Deamonettes To Play In Journal Cage Tournament

Mountain View Bertet Has Record Of 31 Victories And No Defeats In 3 Years

Wilkes county will be proudly represented at the Journal Tournament in Winston-Salem this week-end by the fast stepping "Deamonettes" Basketball team of the Mountain View high school.

This team of girls coached by Miss Nae Shumate and captained by Grace Haynes, started out last year a new and green bunch. Yet Miss Shumate worked with them and her success is shown here in an enviable record.

These girls have engaged up until now 31 teams and have turned in 31 victories. They won the county tournament of 1932-33 championship by defeating each and every team in the county at least once. So far this year the girls have not been called on to use their full strength. All games have been played mostly by the substitutes, who have proven to be exponents of basketball. In 12 engagements this year the forwards led by their captain, Grace Haynes have chalked up 227 points while the guards only allowed the opponents 98 points.

With but one more game to play it now appears the county laurels will for the second time in succession be the Deamonettes.

These girls realize their handicap by having had no experience on an indoor court, but assure their friends of Wilkes they will be in the game fighting to bring the bacon to Wilkes county, so give them your wishes.

Believed Poisoned

JONESVILLE, March 5. — Nance Foster, colored, of this place died last Saturday at her home. It was believed by members of her family that she had been poisoned in some unknown way.
