News Of Lewis Fork Community

Mr. and Mrs. Jarvis Woodie, of Linville City, are visiting friends and relatives in this community. Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Lester, of Winston-Salem, were Easter visitors with Mrs. Lester's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Triplett, and a birthday dinner was given in honor of Mrs. Lester's sister, Mrs. W. A. Laws, at Mr. Triplett's.

Mr. Dook Triplett, a prominent citizen of Purlear Route 1, was painfully but not seriously injured while leading his cow by a rope looped over his arm. The cow became playful or frightened and ran some distance, dragging Mr. Triplett over rough ground and some few stumps. Mr. Triplett has a very badly bruised arm and shoulder and a lesson to others who lead cows with a loop around their arm.

Mrs. Mabel Jacobi has returned to Washington, D. C., after spending a week with her mother, Mrs. J. M. Jones and sister, Mrs. Hal- lie Eller.

Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Shepard, Mr. Jim Stokes and daughter, Miss Edna Stokes, Misses Matty Vee and Ina Faye Triplett spent Sunday in Winston-Salem, visit- ing Mr. Shepard's niece, Mrs. Richard McNeil.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Foster spent Sunday with friends in North Wilkesboro.

Mrs. Phena Stocks visited her father, Mr. Franklin Foster, who has been ill for some time. Mr. Foster is very old and his health is weakening fast.

Mrs. Freda Jones and her mother, Mrs. Rebecca Blevins, spent Friday shopping in the Wilkes- boro.

Mrs. Julie Chatham and daughter, Pauline, visited with Mr. and Mrs. Travis Eller, Saturday.

Miss Inez and Velma Triplett, of Elon College, are spending the Easter holidays with their father, Dr. W. R. Triplett.

The small son of Mr. and Mrs. Bine Church, who has been very ill with flu, is improving, we are glad to hear.

Mr. and Mrs. Jake Eller and Master Forest, of Champion, spent Saturday night with Mrs. Eller's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Foster.

Michigan And N. C. Indicated As Most Prosperous States

Washington, March 22.—State by state figures showed today income tax collections in the first 20 days of March varied from an increase of 81 per cent in Michigan to small decreases in Texas, Maine and Oklahoma.

Comparisons were with last year. Average gain was 31 per cent. Figures for states, the first reporting for March, 1939, and corresponding with this month in- cluded: North Carolina $5,966,- 773 and $8,237,749; South Caro- lina $1,813,351 and $1,643,681.

To Have Bathing Beach In Fort Macon State Park

Raleigh.—A new public bath- ing beach, complete with bath house, boardwalk 6,000 feet long and complete facilities, is now being developed within Fort Ma- con State Park, across the sound from Morehead City and Beau- fort, by the state parks division of the Department of Conserva- tion and Development. The bath house will be large enough to ac- commodate from 500 to 750 bath- ers a day. A charge of 15 cents for adults and 10 cents for chil- dren will be made for the use of the bath house.

A new sand-clay highway a- bout six-tenths of a mile long, will be built from the present sur- faced highway that leads down to Old Fort Macon, while a parking area of 10,000 square yards, also of sand-clay, will be built for those who want to use this beach. Two frame picnic shelters, also picnic tables and outdoor fire- places will also be built, while a concession building, where soft drinks, ice cream and sandwiches may be obtained, will also be provided.

The beach will be located in the upper end of the park area, about a mile above the Port.

While the Department of Con- servation has owned this area for more than ten years and has kept Fort Macon open for sightseers, this is the first time it has been able to provide a bathing beach, since no funds have been avail- able for the building of a bath house and other facilities.

The new beach development will cost approximately $47,000, of which the Department of Con- servation and Development will supply about one-fourth and the Works Progress Administration three-fourths.

Plans are also being considered for the construction of a long fishing pier on the park beach.

1940 Expected To Be Good Tourist Year

Raleigh.—Inquiries are pour- ing into the office of the Gov- ernor's Hospitality Committee of the Department of Conservation and Development at the rate of about 100 a day asking for in- formation about North Carolina, ac- cording to J. C. Baskerville, ex- ecutive secretary of the commit- tee. Most of these letters are from persons in other states who have seen North Carolina adver- tisements or read stories about the state and who are interested in coming here on vacations this spring or summer.

As a result of this unusual in- terest in North Carolina, it is be- lieved that the 1940 tourist sea- son will be even better than last year when almost 3,000,000 peo- ple visited North Carolina and spent approximately $100,000,- 000, Baskerville pointed out.

One hundred and thirty-six bicyclists were killed in North Carolina from 1935 through 1939, inclusive.

"There's No Sales Tax On Him"

Tom Copper, Mayor of Wilmington and candidate for the demo- cratic nomination for Governor, carefully scans a mule at his yard in Wilmington. Tom, who proposes, if elected, to reduce the sales tax one half of one per cent each biennium, secured freedom from sales tax on mules in the 1939 legislature. "There's no sales tax on the lowly mule," said Tom, who is a farmer and a mule dealer, "and there should be none.

Farmers cannot afford to pay sales tax on their chief animal of work and there is no reason why the Raleigh Gang should force them to do so. Mules have too much sense to come under the sales tax law just like I have too much sense to fall for all this baloney that other candidates tell you when they say the sales tax must be con- tinued. With efficient government we can eliminate the sales tax by reducing it one half of one per cent each biennium."

Allies Set To War On Russ, Says Diplomat

Boston, March 23.—War a- gainst Russia would be declared immediately by the Allies should the Soviet move against another European neutral, the French Ambassador to the United States, Count Rene Doyne de Saint- Quentin, said during an interview today.

He declared "that if any other country is attacked by Russia, we will not wait. We are ready and we will move against the Soviet at once. We waited for Finland to ask for help. We waited until it was too late. Finland did not ask for help. We had armies stand- ing by."

Count Saint-Quentin predicted open warfare and increased mili- tary activity with the arrival of spring, but not along the West- ern Front, where he said an at- tack on either the Maginot or the Siegfried lines would mean the loss of too many men. He said: "The Allied blockade is a suc- cess, but it is not enough. The blockade is weakening Germany, but not fast enough. She is get- ting food."

the loss of too many men. He said:

"The Allied blockade is a suc- cess, but it is not enough. The blockade is weakening Germany, but not fast enough. She is get- ting food."

Last year in North Carolina, 207 persons were killed in ac- cidents on highway curves.

Vandenberg Says G.O.P. Able to Win

Washington.—Senator Arthur H. Vandenberg of Michigan, can- didate for the Republican presi- dential nomination, last night warned his party that it can win in November only if it chooses seasoned leadership to carry out a platform pledged to aid all of the people.

Speaking over a National Broad- casting Company network, he said tersely that the country is ready for a change but "is in no mood for blind reaction." It wants prosperity, he said, but "it really wants to pass prosperity round."

"The factor will be more con- clusive in November than the Re- publican party's ability to write a platform which is clear and ex- plicit in its formula, and to find seasoned leadership which leaves no room to doubt the depend- ability of the program," he de- clared.

The Michigan senator's men- tion of seasoned leadership could have been an indirect reference to Thomas E. Dewey, young New York district attorney with whom he clashes for delegates in Wis- consin's presidential primary on April 2. Dewey leaves today to make 10 speeches in the state. Vandenberg declined an in- vitation to address Wisconsin Repub- licans on the ground that it was more important that he remain on the job here.
