Mrs. Clyde Kilby Is Hostess To Hill Top Club

The members of the Hill Top club met in their fortnightly meeting Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Clyde Kilby, having practically all the members present. The guests spent some time in sewing and conversation after which the hostess served delightful refreshments. The next meeting is scheduled to meet with Mrs. Ed Dancy.

North Wilkesboro P.-T. A. Held Monthly Meeting

"Founders Day" was observed at the February meeting of the North Wilkesboro Parent Teacher Association which was held in the school auditorium Thursday afternoon. Mrs. C. C. Faw, the president, was in charge of the usual business session, and Mrs. C. D. Coffey, Jr., opened the meeting by leading the devotional period.

The program for the afternoon was given under the leadership of Mrs. E. G. Finley, and at the close a social hour was held in the auditorium during which time cake and coffee was served by Miss Evelyn Sharpe's Home Economic girls. The attendance awards went to Miss Elizabeth Finley's third grade, and to Miss Nonie Gordon's sixth grade. The two study courses, which preceded the regular meeting, were taught by Mrs. Finley for the high school using as her theme "Up and Out," and for the elementary grades Mrs. Frank Johnson, who spoke on "The Family's Part in the Social Change."

Miss McNeill Hostess To Missionary Society

The Missionary Society of Pleasant Home Baptist church met with Miss Cora McNeill, at her home January 21. The business session was presided over by the president, Mrs. Lena Yates. An interesting program was given by the fifteen members present, the topic for the month being "The Eternal Purpose of God." The meeting was adjourned to meet next month, February 18th, with Mrs. Lena Yates at Millers Creek.

"Johnny, Darling! Don't be afraid of that police dog. He won't hurt you."
"Yes he will Muvver. He's tasting me now."

Miss Marie Johnson Is Wed To Mr. Church

Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Marie Johnson to Mr. Church, both of North Wilkesboro, which was solemnized at four o'clock Sunday afternoon, February 11, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tyre Gilmore Johnson, Rev. A. E. Watts, of Taylorsville, performed the ceremony, only family members and a few intimate friends being present.

The bride and groom entered the living room together, unattended, and took their vows before an improvised altar of evergreens, Easter lillies, and white roses. Other bouquets of the white flowers were used about the room.

For her nuptials the bride wore a navy blue suit, with which she used blue and white accessories. Her shoulder corsage was of white roses and valley lilies.

Mrs. Church, older daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Johnson, of Abshers, is a graduate of Perry's Business College, of Atlanta, Ga., and for the past six years has been secretary to Jones and Brown, Attorneys.

Mr. Church, youngest son of the late Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Church, of Purlair, finished high school at Millers Creek, and for the past ten years has held a responsible position with the Wilkes Hosiery Mills.

Immediately following the ceremony the bridal couple left for a short wedding trip to Southern Pines, and upon their return will be at home on North Wilkesboro, Route 1.

Local Unit of N.C.E.A. Holds Meeting At Wilkes Hotel

The local unit of the North Carolina Educational Association, which is composed of the high school and elementary faculty of the North Wilkesboro school, held a most interesting meeting at the Wilkes Hotel Thursday evening. Miss Kathryn Troutman, president of the unit, was in charge and presided during the evening.

Dinner was served at seven o'clock after which the following program was given. Mrs. Lucille Farmer gave two vocal selections, after which Robert Taylor, chairman of the public relations committee, made a short after dinner talk, and Miss Evelyn Sharpe, accompanied by Miss Ruby Blackburn, rendered a cello number.

The guest speaker for the evening was Mrs. Ruth Viock Everette, field secretary of the N. C. E. A. with headquarters in Raleigh, and she was introduced by Paul S. Cragan, superintendent of the school.

Wilkesboro Junior Woman's Club Holds Meeting

The Wilkesboro Junior Woman's Club held their February meeting at the club house Thursday evening. The members of the music department were hostesses. In the absence of the president, the vice president, Mrs. Lawrence Miller presided. In opening the meeting Mrs. Miller paid tribute to the great Americans born in February and called for the reading of the American's creed. After the usual business routine, an inspirational program was given under the direction of Mrs. Mack Proffit, chairman of the music department. The theme of the program was "Music in our Everyday Lives." Vocal solos were rendered by Mrs. G. T. Mitchell and Miss Ruth Wright; a piano duet was played by Miss Helen Blevis and Mrs. Proffit; and piano solos were played by little Miss Agnes Kenerly and Richard Reins.

During the social hour delightful refreshments were served by Mrs. Joe Pearson, Mrs. Ray Kennedy, and Miss Eleanor Smoak.

Mrs. W. R. Absher Is Hostess To Her Club

The members of the Current Topic club with several additional guests were charmingly entertained by Mrs. W. R. Absher at her home on Ninth Street Thursday evening. The Valentine idea was carried out in the table appointments and in the dinner that was served at 7 o'clock, guests being seated at four small tables which were in red candle-light.

Following the dinner rook was played with Mrs. J. Q. Adams and Mrs. J. C. Reins winning the high and low score prizes, Mrs. Reginald Chapin, of Ridgewood, N. J., who is here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe E. Johnson, was a guest of the club and was remembered with a gift. A distribution of the club books was made during the evening.

Mrs. Bryan Gilreath Entertains Her Club

With Mrs. Bryan Gilreath as hostess the members of her bridge club were delightfully entertained at her home on E Street Thursday evening. The top score prize in the game, which was played at two tables, was won by Miss Ila Holman. When cards were laid aside the hostess served a salad course followed by sweets.

Man Sought On Abduction Charge

Statesville, Feb. 8.—Statesville police today disclosed that they are making diligent search for a middle-aged man wanted for abduction of a 11-year-old girl.

John Henry Smith, white, about 50, a transient, had been living in the home of George Lambert, in the Bloomfield community. Several days ago Lambert's daughter, 11, left home the same day Smith disappeared.

Police say they have information Smith and the girl have been seen near Pineville and effort is being made to locate the missing pair in that section and in South Carolina.

Smith is a small man, weighs 110 pounds, five feet tall, has a scar on his left cheek, walks stooped and has a stiff ankle. Ella Lambert, 11, weighs about 80 pounds, has brown eyes, dark brown hair, bobbed. She was wearing a white fur coat when she left.

They had no money and are thought to be hitchhiking.

Two Middle Aged Sisters, Servant Are Found Slain

Oliver Springs, Tenn., Feb. 5.—Two middle-aged sisters and a negro servant were found shot to death today in their home here, Sheriff Bob Smith reported.

The victims were Miss Ann Richards, 48, and her sister, Miss Margaret Richards, 46, and Leonard Brown, 16-year-old negro houseboy.

Miss Mary Richards, 47, librarian in the high school here and a sister of the two victims, discovered the bodies when she returned home from school this afternoon, officers said.

Sheriff's officers tonight were seeking clues in the mysterious shooting. The body of Miss Ann Richards was discovered on the kitchen floor of the sisters' large two-story house. The body of Miss Margaret Richards was lying on a platform on the stairs and Brown's body was at the head of the stairs, officers said.

Babs Resents Reports About Her Romance

Palm Beach, Fla., Feb. 8.—Countess Barbara Hutton Haughwits-Reventlow expressed resentment today at reports she planned to marry February 17 or 18. She issued by telegraph one of her rare public utterances denying stories that she had determined upon a date for marriage to Robert Sweeney, handsome young golfer and her companion on many recent occasions.

The reports said she would wed shortly after receiving her Danish divorce decree, for which she has been waiting.

"No marriage plans made for 17th or 18th," said the telegram. "Use of Danish decree impossible to tell exactly since papers presented to Danish court on 18th of February may take two or three weeks or perhaps a month to clear."

"No proceedings will be filed, as has often been said incorrectly, and denied, in Florida."

"I deeply resent all this speculation as to where, when and whom."

New School Building At Jefferson Planned

West Jefferson, Feb. 8.—At a meeting of the Jefferson Parent-Teacher association this week a committee composed of Prof. Paul Miller, L. P. Colvard, Bryan Oliver and W. B. Austin was appointed to secure plans for a proposed new school building for which WPA application will be made within the near future.

Rev. R. H. Stone, who was the speaker for the occasion, discussed "Reading the Bible as a Hobby." It was announced that the March meeting would be held at the home of Bryan Oliver.
