First Baptist Church Auxiliary
Monthly Meetings
 The theme for both the Junior Girl's Auxiliary and the First Baptist Church monthly meeting on Thursday afternoon. The White House was the theme for the program was in charge of Mae Rose. The vice-president, Mary Parker Kelly, presided for routine business. The pastor, Mrs. J. I. Myers, and pastor, Miss Lunda Hendren, were present for the meeting. At the close of the program the social hostesses, assisted by her mother, Mrs. W. F. Jones served light refreshments to the group. Little Miss Billie Barnes entertained the green group at her home with Mrs. Bernard Williams, leader, in charge. Delightful refreshments were served during the social hour. Around twenty children were present for the meeting.

This week was the dinner and theatre party given by Mrs. H. P. Casey and Mrs. Eugene Olive at the home of Mrs. Olive on D Street Thursday evening. The guests, members of the Idlewild club of which both the hostesses are members, and a few other friends, gathered at four o'clock for a period of sewing and an exchange of books.
 At six-thirty a three course dinner was served from the dining table and three smaller ones, which were attractively appointed in a color scheme of green and yellow, with the St. Patrick green predominating. The dining table covered with a lace cloth, was lighted by green tapers and centered by an arrangement of forsythia. Green candles burned on the small tables and also in a candelabrum on the buffet. The place cards were in St. Patrick design while the dinner courses carried forward the accepted motif.
 Following the dinner the group went to the Orpheum Theatre to view the picture, "If I Were Free." Guests in addition to the

Mrs. J. R. Hix Hostess To Friday Book Club
 Mrs. J. R. Hix was gracious hostess at her home on D Street Friday afternoon when she entertained the members of her Book club and a small group of other guests. Visitors besides the club members were Mesdames Henry Reynolds, A. B. Johnston, Weaver Starr, Misses Beulah Ferguson and Mary Lissie Hix.
 The approach of St. Patrick's day influenced the decorations and appointments. White carnations, ferns and other greenery made a festive scene with the open fire adding cheer to the room. The refreshments served at the close of the afternoon from small tables placed in the living room furthered the St. Patrick idea.
 Preceding the dinner Mrs. C. E. Jenkins presided while Miss Lizzie Hise called the roll, members responding with news items of decided interest.

"State Missions" Studied At Y.W.A. Meeting Monday
 "State Missions" given by Mrs. G. T. Mitchell made up the program of the Wilkesboro Y. W. A. of the Baptist church, at the monthly meeting on Monday evening at the home of Misses Lolk and Geneva Church. Mrs. Mitchell was assisted by several of the members in presenting the program. Miss Mable Hendren held the chair for the business session at which time plans were made to organize a Y. W. A. choir for the church. Two new members, Miss Jessie Davis and Miss Bess Stewart, were welcomed into the society. The fifteen members attending enjoyed tempting refreshments and a social hour at the close of the meeting. Miss Helen Bumgarner was announced as the next hostess.

Junior Woman's Club In Meeting Tuesday
 The March meeting of the Junior Woman's Club of Wilkesboro was held on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Miss Katherine Hendren with Miss Lucille Hartley as associate hostess. An art program, which consisted of studying several famous pictures, was in charge of Miss Vivian Johnson, several of the members contributing to the program. Miss Marjorie Dula occupied the chair for the business session. To close the afternoon the hostesses served

Miss Elizabeth Frazier Hostess To Girl's Auxiliary
 Miss Elizabeth Frazier was hostess to the Intermediate Girl's Auxiliary of the First Baptist church at her home on Thursday evening with twelve members and three visitors attending. Miss Virgie Bumgarner was in charge of the program while Miss Beulah Chipe Rhodes presided for routine business. Miss Lura Reynolds and Mrs. John Rhodes met with the group. The hostess, assisted by her mother, Mrs. Tom Frazier, served delightful refreshments to the group during the social hour.

Miss Turner Hostess To Legion Auxiliary
 With the new president, Miss Toby Turner, presiding the March meeting of the Legion Auxiliary was held on Monday evening at the nurses home with Miss Turner, Mrs. Andrew Kirby and Mrs. Richard Finley joining as hostesses. The program for the month was "Unity Activity" and Mrs. Finley read a splendid article on this work. For one of their activities the Auxiliary, working with the North Wilkesboro Woman's club, is making plans to secure the traveling library from Raleigh for the summer months. Miss Turner succeeded Mrs. A. W. Horton, who has recently moved to California, as president and during the business session reports from the different committees were heard. The meeting was largely attended and at the close of the evening delightful refreshments were served by the hostesses.

Baptist Circles Held Meetings Tuesday P. M.
 Three circles of the North Wilkesboro Baptist church held meetings of much interest on Tuesday afternoon as follows: Circle No. 1 with Mrs. Dewey Minton as chairman met at the home of Mrs. C. D. Coffey, Sr. Mrs. C. E. Jenkins had charge of the devotional period while the mission study course was taught by Mrs. Coffey. Eight members were present.
 Mrs. J. E. Spainhour was hostess to Circle No. 2 with an attendance of five members. Mrs. Eugene Olive led the devotional period. Mrs. E. M. Blackburn, chairman, presided and plans were discussed for the general work of the circle.
 Circle No. 3 was entertained by Mrs. Robert Parker with Mrs. D. S. Lane presiding, who also gave the devotional. Seven members were in attendance. Light refreshments were served during the social hour following each of the meetings.

Mr. and Mrs. Doughton Feted At Bridge Party
 Mr. and Mrs. Claude Doughton, who were married the latter part of January, were honored Friday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Hill at their home on Solomon Street. The courtesy took the form of a bridge party, at which three tables were in play. Mrs. Doughton was formerly Miss Pauline Turner, of Winston-Salem, and a number of social courtesies have been extended her here since her marriage. High score award, a china and silver candy bowl, went to Dr. and Mrs. J. H. McNeil. To Mrs. Doughton, the hostess presented a lovely hand made set of dollies. At the conclusion of play Mrs. Hill had the assistance of Mrs. McNeil and Mrs. George Forester in serving tempting refreshments in two courses. Sweet peas and blooming plants made effective decorations for the home.

Misses McCredie And Foster Club Hostesses
 Miss Hazel Foster and Miss Mary Ella McCredie combined their hospitality to the members of "The Last Round Up" club at their apartment in the home of Mrs. J. F. Johnson on Monday evening. The guests spent the hours informally sewing and chatting after which the hostesses served a dainty salad course with accessories.

Miss Jennings Is Honored At Party
 Honoring Miss Lula Jennings, Mrs. R. C. Jennings was hostess at a miscellaneous shower Friday evening at her home at Poree Knob. Around twenty friends of Miss Jennings were present and spent an enjoyable evening playing games and engaging in various contests. Miss Helen Hix was awarded a dainty prize, which she presented to the honoree.
 The engagement of Miss Jennings to Mr. John Gray Kennerly, prominent business man of Mooresville, was announced in a clever fashion, after which little Miss Dorothy Jennings brought in the gifts heaped in a toy wagon. At the conclusion of the evening delicious refreshments were served. Decorations and favors were reminiscent of the Easter season, the favors being tiny Easter baskets.

Woman's Missionary Society of the Wilkesboro Methodist church is sponsoring an Irish Tea at the home of Mrs. R. R. Church Friday afternoon. Hours are from three to four and four to five.

The North Wilkesboro Woman's club will meet Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the home of Mrs. F. C. Hubbard with Mrs. Palmer Horton and Mrs. Walter Newton as joint hostesses.

Swift's Red Steer Fertilizers For TRUCK CROPS

NON-ACID FORMING (PHYSIOLOGICALLY NEUTRAL)

Truck growers are still talking about the extra large yields of fine quality crops obtained last year from Swift's Red Steer Fertilizers for truck crops. We are going to let you in on the secret! For years the Certificate of quality on the Red Steer bag assured you Best Materials, Double Mixed and Triple Tested. Now you get another plus value—Non-Acid Forming (physiologically neutral.)

PRACTICAL farmers and Experiment Stations know that ordinary truck fertilizers increase soil acidity. Swift's Red Steer for truck crops CANNOT ADD HARMFUL ACID RESIDUE TO YOUR SOIL because it is made NON-ACID FORMING. That means not only highest yields this year but a better condition of soil fertility in years to come. Rich and full strength, this fertilizer also brings your crops needed calcium and magnesium. It is built for big yields and large profit to the grower.

Look for the above Tag when you buy your Potato Fertilizer.
