Negro To Die Friday For Criminal Attack

Raleigh.—A 20-year-old negro convicted of criminally assaulting a white woman will be asphyxiated at central prison Friday morning.

Paroles Commissioner Edwin Gill announced Wednesday that Governor Hoke had declined to stay the execution of Robert Williams, alias Robert McNair, who was sentenced in Cumberland county in August, 1938.

Gill said the Governor had made a thorough study of the case, and "saw no reason to intervene." The negro has confessed, the paroles commissioner added.

Embittered Mother Shoots Guardian Of Her Daughter

Chicago.—A young mother, embittered by loss of custody of her child, shot and seriously wounded the child's foster mother and slightly wounded a probation officer in a corridor of the juvenile court building Wednesday.

Mrs. Aino Orgo Tossavainen, 26, the mother, formerly of Virginia, Minn., was seized by policeman Joseph Healy, who witnessed the affray. He said she held a pistol inside her muff and fired three times into Mrs. W. W. Buchanan's back.

A bullet superficially wounded Miss Irene Kavin, chief deputy probation officer of the juvenile court, who was standing with Mrs. Buchanan, the foster mother, and Mrs. Tossavainen.

Healy said the mother complained that Mrs. Buchanan, who has custody of the daughter, Carmen Orgo, 4 1-2, "kept me from seeing my child." Court records showed the child's father, Carmine, drowned in 1937.

The mother and the others had come to a rehearing requested by Mrs. Tossavainen, who wanted the child returned.

Ku Klux Floggings Told By Witness

Atlanta, Ga.—Evidence of terror inspired by the Ku Klux Klan for years without encountering prosecution was placed today before a grand jury charged with bringing to justice the men responsible for a series of brutal floggings.

Details of more than a score of midnight whippings came from the victims themselves, rounded up to testify at a coroner's inquest into the death of Ike Gaston, a barber of suburban East Point whose lash-torn body was found last week-end.

Three Fulton county deputies were named as Klan members and two of them were accused face-to-face by the whip victims of participating in the nocturnal inductions and subsequent beatings.
