Peggy Jane Hart Given Birthday Party Saturday

Mrs. Bill Hart entertained at a children's party at her home on B Street Saturday afternoon honoring her daughter, Peggy Jane, on her eighth birthday anniversary. The children were led in a couple of contests and later, in games on the lawn by Mrs. Hart, assisted by her sister, Mrs. Henry Davis, of Ronda. Ruby Jones and Bobby Hubbard won prizes in the contests.

The dining room, where the children were invited after the games, was decorated in pink and white roses and the table was covered with a white cloth, centered with a birthday cake of the same color bearing eight pink candles. An ice course was served to the little folks. The honoree received a large number of beautiful gifts.

Those who came to celebrate the occasion with Peggy Jane were Frances Rousseau, Nancy Rousseau, Peggy Finley, Lucille Casey, Gordon Reins, Nancy Forester, Ruby Jones, Jane Jones, Jane Perry, Bertha Jean Myers, Marjorie Hart, Mary Dula, Zelle Smoak, Patsy Ruth Hadley, Helen Caudill, Bobby Hubbard and Buddy Forester.

Business Woman's Circle Met With Mrs. Tal Barnes

The Business Woman's Circle of the First Baptist church met at the home of Mrs. Tal Barnes on Monday evening for the June meeting and was attended by around fifteen members. Miss Manie Brewer presided for the business session and Mrs. A. C. Dennis, president of the Missionary Society, met with the group and led an impressive devotional period. Mrs. Barnes was program leader and was assisted in giving the program by Miss Lunda Hendren and Mrs. Gilbert Foster. An ice course was served at the close of the evening by Mrs. Barnes.

Social Calendar

Mrs. A. F. Kilby and Mrs. E. M. Long will join as hostesses to the members of the Idle-wisely club at the home of Mrs. Kilby on Thursday evening at eight o'clock.

Circle No. 4 of the First Baptist church, will meet Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Gilbert Foster.

The monthly meeting of the Legion Auxiliary will be held on Monday evening at 7:45 o'clock at the Legion clubhouse.

Miss Myrtle Yates Hostess At Party

A lovely party of last week was the one given by Miss Myrtle Yates at her home in Wilkesboro Thursday evening, entertaining a number of her friends. White and pink roses made a beautiful decoration for the home. Various games furnished amusement throughout the evening, the prizes going to Miss Nora Belle Yates, Miss Helen Bumgarner and Mr. Spenser Richardson. Following the games delicious refreshments were served. A number of boys and girls enjoyed the hospitality of Miss Yates.

U. D. C. Held Interesting Meeting Monday Afternoon

The celebration of Jefferson Davis' birthday and reports from the district meeting held at Boone recently were events at the monthly meeting of the U. D. C. Monday afternoon that made it one of much importance. The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. J. G. Hackett and joining with Mrs. Hackett as hostess was Mrs. Minnie Hunt and a splendid attendance of members were present.

Jefferson Davis' natal day was Sunday, June 3, and the program for the afternoon in keeping with the occasion was given under the direction of Mrs. C. D. Coffey, Sr. Each member present gave some item of interest pertaining to the life of Davis and Mrs. Coffey told about the monuments erected in his honor throughout the south and his statue in the Hall of Fame in Washington, D. C. Miss Ellen Robinson read an interesting article on Mrs. Davis as "First Lady of the Confederacy."

The District meeting held in Boone Friday May 25, was presided over by the chairman of district, Miss Lucy Finley, and at the meeting Monday afternoon Miss Finley, Mrs. W. C. Grier, Mrs. B. R. Underwood, Miss Robinson and Mrs. Coffey gave fine reports of the meeting.

The business part of the meeting was in charge of the president, Mrs. Underwood, and the main item of business was making plans for a birthday party at the September meeting, which will be the next regular meeting of the chapter, since it has disbanded for the summer months. At the September meeting the chapter will celebrate its twenty-third anniversary.

Wilkesboro Y. W. A. Met With Mrs. G. T. Mitchell

Mrs. G. T. Mitchell was hostess to the members of the Wilkesboro Y. W. A., of the Baptist church, at her home on Monday evening and the election of two new officers was the main item of business during the business session, which was presided over by Miss Katharine Hendren, Mrs. Avery Church was chosen as president and Miss Helen Bumgarner as vice-president. Miss Helen Blevins was in charge of an interesting Missionary program and those helping her with the program were Misses Vivian Johnson and Helen Bumgarner. The devotional was led by Miss Joyce Wellborn. The ten members attending were served dainty refreshments during the social hour.

Baptist Circles Held Monthly Meetings Tuesday

Splendid meetings were held by three of the North Wilkesboro Baptist circles on Tuesday afternoon as follows: Mrs. Dewey Minton was hostess to the members of her Circle and had six members and two visitors present. Mrs. Minton presided for routine business and Mrs. Tip McNeil taught another lesson in the Mission study book. Mrs. A. C. Dennis, president of the Society, met with the circle and conducted the devotional period.

The Dosler Circle, with Mrs. E. M. Blackburn in charge, was entertained by Mrs. J. O. Emerson. Ten members were present. The regular routine of business was transacted and a program made out to be given at the general meeting of the Society on Tuesday. The personal service work for the month was also discussed. Mrs. Cyrus McNeil was announced as the next hostess.

Circle No. 3 met with Mrs. D. S. Lane, who is chairman of the circle, with an attendance of six members. No program was given as the time was spent in the transaction of a number of business matters. A delightful social hour followed each of the meetings with delicious refreshments being served by the various hostesses.

Presbyterian Circles Held Splendid Meetings Tuesday

All four circles of the North Wilkesboro Presbyterian church held enthusiastic meetings on Tuesday, Circles No. 1 and No. 2 meeting in the evening and the other two in the afternoon. Circle No. 1, Mrs. D. J. Carter chairman, was entertained by Mrs. Fred Finley and had ten members present. Mrs. J. P. Mills, a visitor of the circle, gave the Bible Study.

Miss Jeannie and Clara Ogilvie were hostesses to Circle No. 2 at their home in Oakwoods with an attendance of nine members. Mrs. Gordon Forester, chairman, presided for routine business and the Bible study was given by Miss Clara-Ogilvie. Mrs. A. R. Ogilvie was the visiting secretary.

Miss Louise Vyne was hostess to Circle No. 3 with an attendance of thirteen members. The program for the afternoon was as follows: Bible Study by Mrs. J. C. McDiarmid, the prayer topic for month by Mrs. Gordon Finley, and a synopsis of the Presbyterian survey by Miss Catherine McDiarmid. Mrs. C. C. Faw was in charge of the business session.

Circle No. 4, Mrs. A. A. Cashion chairman, met at the home of Mrs. M. A. Vickery with Mrs. J. P. Mills as joint hostess. Elev-on members were present. The general routine of business was discussed with Mrs. Cashion presiding. Mrs. A. R. Ogilvie was visiting secretary making a very interesting talk on "Christian Social Service." In the absence of Mrs. C. D. Coffey, Jr., Mrs. Mills gave an inspiring Bible lesson on Mark. Following each of the meetings a pleasant social hour was enjoyed while tempting refreshments were served.

N. W. Methodist Auxiliary Met Tuesday Afternoon

With the president, Mrs. J. C. Reins, presiding the June meeting of the North Wilkesboro Methodist Auxiliary was held Tuesday afternoon in the ladies' parlor of the church with an attendance of twenty-seven members. The usual reports were heard and a number of business matters came up for discussion. The meeting opened with the singing of a hymn after which Mrs. R. M. Brame led in prayer. Instead of the regular program Mrs. W. P. Horton gave a full report of the Missionary Conference held at Hendersonville sometime ago. Mrs. Ernest Blackman gave several items from the Missionary bulletin. The attendance award went to the Franklin circle with twelve members present.

Wilkesboro Woman's Club Had Interesting Meeting

A musical program rendered by a number of visitors from Lenoir was a special feature of the monthly meeting of the Wilkesboro Woman's club on Friday evening at the home of Mrs. C. H. Hulcher with Mrs. J. R. Henderson, Mrs. J. B. Henderson and Mrs. R. E. Prevette joining hospitality with Mrs. Hulcher. Other features of the program were the installation of officers and a report from the State Federation of Woman's clubs held at Asheville last month.

Mrs. R. E. Prevette, music department chairman, was program leader and introduced the visitors from Lenoir, who gave a most entertaining program. The group was composed of Miss Claire Ordway, violinist, Mrs. Hunt Gwyn, pianist, and Misses Elizabeth Cloniger and Ruth Rash, and Ira Wood, who gave several instrumental numbers as an ensemble. Following their program Miss Ordway gave a splendid talk on music.

The officers installed to lead the club in another year's work were Mrs. C. H. Cowles, president; Mrs. L. B. Dula, vice president; Mrs. L. B. Taylor, treasurer; Mrs. W. J. Johnson, recording secretary; and Mrs. C. F. Morrison, corresponding secretary.

Reports from the meeting of the State Federation of Woman's clubs were given by Mrs. C. H. Hulcher, Mrs. J. B. Henderson and Mrs. L. B. Dula. At the close of the evening the hostesses served delicious refreshments to the large number of members and visitors attending during a pleasant social hour. Presiding for the meeting was the retiring president, Mrs. L. B. Dula.

Mrs. Donald Lumpkin Feted At Two Parties

Two delightful social courtesies were extended to Mrs. Donald Lumpkin, of Durham, who is a guest this week of her daughter, Mrs. Palmer Horton, on Monday and Tuesday when Mrs. Horton entertained at her home on Sixth Street at noon and bridge. For both parties an abundance of mixed cut flowers, with roses predominating, were attractively arranged throughout the home.

On Monday afternoon two tables were set up for food and following the game the hostess had the assistance of Mrs. W. P. Horton in serving tempting refreshments in two courses. The honoree received a lovely remembrance from her daughter and Mrs. W. P. Horton was presented with a prize for her skill in the game.

A bridge-luncheon was the form of entertainment for Tuesday with three tables being made up for the game in the morning, and afterwards a fine course luncheon was served at one o'clock. The hostess was assisted at this time by Mrs. Walker Newton. In the bridge competition the high score award was won by Mrs. D. J. Carter with the traveler's prize going to Mrs. Frank Somers. Mrs. Lumpkin was again remembered with a gift.
