Miss Lacie Prevette Entertained Her Club

Miss Lacie Prevette entertained the members of her bridge club at her home in Wilkesboro Friday evening with two tables being made up for the game. The high prize in the game was won by Mrs. Gordon Forester. Mrs. Charles Hart, of Chattanooga, Tenn., who was a houseguest of her sister, Mrs. Bryan Gilreath, was remembered with a gift. A salad and sweet course was served at the conclusion of play.

Mrs. Hodges, Miss Mosley Hostess At Bridge

A delightful party of the week was the one given by Mrs. Russell G. Hodges and Miss Rebecca Mosley Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hodges on Kensington Drive. A bridge game was preceded by supper at 7 o'clock and those receiving prizes were John E. Justice for the men and Mrs. Palmer Horton for the ladies. An array of cut flowers formed a festive setting.

Miss Pattie Somers Bridge Club Hostess

A pretty club party for the week was the one given by Miss Pattie Somers at her home in Wilkesboro Friday evening when she entertained for members of her club. Two tables were placed for play in a setting of summer blossoms, after which refreshments in two courses were served. Miss Christine Irvin proved to be the most successful at cards.

Mrs. Ray Hobbs, of Charlotte, the former Miss Ruby Hartley, of Wilkesboro, and who was here visiting relatives received a remembrance from Miss Somers.

Mrs. Genio Cardwell Is Book Club Hostess

With Mrs. Genio Cardwell as hostess the members of the Friday book club were graciously entertained at her home on E Street Friday afternoon. Most of the club members were present also several invited guests and responded to the roll call by Mrs. W. P. Horton with current events of much interest. Mrs. C. D. Coffey, Sr., the president, presided.

Mixed garden flowers consisting mostly of roses and larkspur made colorful decorations for the guests who were served delicious refreshments in two courses at the close of the afternoon from the dining room table and two small ones.

U. D. C. Met With Mrs. Harvey Church

Members of the Wilkes Valley Guards Chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy held their June meeting Monday afternoon in Ronda at the home of Mrs. Harvey Church with the president, Mrs. J. E. Johnson in charge of the business session at which time a number of business matters were dispensed with.

The program for the afternoon was arranged by the program chairman, Mrs. C. D. Coffey, Sr., who told about Jefferson Davis. Other numbers on the program, given by Mrs. Clarence Call. A Jefferson Davis poem read by Mrs. Church, Mrs. Tom Brown a poem "Beauvoir" by Marie Alcott Harris, and Mrs. Johnson, "The War Flag Returned to Raleigh."

During the social hour the nine members attending were served delicious refreshments. The meeting Monday marked the final one until September.

Two Parties Given By Miss Louise Vyne

Miss Louise Vyne entertained Thursday afternoon at her home on C Street honoring Miss Mary Sink, bride-elect of June. The rooms, in which four tables were placed for bridge, were attractively decorated with a profusion of seasonal flowers in artistic arrangement.

To Miss Sink the hostess gave a beautiful luncheon set, and to Mrs. William Newton and Mrs. Shelton Brewer, winners of first and second scores, prizes were awarded. Following play a salad and sweet course was served.

Another party was given by Miss Vyne Friday evening this time having guests sufficient for three tables of bridge. Mrs. Will Blair received first award in the game while the second went to Mrs. H. B. Smith. Larkspur and roses were used chiefly for decorations and at the close of play tempting refreshments were served by Miss Vyne.

Miss Mary Sink Feted At Breakfast Party

Miss Mary Sink, whose marriage to Charles Darwin Smithey, of this city, has been the inspiration of many interesting social affairs, was honored Saturday morning when Miss Adeline Jones, a college mate of Miss Sink at Greensboro College, was hostess at a charming breakfast party at her home at nine o'clock. Minature courses served as place cards for the fourteen guests. After the breakfast the group spent sometime in dining tea towels which were given to the bride-elect as a shower. Honor gift for Miss Sink from Miss Jones was Maderia linen. Quantities of garden flowers and roses made colorful decorations for the occasion.

Miss Cynthia Prevette Entertained For Miss Sink A charming dinner-bridge was given for Miss Mary Sink, a popular bride-elect of the month, and was given last Thursday evening at

Miss Prevette's home in Wilkesboro. A three course dinner was served at seven o'clock the guests finding their positions at four small tables placed about the home amid a color combination of pink and white. Catering the tables were bowls of roses while sweet peas and anemones were used about the rooms. Miss Prevette, a college mate of Miss Sink's at Greensboro College, presented Miss Sink with a piece of silver in her wedding pattern. Mrs. King Spence was asked high in the game while the traveler's prize was held by Miss Wren Duncan.
