Legion Auxiliary Met Monday Evening

The December meeting of the Legion Auxiliary was held on Monday evening at the home of Mrs. A. H. Casey with Mrs. John Hall and Mrs. Ed Dancy joining as hostesses. The meeting was well attended and at the close of evening sandwiches and cakes with hot chocolate were served. Miss Toby Turner, the president, presided for routine business at which time a number of important items were discussed, especially in making plans for their Christmas work. Five ex-members at Oteen will be remembered with a dollar each as well as some other remembrances from the unit. Christmas boxes will be given to a number of families of ex-service men.

The district meeting held at Forsythville last month was attended by a number of ladies from the local unit and at the meeting Monday evening Mrs. T. A. Finley gave a fine report of the meeting. Program chairman for the evening was Mrs. J. B. McCoy, and she presented Mrs. W. R. Absher, who spoke in an interesting manner on Child Welfare and Rehabilitation.

Worker's Council Met With Rev. and Mrs. King

Rev. and Mrs. H. K. King were hosts to the members of the Workers Council of the North Wilkesboro Methodist Sunday school at their home on Tuesday evening and had in attendance twelve members. The meeting opened with Rev. King leading in prayer after which Dr. A. S. Cassel, superintendent of the Sunday school, took charge of the business session. Most of the time was spent in discussing plans for the Christmas offering to be made Sunday morning, December 23. During the evening Mrs. King served hot chocolate and cakes.

Mrs. J. D. Moore, Sr., Is Hostess to Circle Members

Mrs. J. D. Moore, Sr., entertained the members of Circle No. 1 of the local Methodist church in their December meeting at her home on D Street Tuesday afternoon. Seventeen members were present and at the close of the afternoon Mrs. Moore served delicious refreshments during an enjoyable social hour. The chairman, Mrs. J. C. Smoot, was in charge of the business period and the devotionals were led by Mrs. R. E. Faw.

A happy occasion for the afternoon was when the members presented Mrs. Minnie Hunt with a life membership certificate to the Auxiliary. The honor, which came to Mrs. Hunt as a complete surprise, was given to her by members as an appreciation for her faithfulness and loyalty to the Circle as well as in all church work.

The meeting Tuesday afternoon closed a most successful year's work under the leadership of Mrs. Smoot, also her last meeting as chairman of the circle, which was with much regret by the members. Mrs. Murphy Hunt has been chosen as the new leader.

St. Cecilia Music Club Met Thursday Evening

The St. Cecilia Music Club

was delightfully entertained Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Hulcher, with Misses Ruth and Anna Laura Hulcher and Iva Faw as joint hostesses.

The President, Tom Story, directed the interesting program. Piano or voice selections were given by M. G. Edwards, Anna Laura Hulcher, David Wright, Josie Pearson, Iva Faw, Bonnie Bumgarner, Thomas Inscore, Violet Erickson and Howard Pharr. The lives of Haydn, Mozart, and Beethoven, the three great symphony writers, were sketched and selections by these composers given. George Ogilvie told the story of Beethoven's only opera "Fidelio." Ruth Hulcher read a paper on James Francis Cooke, eminent American composer. A vocal solo by Mr. Zeb Dickson of the high school faculty closed the program.

Delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. Hulcher and the hostesses. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Dickson, Mrs. De Berry and Mrs. Pearson. The next meeting will be held with Tom and Don Story.

First Baptist Missionary Society Met Tuesday Night

Around thirty members were present for the December meeting of the First Baptist Missionary Society which was held on Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. C. E. Jenkins. The president, Mrs. A. C. Dennis, presided over the regular routine of business being transacted.

"Back To Bethlehem," was the theme for program and was given by members of the Business Woman's Circle under the leadership of Mrs. W. K. Sturdivant. Those assisting Mrs. Sturdivant were Miss Manie Brewer, Mrs. Bernard Williams, Mrs. Gilbert Foster and Miss Lunda Hendren. A special feature of the program was the vocal solo, "Living for Jesus," rendered by Mrs. Eugene Olive. Mrs. W. A. Bullis led the devotional period.

Mrs. Tip McNeil Is Hostess To Y. W. A.

Members of the Y. W. A. of the First Baptist church met at the home of Mrs. Tip McNeil on Monday evening for their monthly meeting with the president, Miss Annie Jo Haigwood, in the chair. The main item of business was the election of new officers which are as follows, President, Miss Elsie Nichols; vice president, Miss Dovie Pardue; secretary and treasurer, Miss Arlee Bumgarner; group leaders, Misses Shirley Foster and Annie Jo Haigwood.

The program for the evening was presented by members of Miss Virginia Bullis's group. At the close of the evening the ten members attending were served tea, sandwiches and cookies by Mrs. McNeil.

Episcopal Auxiliary Met With Mrs. W. W. Barber Sr.

With Mrs. W. W. Barber, Sr., as hostess at her home in Wilkesboro a splendid meeting of the St. Paul's Episcopal Auxiliary was held on Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. H. H. Morehouse, the president, occupied the chair for the business part of the meeting, the regular routine of business being transacted and plans made for Christmas. During the pleasant social hour that followed the meeting the hostess had the assistance of Mrs. William Barber in serving tea and sandwiches.

Ladies Bible Class In Meeting Tuesday Night

Mrs. Murphy Hunt, Mrs. W. G. Gabriel and Mrs. F. B. Hethcock combined hospitality to the members of the young Ladies Wesley Bible class of the North Wilkesboro Methodist church at the home of Mrs. Hethcock on C Street Tuesday evening. The meeting opened with Mrs. Walter Newton leading the devotional, and Mrs. J. M. Crawford, president, presided for the business period.

The program for the evening which was on "Joy" was led by Mrs. W. E. Jones. Tempting refreshments were served during the social hour by the hostesses. Twelve members were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Tomlinson Hostess At Dinner Bridge

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tomlinson were hosts at a Christmas dinner bridge at their home on Memorial Avenue Tuesday evening entertaining a number of their friends. A three course dinner was served at seven o'clock with covers laid for sixteen guests. Suggestions of Christmas were present in the appointments. The guests found their positions at the main table and a few smaller ones by means of attractive place cards carrying out the accepted motif. Centerpiece for the dining table was a bowl of Christmas greenery surrounded by red candles.

Following the dinner bridge was enjoyed for sometime and as a result of the game Attorney and Mrs. A. H. Casey received a hand painted tray for holding highest scores.

Social Calendar

The December meeting of the North Wilkesboro Woman's club will be held on Monday afternoon at four o'clock at the home of Mrs. Hoyle Hutchens with Mrs. W. E. Jones, and Mrs. Walter Newton as associate hostesses. A full attendance of the members is desired.

Current Topic Club Met With Mrs. Caldwell

A delightful club party of the week was the one given by Mrs. L. G. Caldwell at her home on Kensington Drive Wednesday afternoon when she entertained the members of the Current Topic Club, of which she is a member, and included in her guest list a few other friends. In the absence of the president, Mrs. W. J. Allen, the secretary, Mrs. A. B. Johnston, presided and called the roll during which time the members responded with their ready news items.

At the close of the business session bridge and rook were enjoyed at three tables and as a result of the games Miss Anne Duncan was awarded an attractive prize in bridge and Mrs. Ralph Duncan a rook for holding highest scores. When cards were laid aside the hostess was assisted by Mrs. L. H. Hill in serving a salad and sweet course. Mrs. J. D. Shafer was announced as the next hostess.

Miss Ruth Brame Is Bridge Club Hostess

Miss Ruth Brame was hostess to the members of her bridge club and a limited number of other friends at the home of Mrs. Henry Moore on Thursday afternoon. In the bridge competition Mrs. Henry Moore won the top score award for the club members while the visitors award went to Miss Marjorie Deans.

Lovely remembrances were presented to three brides of the late summer and fall, Mrs. Watson Brame, the former Miss Lina Forester, of this city; Mrs. N. S. Forester, Jr., Miss Ola Church, of Elkin; and Mrs. F. D. Forester, Jr., Miss Lorene Caudill, of this city.

After the removal of cards the hostess had the assistance of Mrs. Henry Moore in serving a salad course followed by sweets.

Friday Bridge Club Met With Mrs. Carlton

The members of the Friday afternoon bridge club were delightfully entertained on Friday afternoon by Mrs. Hill Carlton at her home on Sixth Street. Bridge was played at two tables after which Mrs. Carlton served a salad course.

Junior Girls Auxiliary Held Meetings Last Week

Both groups of the Junior Girls Auxiliary, of the First Baptist church, held enthusiastic meetings for the month of December on Wednesday, each meeting presenting fine Christmas programs and making plans for Christmas work.

The White group was entertained by Mary Parker Kelly with an attendance of twelve members. In the absence of the group president, the leader, Miss Lunda Hendren, presided for the business session, at which time plans were made for a Christmas party and small stockings were distributed for the children to place their offering in for the Yuletide season. Agnes Elledge was in charge of the program with several of the girls taking part. To close the afternoon the hostess aided by her mother, Mrs. W. P. Kelly, served delightful refreshments. Mrs. Bernard Williams, leader of the green group, was hostess to the members at her home and had in attendance thirteen members. The program was in charge of Mary Lois Fraiser. Mrs. J. I. Myers was a visitor of the group. Delightful refreshments were served at close of meeting.

Wellborn-Triplett

Deep Gap, Dec. 10.—Of interest to many friends here and throughout the state is the marriage of Miss Mabel Violet Triplett and Mr. Russell D. Wellborn, of this place, which was solemnized in a ceremony characterized by dignity and simplicity at the home of the bride, on Saturday evening, Dec. 8, at 4:30 o'clock, with Rev. Roy Payne, of Boone, officiating. The bride was attractively attired in Navy blue with all accessories matching. Mrs. Wellborn is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. O. Triplett, and received her education at Boone high school. She is a young woman of attractive personality, and is popular with a wide circle of friends.

Mr. Wellborn is a popular well known son of Mrs. Sherman Wellborn, and the late Mr. Wellborn, and is also a graduate of Boone high school.

The wedding supper was served at the home of the bridegroom's parents.

The young couple will reside at Deep Gap.—Reported.

in central Europe distinguished by night. The Yugoslavians and Hungary bowed to the logic of nation whose council unanimously adopted a resolution condemning the crimes at Marseille. The action of the two opposing nations in accepting the resolution was viewed as a great league victory in the interests of peace, since central Europe had been threatened by the flames of war as a direct result of the assassination October 9, 1914, of the Yugoslav King Alexander.

Butler, Ja., Dec. 10.—Trapped by flames in the bedroom of their rural home, three small children were burned to death today while their mother tried frantically to reach them.
