N. W. School Faculty Fed at Buffet Supper

A social event of the week of much importance was the delightful buffet supper given Friday evening by Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Finley and their daughter, Miss Julia Finley, when they entertained the members of the North Wilkesboro school faculty and a number of their friends at their home on E Street. The home throughout was beautifully decorated in bright autumn colors with a profusion of flowers and candles.

The supper was served at seven o'clock and assisting the hosts were Mrs. Joe McCoy. Following the supper the forty guests attending were entertained with a number of different games.

Mrs. L. Vyne Is Hostess To Her Book Club

Mrs. Leonard Vyne was charming hostess to the members of the Friday Book club, of which she is a member, and one additional guest, Mrs. Albert Love, at her home on C Street Friday afternoon. Gorgeous roses and dahlias were artistically arranged in the home forming a festive background for the guests. In the absence of the president, Mrs. C. E. Jenkins, Mrs. W. P. Horton presided while Miss Lizzie Hisle called the roll, members responding with interesting current events. At the close of the afternoon the hostess, assisted by her daughter, Miss Louise Vyne, served a delicious salad and sweet course.

Mrs. Frank Allen Is Hostess To Bridge Club

Mrs. Frank Allen entertained the members of her bridge club and a trio of additional guests at her home on D Street Thursday evening. Three tables were made up for bridge in a festive hall-we're setting with the tally cards and decorations carrying out the idea. In serving refreshments at close of play, which furthered the accepted motif, the hostess was assisted by Mrs. James Allen.

In the bridge competition Mrs. James Somers won the high score prize while the low score award went to Miss Belva Kilby and Miss Hallie Waugh held the prize for honors. Mrs. Watson Brame, a recent bride, who prior to her marriage was Miss Lina Forester, of this city, was remembered with a gift. Visitors of the club were Mrs. Brame, Mrs. E. A. Shook and Miss Louise Vyne.

J. U. G. Club Entertained By Miss Rose Wade Scroggs

The J. U. G. Club, composed of a number of the North Wilkesboro high school girls, was delightfully entertained on Thursday evening by Miss Rose Wade Scroggs at her home on Sixth Street. A short business session was held with the president, Miss Elizabeth Jennings, presiding, after which numerous games were enjoyed. Miss Marcella Pendley gave a vocal selection. The twelve members present were served fruits, cakes and candies by the hostess.

Literature Department In Fine Meeting Thursday

The October meeting of the literature department of the North Wilkesboro Woman's club held a meeting of much interest on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. F. C. Forester. Joining as hostesses with Mrs. Forester were Mrs. C. E. Jenkins, and Mrs. George Forester and at the close of the afternoon they served a salad course and a cake to the large number of members attending.

Mrs. W. D. Halfacre presided for the business part of the meeting. The program was given by Miss Rebecca Moseley and Miss Mabel Topping. Miss Moseley gave a review of Anthony Adverse and a sketch of Harvey Allen's life, while Miss Topping presented current events.

Hinshaw Bible Class Entertained Tuesday

October meeting of the Woman's Bible class of Hinshaw Baptist church met on Tuesday evening, 7:30, at the home of Mrs. Moody Wiles with a good attendance of members and three visitors. Rev. and Mrs. H. A. Bullis, and Mrs. Billings. After the business session refreshments were served by the hostess. The November meeting will be with Mrs. L. G. Kelly.

Mrs. Worth Morrison Entertained At Bridge

Mrs. Worth Morrison entertained at bridge at her home in Wilkesboro Thursday afternoon having as guests members of her bridge club and a number of visitors from North Wilkesboro. Those attending from North Wilkesboro were Mesdames Bill Absher, Frank Eller, Frank Blair, Jr., James Allen and Miss Marjorie Deans. Miss Lucille Hart was a guest of the club from Wilkesboro and assisted Mrs. Morrison in serving a salad course at conclusion of play. The count of tallies showed Mrs. Absher and Mrs. Eller to be the holder of the same number of points and in cutting for prize, Mrs. Eller was the winner.

Orpheus Music Club In Meeting Wednesday

The first meeting for the club year of the Orpheus music club in Wilkesboro was held on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Miss Marjorie Blevins. The club is composed of members of Miss Ursula Blevins' music class. At a previous business meeting the

Miss Ola Church, N. S. Forester, Jr., Are Wed In Elkin

Elkin, Oct. 20.—Characterized by beauty and stately dignity and of widespread interest, was the wedding this afternoon at 4 o'clock in a private ceremony in the Methodist Episcopal church, of Miss Ola Church, of this city, to Numa Seaborne Forester, Jr., of North Wilkesboro.

Prior to the ceremony, spoken by the bride's pastor, the Rev. E. W. Fox, a lovely musical program was rendered. Lohengrin's Bridal Chorus was played as a processional and Mendelssohn's Wedding March as the recessional.

The bride entered with her father, Robert L. Church, who gave her in marriage. Her only attendant was her sister, Mrs. Paul Price, who wore a suit of rust cloth with fox trimmings and corsage of Talisman roses.

The bridegroom was attended by Floyd C. Forester, of North Wilkesboro. During the impressive ring ceremony, Miss Neaves played "To a Wild Rose" (McDowell). Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Forester left by motor for a honeymoon trip to the Century of Progress Exposition and to points in Canada. Upon their return, they will be at home in their newly-furnished home in North Wilkesboro.

The bride is the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Church, of Elkin, and is one of the most attractive members of her society set. The bridegroom is a son of Mrs. Addie Forester and the late Numa S. Forester and has extensive business interests in North Wilkesboro.

Among those attending the wedding was a large number of Mr. Forester's friends from North Wilkesboro.

Large Crowd Is Delighted With Thrills Furnished By Legion Game

Local post of the American Legion, sponsors of the donkey baseball game played here Friday afternoon, lost not one cent on the guarantee to make everybody attending laugh.

If by chance there should have been one who did not care to laugh at the game, he could laugh at the many who were doubled up in mirth. Anyway, everybody had a good time and the game went off with a 6 to 2 victory for somebody.

The players rode donkeys all the time, that is they rode donkeys when it was agreeable with the donkeys for them to ride. Some of the would-be home-runs turned out to be putouts at first base when the donkeys on which the batters would ride would have other notions than going to first right quick.

Recounting any of the funny experiences would be unfair to the many that could not be mentioned. In the final inning the "dynamite mules" were taken out for the batters to right and action started in a hurry. One rider finally managed to hold on to one's back but it was a squeeze play at that.

ROY HENRY DIES AT HOME IN TARBORO

Roy Henry, aged 33, died suddenly at his home in Tarboro, N. C., Saturday night, according to news reaching relatives here. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Henry, of that city, and in addition to his parents, the deceased is survived by his widow and small son. Mr. J. C. Henry, of this city, is an uncle. The funeral and burial services, it is thought, were held today, and Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Vyne and daughter, Louise, attended them.

boro College alumnae association of Wilkes county, held a meeting Friday evening at the home of the president, Mrs. C. S. Sink. Since this was the first meeting of the club after a summer's recess a number of matters came up for discussion with Mrs. Sink in the chair. A large number of the members were present and at the close of the evening the hostess served an ice course. An abundance of dahlias made lovely decorations for the home.

RUNYON STORY SHOWS LEE TRACY AND BABY LEROY IN LEADS

"THE LEMON DROP KID"

Lee Tracy and Baby Leroy's proud and indulgent parent in Damon Runyon's famous new novel "The Lemon Drop Kid" which comes to the Liberty Theatre, Monday and Tuesday.

Damon Runyon will be remembered for his great story of "Lady For A Day" and "Little Miss Marker" which Runyon has so much of in his new picture "The Lemon Drop Kid". Such well known supporting names as Helen Mack, Minna Gombell, William Frawley and Henry Walthall are included in the cast which was directed by Marshall Neilam.

In addition a Thelma Todd and Patsy Kelly comedy "Three Chumps Ahead" and a Paramount Sound News will round out the film program of the days.

Another popular Dishware night is included in conjunction with this splendid program which has been so well received by the ladies the last few days. Men may receive the Dishware by asking for one of the courtesy cards that are free.

Marriages On Slump

Since the last issue of The Journal-Patriot only one marriage license was issued from the office of Register of Deeds T. H. Settle, that being to Presley Brown, of Reddies River and Goldie Royal, of North Wilkesboro.

Locals Drop One To Elkin Outfit

Football Team of Neighboring Town Beat Mountain Lions 12 to 7

Mountain Lions of the North Wilkesboro high school played an uphill game Friday afternoon against Elkin but lost by a 12 to 7 score.

The Lions got off to a good start and scored in the first quarter on a pass from Hubbard to Gentry and extra point. Elkin scored in the second and third periods in a series of line plays.

One of the highlights of the game was a 50-yard pass from Hubbard to Ervin. The teams were evenly matched and played the game almost equally in yardage gained.

Howard, Cothren and Hall were outstanding for the winners while Hubbard, McNeill, Gentry and Ervin played an excellent game for North Wilkesboro.

The next game for North Wilkesboro will be on the local field, Friday afternoon with North Carolina School for the Deaf, Morganton, furnishing the opposition. This will be a western conference game.

Feels a Lot Better When Black-Draught Relieves Constipation

From many states come reports like the following from Mr. W. M. Henderson, of Jasper, Fla.: "I have been taking Theodor's Black-Draught twenty years. I take it for constipation that gives me a dull, tired, aching feeling, and I have headache, too. Black-Draught relieves me of this trouble. After a few doses, I feel as good as new. I keep it in my home. I have a big family. When one of us is ailing (from constipation), we take Black-Draught and almost always feel a lot better. It has been worth its weight in gold to my family." ... Sold in 25¢ packages. "Children like the Syrup."
