Even Prisoners Have Something to Be thankful For

The consensus of opinion would have it that a man behind prison bars would have nothing for which to feel thankful today but such is not the case with the men and women in jail at Wilkesboro.

Today the prisoners will know it is Thanksgiving for they are to be served a chicken dinner by Sheriff W. B. Somers and Jailor J. B. Sheets.

Official Vote State Officers

Protests Filed to State Board By Alexander and Watauga Counties

Yesterday the state board of elections met in Raleigh, canvassed the returns of the election on November 6, declared all Democratic state candidates elected and heard protests from Alexander and Watauga counties.

In Alexander county a party known as independents protested the election of the Democratic county ticket on the grounds that many fraudulent absentees were cast. In Watauga county the Republicans, apparent losers by around 200 or 300 votes, protested the county and asked for access to the poll books in order to make more definite charges.

The official vote in each contest with the successful Democratic candidate named first except in the 24th and 30th senatorial districts is given below:

Mother Of Mrs. A. G. Hendren Died Last Week

Mrs. Laura Smith, aged 73 years, mother of Mrs. A. G. Hendren, of Gilreath postoffice, died at the home of her son, Mr. Ed Smith, near Marlon, on Tuesday, November 20th, following a brief illness.

For a year and up until two weeks ago Mrs. Smith had made her home with Mr. and Mrs. Hendren, and before going to McDowell county apparently was in good health.

Mrs. Smith was the widow of W. A. Smith, who passed away a number of years ago. She was the mother of four children, three of whom survive as follows: Mrs. A. G. Hendren, Gilgeath, Mrs. C. F. Spencer, Marlon, and Mr. Ed Smith, of near Marlon.

Mrs. Smith was, for many years, a member of the Methodist church, and possessed a fine, Christian character.

The funeral service was held on Wednesday of last week at Patterson. Among those attending from this county were Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Hendren, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Hendren, Mrs. Ivey Moore, Miss Mabel Hendren, and Mr. Bradford Hendren.

Caudill-Douglas

Mrs. Queenie Caudill, of this city, and Mr. Henry Douglas, of Charlotte, were married on November 10. Both the bride and groom are well known here and have many friends who wish them every happiness.

One of the most stirring epic adventures in the history of the conquest of the West came to the Liberty Theatre today and Friday, in the thrilling filmization of Zane Grey's "Wagon Wheels", featuring Randolph Scott, Gail Patrick, Monte Blue and Haymond Hatton.

Husband Kills Bride And Priest

J. L. Steinmetz Shoots Pair To Death In Hotel Room; Tells Police Story

New York, Nov. 26.—A man identified as a New Jersey priest and a honeymooning bride from Hollywood were shot to death today in the Cleric's hotel room by the woman's husband, a former Bible school student.

All had been drinking heavily, Assistant District Attorney Saul Price said.

The slain man, Price said, was the Rev. Joseph J. Leonard, a Catholic priest at the Morris Hall Home for the Aged at Lawrenceville, N. J.

The bride was the former Ruth Hiles, 17. She had sought a career in the movies under the name of Ruth Mary Armstrong.

Her husband, Joseph L. Steinmetz, 22, was found beside the bodies, collapsed. Price said he orally admitted the slaying. He will be arraigned tomorrow on a charge of homicide.

The district attorney's aide said Steinmetz told him: "The priest asked my wife

Federal Agent Is Shot To Death

Herman E. Hollis Falls Under Fire From Baby Face Nelson, Dillinger Outlaw

Chicago, Nov. 27.—The machine gun of George (Baby Face) Nelson, Dillinger desperado and public enemy No. 1, late today took the life of another federal agent.

A squad of agents from the command of Melvin H. Purvis, head of the Chicago division of the bureau of investigation, sought to trap Nelson, another man and their woman companion near suburban Barrington.

Gangster guns blazed and Agent Herman E. Hollis, about 30, was killed. Samuel P. Cowley, 26, chief assistant to Purvis, dropped, critically wounded with bullets in his abdomen.

Announcement!

We wish to take this means to inform our friends in Wilkes and adjoining counties that we are again entering the wholesale and retail grocery and feed business in North Wilkesboro, and that we will be ready for business on

Saturday, Dec. 1st

In the Phillips Building On Tenth Street

with a complete stock of

Groceries -- Flour -- Feeds

Golden Harvest

Fertilizers

Everything in the store is new and fresh, and our customers will find our stocks most complete. We will sell both at wholesale and retail prices. Merchants will do well to get our prices before buying elsewhere as we are operating on a very low margin of profit, doing our best to keep overhead expenses down in order that we may sell you at the closest price. Come to see us—look our stock over—you will receive a warm welcome—and save money.
