HUSBANDS SHOULD LAUGH

Spencer Tracy and Hedy Lamarr in "I Take This Woman"

Hedy Lamarr, the most talked-of actress who has burst upon the screen in more than a decade, has definite ideas of men and women of this country and the world, just as men and women of the world have become favorably impressed by her.

First, what does she think of men? The glamorous actress, whose latest picture is "I Take This Woman," a co-starring vehicle with Spencer Tracy, which opens at the Liberty Theatre next Monday, says she prefers a man with a sense of humor to an Adonis.

"I think a man is most attractive between the ages of thirty-five and fifty-five," she says. "It makes no difference if he is European or American. The qualities that make a good husband do not depend upon nationality."

Likes Americans
"American men are interesting. They are the playboys the world imagines them. They play most of the time and are fun. But I think they make a fair division between the women they love and their favorite pastimes of golf and the like. I think a husband should have as many nights out as he wants to—so long as he always tells the truth about the reason. And I am positive that it is best always for husbands and wives to have breakfast together."

THE SCOUT REPORTER
By David Hill Carlton, Jr. Scribe of Troop 35

Due to the heavy snows, there is a great danger that a large number of wild fowl, valuable to farmers and wild life lovers, will perish unless we take steps to prevent it.

The Scoutmaster of Troop 35 takes this opportunity to ask all Scouts and Scouters to assist; also those interested in preserving wild life.

You can help by erecting bird feeders and shelters in your back yard or nearby woods. Those Scouts in the rural areas can do an excellent good turn, by feeding the birds.

Project Reports For Home Clubs

At the Home Demonstration Club meetings to be held throughout the county during the month of February, reports will be given on "Feeding of Poultry" by the poultry project leaders in the local clubs. These reports will be the first of a series to be given by the club women during the coming year.

The schedule for the year follows:
February, Home Poultry; March, Home Gardens; April, Home Beautifications; June, Clothing; July, Food Conservation; September, Home Furnishings; November, Food and Nutrition.

Kiwanis Officer Plans Series State Talks

Salisbury, Jan. 30.—Dr. C. W. Armstrong, of this city, Carolina district governor of Kiwanis International, has announced that Bennett O. Knudson, of Albert Lea, Minn., international president, will make a series of speeches in this district in February.

Dr. Armstrong said Knudson's itinerary will take him to High Point February 16, Raleigh February 17, and Columbia, S. C., February 19. All of these are night meetings.

Miss Lamarr is married to Gene Markey, a producer, but her opinions of life go back even before her marriage. "I think," she smiles in answer to a question, "that a woman should pick out her husband's neckties only if he should ask her to do so. Otherwise, it might not be so nice. What age is the most beautiful for women? Why, that is easy. The age at which she is happiest. Personality, I am certain, is far more important than beauty to a woman."

Ideas About Beauty
She has a few ideas about beauty, also. One of these is that red fingernails are all right so long as they are on other women and not herself. She considers the eyes the most important feature of a woman's face. That may be natural, since her eyes are the most talked-of feature of her face. However, she does nothing to enhance the brilliance of her eyes.

"To me," she says, seriously, "the strangest American custom is allowing young girls to wear makeup and fingernail polish. I prefer the European custom of keeping girls away from the world rather than the freedom given to American girls. I think girls in this country become sophisticated too early in life."

W. S. Myers Accepts Insurance Position

Announcement was made today by company officials that W. S. Myers, prominent local citizen, has been appointed agent for Life and Casualty Insurance company of Tennessee. The appointment was announced by H. W. Bennett, district manager, of Winston-Salem. R. M. Furr, special agent of the district office in Winston-Salem, was here today assisting Mr. Myers in beginning the work as representative of the company.

Mr. Myers will make the Call hotel headquarters for the company in the Wilkesboro and Wilkes county. He is a native of Wilkes and in past business connections has made many friends in the county who extend congratulations and wish him every success in his new position.

The company offers a full line of insurance, including life insurance paid up in eight years, educational policies, a $1,000 accident policy for only five cents per week, and retirement income policies.

FOUR PATROLS RAID GERMANY

Paris.—French war reports said today that four patrols had penetrated deep into Germany yesterday, returning with prisoners and valuable information on German troop displacements.

Two of the patrols were said to have worked their way two miles into German territory between the frontier and the Saar River. The others operated in the Vosges district, the reports said.

(A German high command communiqué reported that a German reconnaissance squad the day before had destroyed an enemy patrol in the region west of Saarlautern.)
