Five Ministers In One Family

It has been remarked that it is unusual for a minister's son to follow in the footsteps of his father as a preacher but it is not so in the family of the late Rev. Callie Blevins, of Walnut Grove township.

Four sons of the deceased minister are Baptist preachers. They are Revs. Landreth Blevins, Andrew Blevins, Troy Blevins and Avery Blevins, all of whom are well known ministers in Wilkes county.

And there is a member of the third generation of Blevins ministers. Rev. Thamon Blevins, a son of Rev. Andrew

FEDERAL AGENTS TAKE DILLINGER COMPANION

Minneapolis, June 27.—The law captured a pawn in the John Dillinger game today but again failed, for the nonce, to checkmate the king—the arch felon who broke out of jail with a toy pistol at Crown Point, Ind.

Weary from ceaseless flight from the law, Albert (Pat) Reilly diminutive former baseball club mascot, blinked his eyes in an apartment today to find his bed surrounded by federal de-

It was the end of the trail for Reilly, wanted on charges of harboring the outlaw fugitive in the Twin Cities more than two months ago; a trail that led through devious channels to Winona, Minn., a physician's home here in the night, and wary goings and comings to Little Bohemia, lake resort near Mercer, Wis.

Heat Kills Four

Nature's big guns laid down a withering heat barrage over most of the nation Thursday, and took a toll of at least four deaths. As the blistering sun renewed the drought, cattle sucsumbed, pastures burned and crops withered.

Federal forecasters said the area raked by excessive temperatures included most of the country east of the Rocky mountains with the exception of the northern tier of Great Plains states and the north Atlantic
