Miss Louise Foy Is Honored At Party

To honor Miss Louise Foy, of Mt. Airy, Miss Julia Bell Foy, a member of the city school faculty, entertained at four tables of bridge Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. L. Clements on Sixth Street. The honoree is a former member of the North Wilkesboro school faculty and was a guest over the weekend of the latter Miss Foy.

In the bridge game the prizes went to Miss Mable Topping for high score and to Miss Ruby Blackburn for low. The honoree was presented with a remembrance gift. Refreshments in two courses followed play.

Mrs. Max Foster Is Sewing Club Hostess

The Business Girls' Sewing club was delightfully entertained Monday evening by Mrs. Max Foster with Mrs. Ray Barnes being a guest of the club. For entertainment the group engaged in a period of sewing, also played rook, after which refreshments were served.

Hostesses for the next meeting, which is to be a Christmas party, are Mrs. Harry Pearson and Mrs. E. B. Cooper.

We are located at almost all the Goodwill Dept. Store, The Place for Bargains.

Social Calendar

The North Wilkesboro Senior Woman's club will meet Monday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Everett Pearson with Mrs. C. C. Faw, Mrs. Tip McNeil, and Mrs. J. D. Moore, Sr., as co-hostesses.

The Gardner Circle of the North Wilkesboro Methodist church will hold its Christmas party Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Ed F. Gardner with Mrs. Newland Campbell as associate hostess. The "Heart Sisters" will be revealed at this time and all gifts for the party are urged to be sent to Mrs. Gardner's home during the week-end.

Tea And Topics Club Met With Mrs. Pearson

With Mrs. Everett Pearson as hostess the members of the Tea and Topics club, with two additional guests, Mrs. A. L. Aycock and Mrs. Harry Pearson, enjoyed a delightful evening together last Friday. A period of needlework was followed by a Christmas word contest in which Mrs. J. D. Schafer was the winner of an attractive prize. Mrs. Aycock, the new Methodist pastor's wife, was remembered with a gift. Tempting refreshments were served at the close of the evening.

Legion Auxiliary In Monthly Meeting

Mrs. John Hall, Mrs. Jack Quinn, and Miss Toby Turner combined hospitality to the members of Legion Auxiliary in their monthly meeting Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Hall. The usual routine of business was transacted with the president, Mrs. J. B. McCoy, in charge. The Christmas work for their welfare department and six boys at Oteen was planned.

The meeting was largely attended with refreshments being served during the social hour.

Fidelis Class Has A Christmas Program

A Christmas program directed by Mrs. Dewey Minton and the election of officers featured the monthly meeting of the Fidelis class of the First Baptist church held at the home of Mrs. R. P. Casey Tuesday evening with Mrs. Andrew Kilby, Mrs. E. M. Long, and Miss Emma Eller, as associate hostesses. To open the meeting the class sang "Joy to the World," after which Mrs. C. B. Eller led in prayer.

Mrs. Nell Hendren, the president, occupied the chair during the business session at which time the following officers were chosen: teacher, Mrs. C. B. Eller; assistant teacher, Mrs. Dewey Minton; president, Mrs. Nell Hendren; first, second and third vice presidents, Mrs. Andrew Kilby, Mrs. Chal McNeil, and Mrs. R. P. Casey; secretary and treasurer, Miss Emma Eller; assistant, Mrs. John Hall.

Under the direction of Mrs. Minton a most interesting program was given as follows: "Hark, the Herald Angles Sing"; devotionals and prayer by Mrs. Ed Dancy and Mrs. C. E. Jenkins; a Bible study, Mary, the Mother of Jesus, by Mrs. Minton; a quartette, "Silent Night", by Mrs. Tal Barnes, Mrs. E. C. Johnson, Mrs. Tip McNeil, and Mrs. Andrew Kilby; a reading, "From A Far Country," by Mrs. J. O. Cook; a poem, "The Christmas Guest," Mrs. Minton; song, "O Little Town of Bethlehem."

Around thirty were present and at the close of the evening the hostesses served delicious refreshments. Mrs. Eller and Mrs. Minton, teachers of the class, were presented gifts by Mrs. Frank Tomlinson from the class as a token of appreciation for the fine work and faithful service rendered to the class by them.

Protestant Men Have Church Supper Tuesday

An evening of fine fellowship was enjoyed by the men of the Presbyterian church Tuesday at the church, but at a supper served by the Ladies of the Woman's Auxiliary. Supper was served at 8:15 with covers laid for about forty with Mr. L. M. Nelson, president of the men of the church, acting as master of ceremonies.

A talk by Mr. E. G. Finley, Jr., on his trip to Europe this summer, featured the program planned for the evening. Rev. Watt Cooper, the pastor, made a short talk on the purpose of the men of the church. Music was furnished by a string orchestra.

Methodist Bible Class Held A Banquet

The Young Men's Bible class of the North Wilkesboro Methodist church, of which Mr. Otis Keeling is teacher, enjoyed a banquet at the Brown House Friday evening. Toastmaster for the evening was Johnny Allen. Twenty-two were present.

The program was given as follows, words of welcome by Mr. Keeling to which Mr. A. S. Casel responded; address by Rev. A. L. Aycock, the pastor; a reading, Mr. Frank Killian; and a talk by Mr. Frank Johnson.

Wilkesboro P. T. A. In Meeting Thursday

The December meeting of the Wilkesboro Parent-Teacher Association was held at the school auditorium on Thursday afternoon. The fourth grade under the direction of Misses Cynthia Prevette and Dorothy Lashmit gave a Christmas play and sang a group of Christmas carols. A splendid talk on the "Delinquent Child" by Mr. Halfacre was the principal feature of the program for the afternoon. This was followed by a vocal solo by Miss Betty Henderson and a piano solo by George Oglivie.

The president, Mrs. L. B. Dula, was in the chair for the usual business session. Attendance prizes went to Miss Cynthia Prevette's fourth grade, first, Mrs. M. G. Edwards' second grade second, and Miss Eloise Starr's sixth grade third. Just before the meeting the study group of the P. T. A. was held, with Mrs. A. R. Oglivie, as leader.

A Song of Freedom

My soul is so tired of chasing just things,
Of eating the grist of the mad money kings;
I'm hungry for loyalty, friendship, and love,
For color and sunshine that come from above,
For bird-song and music and laughter of youth,
For words of sincerity, beauty, and truth.

I wish I could turn from the welter and grime
That daily consume all my strength and my time,
To tramp through the fields or to follow the trails,
Or sit on a stooping old fence built of rails,
Or drink from a gourd as I lunch by the spring,
Or walk by the rills as they chatter and sing.

O let me go back to the little old farm,
For no place on earth holds the half of its charm;
Each spot there is hallowed by youth and by age,
Each tree is a roster on memory's page;
The breezes are sweeter, the sky is more blue,
The grasses are greener, they're washed in the dew.

Down there I am safe on my little estate,
Like old Cincinnatus (without being great!);
From burdensome taxes and bills I am free,
No high-pressure agents I ever shall see.
The Spirit of Freedom fills all of the air,
And Earth, from her bosom, produces my fare.

Accepts Position With W. H. Cooper Radio Store Here

Willard Taylor, former resident of this city and a son of the late Rev. Seymour Taylor, of Wilkesboro, has accepted a position as representative of Wm. H. Cooper Radio Sales and Service Store and has begun his duties in that capacity. During the past few months he has been employed by Johnson Electric company at Spruce Pine and is experienced in the line of work he has undertaken here.

The firm sells Spartan, Emerson, Kadette and Grunow radios and also specializes in radio service. Mr. Cooper is the type of man who appreciates all patronage and will be glad for his friends to call on him at any time.

Troop 35 News

Troop 35 Boy Scouts of America held its regular weekly meeting at the hut on Friday night with a record attendance. Nearly all members of the troop were present, with several guests who enjoyed the program.

The troop is divided into two patrols with Lomax Crook and Oren Hudson as patrol leaders, George Campbell, Jr., senior patrol leader; Shan Kerbaugh, scribe; Wayne (Toots) Caudill, assistant scribe; and M. W. Green, Jr., cheer leader. Leaders of the troop are Isaac Duncan, Effner Eller, R. C. Jennings, and Shan Kerbaugh.

The boys are looking forward to Mr. Duncan's return from Chicago for the holidays. He has been absent from the troop for a few weeks, but will soon be back again to assume his duties of the leadership in the troop. All members of the troop are planning to give him a big welcome.

Many Are Helped In Security Program

Raleigh, Dec. 15.—A report made public by the State Board of Charities and Public Welfare shows that during November 27, 642 needy aged and dependent children received a total of $325,861.23 under the Old Age Assistance and Aid to Dependent Children sections of the North Carolina Social Security program.

The statement discloses that 18,048 needy aged were awarded the sum of $168,743.33, for an average of $9.36 per recipient, while 9,597 dependent children were given $52,637.83, an average of $5.48 per child.

The number of November awards exceeded those of October by more than 4,000, and the increase in funds distributed amounted to $40,233.22. The October report showed that 33,000
