammany Hall speakers' bureau.

In years past, the former governor and 1928 presidential candidate of the Democrats, had been the principal guest of honor at these functions.

Tonight he sent a letter of regrets.

After it was read, catcalls, boos and hisses filled the banquet room at the Hotel Commodore for several minutes.

The letter of regret read: "For my own protection and to save embarrassment, I have cut out all dinners. I have declined to so many personal friends so far that I am going to stick to the rule throughout the winter."

Scattered applause, of short duration, greeted the reading of regrets from President Roosevelt, contained in a letter signed by Marvin McIntyre, a secretary.

Former Mayor John P. O'Brien, defeated by Fiorello H. LaGuardia for re-election, was the lion of the occasion.

He was cheered for many minutes in his first important appearance since his defeat.

Most Everybody Put On Their Coats And Left
Seattle, Jan. 17.—Offered their choice of their money back or listening to a sermon by Al-mee Semple McPherson Hutton, the evangelist, after a scheduled debate had been called off, more than 2,500 persons sought their money last night.

The exodus of about half of the audience followed her announcement from the platform that her debate opponent, Charles Lee Smith, noted atheist, had failed to arrive.

"I have bad news for you," she announced to the audience. "Mr. Smith has been unable to reach Seattle. But I'm going to make you a proposition.

"I'm going to preach one of my very best sermons, 'The Second Coming of Christ.' Any of you who does not care to remain may leave and have your money refunded at the box office, while we join in singing 'Onward, Christian Soldiers.'"

The first stirring strains of the hymn were heard, and a few scattering persons arose from their seats.

Then, as the music continued, more of the audience arose and put on their coats.

By the time the final verse was being sung, the aisles were crowded, and soon the lobby was jammed with patrons clustering about the box office.

Gored To Death
Leaksville, Jan. 17.—William Jarrett Patterson, one of Leaksville's best known citizens, died Monday night at the local hospital at 11 o'clock. He was taken to the hospital at 2 o'clock Monday after being gored by a cow, the horn piercing his side and severing a main artery. He had gone to the barn to feed the cow, and the cow in lunging at a dog struck Mr. Patterson.

He was 63 years of age and a native of Henry county, Virginia, but had been a resident of this community the past 20 years.

Funeral service was held at the home on Patterson street at 2 o'clock today by D. S. Dempsey, pastor of Spray church, of which church Mr. Patterson was a member, and interment was in Lawson cemetery.

Suspected Japs Freed
Kearny, N. J., Jan. 17.—Five Japanese who were arrested on suspicion when police found them photographing bridge and highway structures in the Hackensack meadows, were freed of charges today. Passports of all were found to be in order.

Dog Causes Fire
Oklahoma City, Jan. 17.—Corky, Julius Merson's fox terrier, thought he knew what to do when he ignited a piece of paper with which he had been playing before a fire. He ran with the burning paper into a clothes closet and dropped it. Damage was $50.

CAN FIND NOBODY TO TAKE HIS GOLD
Washington, Jan. 17.—"I was just keeping it as a souvenir." So a man, rather shabbily dressed, told a guard at the treasury today, displaying a $20 gold piece.

When he went to the bank to turn it in under government orders, he found the bank, under local clearing house orders, had stopped taking gold at 1 o'clock. At the treasury, he found the cash room had closed at 2 o'clock so even the treasury was without machinery for taking gold.

Treasury officials hurriedly conferred. The result was a probable permission for those who honestly tried to turn in gold today to have a little longer chance to do so.

CAPTURE MAN WHO SET DOG ON FIRE
Birmingham, Ala.—Police have in custody Cahles L. Martin, Jr., 24, in connection with the investigation of inhumane treatment of a fox terrier puppy two weeks ago.

Martin was held after the Humane society collected contributions totaling $102 as a reward for the arrest and conviction of the person who converted the puppy into a flaming torch.

The dog was saturated with gasoline and a match applied.

An officer of the Humane society later found the dog whimpering beneath a hedge and dispatched it to prevent further suffering.

Woman Is Arrested On Narcotic Charge
Danville, Va., Jan. 17.—School-field authorities today could shed little light on the arrest of Mrs. Clara Doss, aged 40, there yesterday evening by a federal officer who served on her a warrant charging her with a conspiracy to smuggle narcotics into the federal penitentiary at Atlanta.

She came here a week ago to visit some of her relatives and was seemingly surprised when she was arrested and told she would have to put up a bond of $5,000 to secure her liberty.

She was taken to Roanoke last night where her husband, Dewey Doss, is under arrest after being taken at Abingdon.

Jesse W. Melton, a member of the Schoolfield police department accompanied the federal agent to the house on Stokesdale avenue where the arrest was made. Mrs. Doss is from Damascus.

W. E. Turner, head of the narcotic division in Virginia, who was here today in another case, said that he was not aware of the arrests and local police officers knew nothing of it.

Bailey Sees Money Plans As Effort to Gain Trade
Raleigh, Jan. 17.—Here to appear in civil cases in federal court, Senator Josiah W. Bailey today declared he saw in President Roosevelt's monetary plans a strong effort on the part of this country to get as much foreign trade as possible.

"I am paired on every matter likely to come up during my absence and no one can say I am trying to dodge a vote," the senator said, adding that the Roosevelt monetary plans were claiming attention of Congress at the present time.

Bailey said he planned to return to Washington Thursday night.

Denounces Bankhead Bill
Washington, Jan. 19.—Governor Talmadge, of Georgia, called on Secretary Ickes and farm administration officials today, gave a few opinions on civil works, and labeled the Bankhead cotton bill a "foolish idea."

WILEY BROOKS and JETER CRYSEL
The Motor Service Co.
NORTH WILKESBORO, N. C.

Pores Knob News
Washington, Jan. 19.—Prickly phrases about recovery and words of varying degrees of hardness about President Roosevelt's gold program tonight charged the capitol atmosphere with expectation of strife to come.

PORES KNOB, Jan. 20.—Rev. C. C. Holland, of Taylorsville, filled his regular appointment at Walnut Grove Baptist church, Sunday, January 14, at 2 p. m. The church now has two Sunday services each month, with the second and fourth as the times.

Miss Lula Jennings spent the week-end in Greensboro, visiting her sister, Mrs. Maude Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Reavis, of North Wilkesboro, have been visiting in the home of Mrs. Reavis' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Henderson.

Mr. Floyd Jennings attended the convention of the State Nurserymen's association in Charlotte last week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Hendren, of North Wilkesboro, visited in the home of Mrs. Hendren's mother, Mrs. Maude Foster, Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Robinson, of Oakwoods, visited Mrs. Robinson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Burl Marlow, Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. W. F. Jennings and daughter, Grace, spent Monday in Hiddenite visiting relatives.

Dr. T. H. Higgins, of Traphill, was a business visitor to the city Saturday.

HOW WOMEN CAN WIN MEN AND MEN WIN
The Favor of Other Men

Unless two pints of bile juice flow daily from your liver into your bowels, your food decays in your bowels. This poisons your whole body. Movements get hard and constipated. You get yellow tongue, yellow skin, pimples, dull eyes, bad breath, bad taste, gas, dizziness, headache. You have become an ugly-looking, foul-smelling, sour-thinking person. You have lost your personal charm. Everybody wants to run from you.

But don't take salts, mineral waters, oils, laxative pills, laxative candies or chewing gums and expect them to get rid of this poison that destroys your personal charm. They can't do it for they only move out the tail end of your bowels and that doesn't take away enough of the decayed poison. Cassia won't help at all.

Only a free flow of your bile juice will stop this decay poison in your bowels. The one mild vegetable medicine which starts a free flow of your bile juice is Carter's Little Liver Pills. No alcohol (mercury) in Carter's. Only fine, mild vegetable extracts. If you would like to see your personal charm to win men, start taking Carter's Little Liver Pills according to directions today. 25¢ at drug stores. Refuse "something just as good" for it may grip, loosen teeth or send you to bed. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills by name and get what you ask for. ©1933, C.M. Co.
