Ferguson News

FERGUSON, Nov. 9.—We regret to record the passing of Mrs. Martha J. Shepherd, widow of the late Presley Shepherd, announcement of which has already been published. Mrs. Shepherd was reared in Ashe county and moved to this section twenty-five years ago. She was the mother of ten children, five of whom are living. Her son, Mr. J. Clay Shepherd, resided with her here. Mrs. Shepherd led a most exemplary life, was a consistent member of the Baptist church here and did her part well as a patriotic citizen of her community and was a faithful wife and mother in rearing a highly creditable family and building a splendid home and fireside.

Mrs. Sallie Weaver, of Seattle, Washington, relative of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Hall, is visiting them for several days, and will also visit relatives and friends in Lenoir before returning to her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Davis and family, former residents of this place, but who have been living in Lenoir for some time, have returned to this community to make their home, we are pleased to state.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Pardue and family, of Wilkesboro, attended the funeral of Mrs. Pardue's mother, Mrs. Martha J. Shepherd, here Monday. Mrs. Julia Hartsog, of Idlewild, Ashe county, daughter of Mrs. Shepherd, also attended the funeral.

Misses Blanche and Beulah Ferguson, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Ferguson and family, Mr. Jack Ferguson (student of Davidson College), spent the day and were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Carlton. Mr. and Mrs. Carlton are always noted for their generous hospitality and entertaining qualities. Mr. and Mrs. Hill Cottrell, of Moravian Falls, were also visitors at the Carlton home Sunday afternoon.

The great political drama, the general election, is over and while there are always many precedents upset in such a fiasco which is a quadrennial affair, the country will march along in much the same way. As important as an election may seem to many of us here in America if viewed in a big way, there is no cause for alarm no matter what happens. We should say we are ninety percent Americans and our country can be assured of a safe government no matter where the political pendulum swings. It never swings so far one way but what it will swing back with the minority party always acting as a check and balance wheel.

The local Subordinate Grange will meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Shepherd Friday night, November 13. All members try and be present with quarterly dues. The Juvenile Grange will meet at the usual place Saturday afternoon, November 14.

Among those who visited here from the Hereford Breeders Association meeting held at the Patterson school Friday, November 6th, were L. I. Case, Raleigh, Messrs. Hamilton and Shipley, Boone; B. S. Dobbins and Capt. Geo. F. Welse, and Prof. Fowler, Legerwood. Also about one dozen students of the Patterson Agricultural school.

Wilkesboro Loses To North Winston

Wilkesboro Ramblers dropped an exceedingly hard fought football game Friday afternoon 13 to 6 on Wilkesboro's field.

The Ramblers, although outplayed by the visitors' line, out-generated the Twin-City eleven in the other phases of the game. Wilkesboro was handicapped by an injury to Miller, Backfield ace, who retired from the game on account of injuries in the first period.

Wilkesboro displayed a good passing attack with one pass being good for their one touchdown.

$3,000,000 WORTH OF LOST LOVE. That's the figure his wife puts upon the millionaire's strayed or stolen affections. Read about it in the American Weekly with next Sunday's WASHINGTON HERALD.

Wilkesboro P.-T. A. Hears Mr. Phillips

The Wilkesboro Parent-Teacher Association met in the school auditorium Thursday afternoon with a large number of new members present. Mrs. Steelman's fourth and fifth grades presented an attractive playlet based on Books. Mrs. Hemphill's fifth grade gave a dramatic interpretation of the courtship of Miles Standish. Both were skillfully done.

After the children's program Mr. Z. V. Dickson, accompanied by Mrs. R. E. Prevette at the piano, sang a solo. Mr. Story then presented some facts and statistics concerning the school. As this was National Education Week, the object of his talk was to help the patrons to know their school. He then presented the guest speaker, Mr. C. W. Phillips, chairman of the public relations board of the Woman's College of the university of North Carolina, Greensboro. His speech was a great boost for education. He clearly showed that the job is unfinished, that there are still many things to be achieved, that the nation has a bright and glorious tomorrow which may be reached by dispelling selfishness and ignorance thru our schools.

The president, Mrs. Z. D. Dickson, presided over the business and routine matters were transacted. Reports were heard from the various committees. Mrs. J. W. White and Mrs. L. B. Dula gave interesting reports of the annual district meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association which was held here October 15, with North Wilkesboro and Wilkesboro as joint hostesses.

For attendance Mrs. Hemphill's fifth grade won first prize; Miss Hamsel's first grade, second; and Miss Scroggs' third grade, third.
