Mr. Charlie Finley Host At Dinner Party

Mr. Charlie Finley was host at a dinner party at his home on Huntington Drive Thanksgiving Day honoring the men connected with the North Wilkesboro Post Office. A five course dinner was served at 6:30 o'clock with covers laid for fourteen. Place cards and other decorations carried out the Thanksgiving idea.

Mr. Richard Johnston Is Host At Bridge Friday

Mr. Richard Johnston was host at bridge at his home on B Street Friday evening to honor Mr. Bob DuFour, of New York and Chapel Hill. Mr. Johnston and Mr. DuFour are schoolmates at the University of Carolina and they spent the Thanksgiving holidays here with Mr. Johnston's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Johnston.

Three tables were made up for the game and at the close of play the hosts, Mrs. Johnston, and Mrs. Ralph Duncan, served a tempting salad course.

Miss Helen Winkler Is Hostess To Friendly Circle

The members of the Friendly Circle met at the home of Miss Helen Winkler on Tuesday evening for their monthly meeting. In charge of the business session was the new president, Mrs. Walter Emerson, the regular routine of business being transacted. The program for the evening was given by Miss Eleanor Smoak and Miss Helen Call. A large number of the members were in attendance and during the social hour that followed the meeting tempting refreshments were served.

St. Cecilia Juveniles With Nell Hubbard

Wednesday afternoon the St. Cecilia Juveniles were delightfully entertained by Nell Hubbard at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Julius C. Hubbard. The president, Mary Louise Clements, directed the program, in which the Thanksgiving theme predominated. The opening number "Father, We Thank Thee" was sung by the entire club. Nell Hubbard gave a reading "Give Thanks," and Peggy Church sang "Thanksgiving Song." Piano solos or duets were played by Flake Steelman, Don Story, Emily McCoy, Wanda Johnson, Edna Garwood, Jane Perry, Barbara Ogilvie, Mary Gage Barber, Nellie Gabriel, Mary Parker Kelly and Virginia McDuffie. Mrs. Prevette told the story of the life of Mozart. The "Club Song" by all the members closed the interesting program. During the social hour Mrs. Hubbard and Nell served delicious refreshments to the twenty girls and boys. Only club members were present.

Miss Julia Finley Entertained For Her Guest

To fete her houseguest, Miss Bess Meade Friend, of Petersburg, Va., Miss Julia Finley entertained at two delightful affairs during the Thanksgiving holidays. Miss Friend, a classmate of Miss Finley's at Agnes Scott College, was with Miss Finley from Wednesday until Saturday.

On Friday afternoon Miss Finley was hostess at an informal tea at her home on E Street to honor Miss Friend and during the hours from 4:30 to 6 o'clock around twenty-five guests called to meet the honoree. Throughout the home, the decorations were suggestive of the approaching Christmas season. The tea table had for its centerpiece a bowl of red mandarin berries surrounded by red candles.

A luncheon was given for Miss Friend on Saturday and the guests at this time included a number of Agnes Scott girls from nearby cities. A four course luncheon was served at 12:30 with covers laid for the following guests: Misses Lila Norfleet, Dianna Dyers, and Anne Brown Nash, all of Winston-Salem; Charlie Alexander, of Lincoln; Peggy Link, of Lenoir, and Martha Lagoon, of Japan, and Miss Friend. Miss Lagoon was visiting Miss Link. The dining table was prettily appointed in a color scheme of pink and white.

Doughton Attacker Pays Fine To Court

J. S. Blalock Also Placed Under 30-Day Suspended Sentence; Pays $50 and Costs

Albemarle, Nov. 23.—In Superior court here today J. S. (Ceph) Blalock, convicted of an assault upon Representative R. L. Doughton several weeks ago, was required to pay a fine of $50 and costs, and was placed under a 30-day suspended road sentence, effective at anytime within the next eight years should Blalock be convicted of a similar affray.

In pronouncing sentence, Judge J. H. Clement reversed the decision of the county court, Judge T. B. Mauney having sentenced Blalock to 30 days on the roads two weeks ago.

Blalock's case came up Tuesday morning and following his conviction, Judge Clement remanded the defendant to jail, where he remained until the close of court Thursday at noon.
