

John W. Martin Dies Suddenly

Ronda Community Citizen Dropped Dead At His Home Wednesday

John W. Martin, age 59, well and favorably known resident of near Ronda, died suddenly at his home about eleven o'clock yesterday. Heart disease is attributed to be the cause of his death.

Mr. Martin had just returned from the field and was talking with some of his neighbors near the home when he suddenly fell dead.

He was a member of a widely known family and his sudden death was an occasion of great shock to his family and many friends.

He leaves the following children: Bynum Martin, Booneville; William Martin, Ronda; Harvey Martin, Jonesville; Huey Martin, Ronda; Mrs. Gloda Sparks, Winding Gulf, W. Va.; Mrs. Hugh Pinnix, Union Grove; Mrs. William Day, Mt. Airy; Miss Blanche Martin, Ronda. Also surviving are six sisters: Mrs. Vick Sturdivant, Ronda; Mrs. Garfield Cook, Illinois; Mrs. Sydney Swain, Cycle; Mrs. Wilson Bryant, Jonesville; Mrs. Arthur Holleman, Union Grove; Mrs. Charlie Swain, Winston-Salem.

The funeral service will be conducted from Swan Creek Church Saturday morning at 11 o'clock.

TO TRY 3 ACCUSED OF THROWING MAN INTO BOILING MASH

The moonshiners had made a dam across a gully to keep the sloop from running down the hill and disclosing the location of their still.

Matherley and Laws were taken by the officers at the still but the other three fled in the darkness. Teague was taken a few days later at Blowing Rock.

Phillips was badly burned practically all over his body but was able to walk to the car a half mile away after he sprang out of the boiling sloop. He is being treated at The Wilkes Hospital here.

Rain Interferes With Legion-Lions Baseball

Rain in the fourth inning broke up the playground baseball game between the American Legion and Lions Club Tuesday afternoon. A game between the two organizations will be played at an early date.

FLETCHER IS NAMED CHAIRMAN OF S. O. P. AT CHICAGO MEETING

Chicago, June 3.—The Republican national committee today declared a new platform of "careful reform" for the nation, dispatched thanks to President Hoover for championing "American governmental ideals" and selected Harry P. Fletcher, of Pennsylvania, former ambassador to Italy, for the party chairman.

Fletcher's election, after 48 hours of controversy, was seconded by one of his strongest rivals for the post, Walter S. Hallanan, of West Virginia, the choice of a block of western and midwestern committeemen, with support from eastern leaders including, Henry Roraback of Connecticut and Charles D. Hillis of New York.

The new platform, issued as the basis on which the party will ask for votes in the fall congressional races, declared for a "liberal and progressive spirit" and made the party stand for social legislation to end pressing economic problems.

Fletcher and John D. M. Hamilton, committeeman from Kansas, were the only two names in nomination as Ralph E. Williams, of Oregon, vice chairman of the party, began calling the roll by states. The sessions were still closed.

Text Mrs. L. B. Dula's Address To Woman's Club

This being my last time in the chair as president of the Wilkesboro Woman's Club, I wish to thank each one of you for your splendid cooperation during the two years that I have served. It has been such a pleasure to work with you, and to meet you socially as well.

My only regret is that I have not had more time to give to it. Our club is really just a young plant as yet, and so we must not be discouraged if our growth seems slow, for we know that its roots are reaching down deeper in the soil, insuring better fruitage in the years to come.

It seems that women are just awakening to their power, and to the great opportunities that are to be had from federated clubs. Our state president, Mrs. Latham says that "a club that does not keep abreast of the times deserves to die."

It is a significant fact that in spite of the depression, or perhaps because of it, 14 new clubs were federated in North Carolina alone last year.

We are banded together from "Murphy to Manteo" and nationally from coast to coast.

We are bringing about many needed reforms in legislation, effecting the welfare of women and children.

With such leaders as Eleanor Roosevelt, Frances Perkins and Margaret Samger, we have only to follow, and it is a fine thing to know that we are a part of this great movement for good that is sweeping our country—a wonderful reformation may be the result if we give it our best.

Our constructive criticism is helping to create a demand for better pictures, and we have at last convinced the producers that good pictures such as "David Harum" and "Little Women" are better drawing cards than bad sex pictures.

Coming back to our own home town, we are becoming more civic conscious and our garden and home planting has made a fine showing.

Our club has no angles but is well rounded out, for as our collect says, we have taken time for all things and as we gather around our family club table let us be thankful for club federation, and pledge ourselves anew to its noble aspirations.

Home Chair Team Beats Stony Point

Home Chair Company baseball team made its sixth victory to one defeat by winning over Stony Point in a game here yesterday afternoon.

Mullis went the whole route for the locals, allowing eight hits and five runs while the visitors used Jolly and Hoover in an effort to stem the tide of the home team's sluggers. Home Chair Company touched the two pitchers for 12 safeties and nine runs.

The home team played a good brand of baseball, only 2 errors being chalked up against their work on the field while Stony Point was charged with five errors.

W. L. McGahey, Beaufort county agent, reports that tobacco farmers in his territory are not very enthusiastic about increasing their production to 10 per cent allowed on their contracts. They had much rather have the full amount of the benefit payments, he explained.

Two Women Die In Flames In Winston-Salem

Winston-Salem, June 6.—Two young business women died here early today when flames badly damaged their rooming house but four other occupants escaped.

The women, Miss Ethel Messengill, 23, formerly of Raleigh, and Miss Audrey Ellen Angel, 28, native of North Sydney, Nova Scotia, were trapped in their second-story rooms and suffocated.

The position of their bodies gave evidence that both had made attempts to escape but had been blocked by rapidly-spreading flames.

The home belonged to Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Carter, who escaped from their downstairs rooms. H. C. Moore, who discovered the fire when curtains on his windows caught, gave the alarm and, breaking a window in his second-story room, went to a room occupied by Miss Mary Carter Nooe and rushed her over the roof to safety.

The scrub fire has been the south's heaviest handicap in the race towards better live stock.

THANKS VOTERS

Will The Journal-Patriot allow me to make the following explanatory statements?

I did not make a strenuous fight in the campaign for Register of Deeds. There are seventeen townships in the county which I did not visit. I did not spend a dime except for actual expenses.

There are two Republican factions in the county, each of these had a candidate for Register of Deeds for whom they "fit, bled and died." I did not have a single outstanding Republican leader in the county on my side.

Quite a number of voters in Wilkes are unable to read. These required a marker. Quite a number, also, are nervous and timid. These permitted their tickets to be marked. Many of this number believe they voted for me, but did not.

And finally, the main reason for my ignominious defeat is due to two facts: first, too many people voted against me and, secondly, not enough people voted for me. At least I have a strong suspicion that these are the leading causes.

May I also express, in some feeble way, my thanks to those who supported me and who I also state that there ought to be some way by which we could have an orderly, decent primary in which any self-respecting man or woman might vote unmolested and unafraid.

Someone stated that all voters in the Wilkesboro primary ought to be thankful for the very benevolent and considerate way in which they were allowed to enter the booths headforemost.

Very sincerely,
W. E. LINNEY.

Price Reduction Of Plymouths Announced

Reduction of as much as $45 on some of the standard models of Plymouth automobiles was announced here today by Wilkes Auto Sales, Inc., local dealer of Plymouth and Dodge cars and trucks.

Factory prices on all models have been substantially reduced, although the greatest reduction of $45 was made in the price of the standard business coupe.

Mr. Carl Crews, a former resident of this city who has been very ill at the Hugh Chatham Memorial Hospital in Elkin during the past two weeks, is somewhat improved, many friends here will be glad to learn.

Letter of 31st-Wash. Washington, June 4.—President Roosevelt studied the drought situation today and then summoned congressional delegations from the affected states to meet with him at the White House tomorrow to discuss a tentative program involving the expenditure of more than a half billion dollars for relief and rehabilitation.

Afterwards, Harry L. Hopkins, federal relief administrator, announced an additional $2,200,000 had been made available for work relief in the west and mid-west.

Hopkins said 50,000 men were on work relief now and 150,000 would be employed before the end of the week.

North Wilkesboro has a New Enterprise. The Goodwill Store has recently erected a Special Apartment in their basement for the curing and ripening of bananas. The experiment started about 60 days ago in a small way. Now it's a show to see. The room is full of green and golden bananas which come from the tropical countries. Mr. Joe Pearson says the flavor is better and more appetizing. You are invited to visit the Banana Room.—The Goodwill Store.
