Sheriff Sent To Jail For Contempt Of Court

Fort Payne, Ala., Nov. 13.—Circuit Judge A. E. Hawkins ordered Sheriff W. S. Pope to jail for an indefinite sentence late today for alleged contempt of court in a local political wrangle.

Sheriff Pope, a Republican, had ignored a court order issued by Judge Hawkins, a Democrat, designed to restrain the county election board from declaring Republican candidates in last Tuesday's election winners until all ballots had been counted.

Democrats contended that tabulation of 213 absentee ballots, thrown out by Republican election officials because they were not mailed to the polls, would assure election of their candidates to county offices.

"Outcast Lady" which comes to the Liberty Theatre, Thursday and Friday presents a great pair of lovers in one of the strongest emotional dramas ever written for the stage and screen. Constance Bennett and Herbert Marshall made an unforgettable pair in the picture version of Michael Arlen's story. The program is not of interest to children, according to the statement of the manager, Mr. Harold Kay.

A well rounded program of shorts has also been careful consideration in conjunction with the showing of "Outcast Lady."

CAROLINA ROUTE IS SELECTED FOR SCENIC PARKWAY

gorge, Grandfather Mountain, Mount Mitchell, Craggys and the Asheville section. The parkway will then run into the Mount Pisgah range, the Balsam section and connect with the Newfound Gap highway near Cherokee.

Working On Surveys
As soon as location surveys of the parkway are completed by the National Park service the United States bureau of public roads the North Carolina and Virginia highway departments, all working jointly, the next step will be the procurement of right-of-ways. This will be the responsibility of Virginia and North Carolina, as under the agreement they are to provide the land for the parkway, except of course, where it traverses property already owned by the federal government.

Both North Carolina and Virginia have assured Secretary Ickes that there will be no trouble in securing the right-of-way. Ickes is insisting on 1,000 feet right of way wherever possible. He also made other general plans regarding the parkway. There will be restricted frontal right of way along the parkway with no refreshment stands, filling stations, etc. except certain turnoffs. The motorists can go along at ease and enjoy the scenery without having to worry about the coming to cross roads and other hazards found on a regular highway. Ickes has ordered that numerous parking places be provided along the parkway where the traveler may leave his car and get out for a better view of especially interesting features. In places trails will be built to some of the most important scenic attractions along the route. Ample camping grounds will be provided for travelers who prefer to "tent out" instead of locating some of the cross roads to cities for hotel accommodations.

Aside from the long range economic advantage which will come to North Carolina by reason of the heavy tourist trade which will be attracted to the state, North Carolinians will benefit from the millions of dollars which will be expended in building the roads.

Across the plain oak desk of his office atop the American Federation of Labor building, William Green made this clear today.

The stocky, sandy-haired president of labor's biggest organization expects President Roosevelt's social security program to produce in the way of unemployment insurance:

Appreciation

To My Friends:

I feel as though I would be grossly ungrateful to my friends, both Republicans and Democrats, if I did not in some way express my appreciation for the splendid vote I received in the November 6th election. Therefore, may I publicly express my thanks to all my loyal friends in this manner, as it would be impossible for me to see each of you personally.

I wish to state that after I assume office on the first Monday in December, I will do my best to serve the people of Wilkes county in a fair, courteous and prompt manner.

Again, I Thank You, One and All

Charles C. Hayes

Thank You

TO MY FRIENDS, BOTH REPUBLICANS AND DEMOCRATS:

It is impossible for me to see each one of my friends personally in Wilkes county, both Republicans and Democrats, who supported me in the election held on November 6th, therefore, I wish to take this means of thanking you—one and all.

I deeply appreciate the many words of encouragement spoken to me during the campaign by my friends, and the support I received at the ballot box. Although many erroneous reports were circulated about me during the last days of the campaign, I am gratified to know that my loyal friends looked upon them as only "campaign propaganda," and viewed them in their true light.

Just as I have done in the past, I again pledge myself and my deputies to render to the people of Wilkes county the very best service possible, and to be ready to respond to any call promptly. My record as sheriff of this county is an open book, and I have always tried to do my duty as sheriff to the very best of my ability.

In closing, again let me tell all of you who gave me your vote of confidence that I appreciate your action to the highest degree.
