Current Topic Club Met With Mrs. F. C. Forester

Mrs. F. C. Forester was hostess at a delightful social affair Wednesday afternoon at her home on D Street when she entertained the members of her Current Topic club and a number of additional guests. A three course luncheon was served at one o'clock, guests being seated at the dining table and five small ones, which were attractively appointed in the Easter motif. Easter rabbits and biddies served as combination place cards and favors, while hyacinths and other early blooming plants made a festive background for the guests.

Following the luncheon rock was played for sometime and in drawing for the prize Mrs. A. H. Casey was the winner. Mrs. Hoyle Hutchens, the president of club, presided for current events and the exchange of books.

Mrs. Bon Perkins Is Bridge Club Hostess

With Mrs. Bon Perkins as hostess the members of the Wilkesboro bridge club were delightfully entertained at her home on Thursday evening. The game was played at two tables with the top score prize going to Miss Ila Holman. At the conclusion of play the hostess served a tempting salad course.

Ila Holman Bible Class Held Monthly Meeting

The March meeting of the Ila Holman Bible class of the Wilkesboro Baptist church was held Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Tal Pearson with Mrs. A. G. Bringer as associate hostess, having eleven members and four visitors present. Mrs. Bain Doughton presided for the business session.

The devotional period was led by Mrs. Everett Tedder. Mrs. R. L. Wellborn made a talk on prayer, and Mrs. Bill Bauchell read a poem, "Prayer to the Lord."

In serving refreshments at the close of the meeting the hostesses were aided by Mrs. Charlie Hudson and Mrs. George Kennedy. The next meeting is scheduled to be held with Mrs. Bain Doughton.

N. Wilkesboro P.-T. A. Met Thursday Afternoon

With the president, Mrs. C. C. Few, in charge the monthly meeting of the North Wilkesboro P.-T. A. was held in the school auditorium Thursday afternoon, being preceded by an executive meeting. To open the meeting Mrs. Edd F. Gardner gave the devotions, after which a program on health was presented. Mrs. Bertha Bell was unable to be present to make a talk on health as previously announced, so Paul S. Cragan, superintendent of the school showed a picture on health.

For the study courses Rev. Edward N. Caldwell, of Tallahassee, Fla., who was here last week holding a series of evangelistic services at the Presbyterian church, addressed the mothers of the high school group, and Miss Evelyn Sharpe spoke to the elementary group on "Must Children Obey."

The awards in the attendance count went to Miss Nonie Gordon's room for the high school building and to Miss Lucille Ivey's third grade in the elementary building.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Nelson Attend Wedding in Roxboro

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Nelson were in Roxboro for a few days during the week-end to attend the wedding of Mr. Nelson's niece, Miss Anne Watkins, to Mr. Clarence Pemberton, who were married in a formal church ceremony Saturday at noon. The Nelsons went down Friday morning and attended the final pre-nuptial courtesies given for the bridal couple.

St. Cecilia Juveniles In Monthly Meeting

The St. Cecilia Juveniles were delightfully entertained Tuesday afternoon by Rosemond Doughton at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Doughton. Eighteen members answered the roll call.

A study of Johann Sebastian Bach, great Christian composer of the 18th century, featured the program. Eloise Pardue read the story of his life, and Mrs. Prevette discussed his great Easter music. She noted the fact that some of Bach's pieces for children are prefaced with the words, "In The Name Of Jesus." Piano solos were played by Elizabeth Carlton, Elizabeth Barber, Elizabeth Pharr, Dorothy Rhodes, Britt Steelman, and Blanche Livingston. Two songs by all the

Union Methodist W.M.U. In Monthly Meeting Tuesday

Ten members and two visitors were present for the March meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society of Union Methodist church, which was held at the home of Mrs. D. E. Turner Tuesday afternoon. The program was given by Mrs. J. M. Nichols. Miss Winnie McLean read the scripture, taken from the first chapter of Genesis. Mrs. W. E. Galtler led in prayer. Mrs. J. E. Crysel and Mrs. Worth Blackburn gave the leaflet, "Isabella Thoburn, 'Creator of Ideals'". Mrs. Earl Baker was in charge of the business session. Mrs. L. T. Barnard dismissed with prayer. April meeting will be at the home of Mrs. L. T. Barnard with Mrs. George Sale hostess. The hostess, assisted by Miss Arvie Turner, Little Misses Linnie Sue Blackburn and Billie Sue Baker, served refreshments suggestive of Easter.

PRICES

Although prices of farm products are now slightly higher than in the period before the World War, they are still below parity, reports the Agricultural Marketing Service.

NEW

A new Elberta peach variety, the Redelberta, which ripens ten days earlier and carries more color than its parent, has gone on trial in most peach-producing areas of the country.

Frozen Fish

During the cold wave last winter fish were killed by the frigid water as far South as the Florida Keys, field men of the National Wildlife Federation, Washington, D. C., report. These were "reef fish" such as groupers and snappers. When they came close to the surface near shore, the cold air so lowered the temperature of the water that thousands of these fish perished.—From the National Wildlife Federation.

COOPERATE

Swain county farmers are showing a great deal of interest in the demonstration farm program and in working together to improve general farming in the county, says P. E. Brinza, assistant agent.
