A Zone Meeting Is Held At The Wilkesboro M.E. Church

The upper zone meeting of the Methodist Missionary Societies of the Elkin district was held Thursday at the Methodist church in Wilkesboro with a large number of auxiliary members attending. Mrs. B. S. Call, and Mrs. J. B. Henderson, both of Wilkesboro, served as chairman and recording secretary.

To open the meeting the group joined in singing "The Kingdom is Coming", after which Dr. J. S. Hiatt, superintendent of the Elkin district, led the devotional period. Words of welcome were spoken by Mrs. P. W. Edwards, of the Wilkesboro church, to which Mrs. Edd F. Gardner, of North Wilkesboro, responded.

Among those appearing on the program during the day were Mrs. T. V. Goode, of Statesville and secretary of the Statesville district; Mrs. Henderson presented the work of the children; Mrs. Hoyt Wood, of West Jefferson, gave a brief history of the fifty years of work of the Missionary Society; Miss Mamie Sockwell, of North Wilkesboro, presented the World Outlook; and Mrs. J. S. Hiatt, of Elkin and secretary of the Elkin district gave a message from the district.

Mrs. J. L. Wolts, of Mt. Airy, gave the afternoon devotions using as her theme "Spiritual Life of the Missionary Society". Special music for the day was rendered by Mr. Zeb Dickson, of Wilkesboro, who sang "The Holy City" being accompanied at the piano by Mrs. R. E. Prevette, of Wilkesboro.

Interesting reports of the work were given by the different auxiliaries represented at the meeting. "Blest Be the Tie That Binds" was sung as a closing number for the afternoon session. The next meeting, which will be in the fall, is scheduled to meet at Sparta.

During the noon hour a bounteous picnic lunch was served in the Community House.

Mrs. Dan Carter Is Bridge Club Hostess

The members of the Friday bridge club were delightfully entertained Friday afternoon by Mrs. Dan Carter at her home on Kensington Avenue. Tables prizes in the game, which was played at two tables, were won by Mrs. Ward Eshelman and Mrs. J. A. Rousseau. Tempting refreshments were served at the close of play by Mrs. Carter.

Presbyterian Auxiliary Gives Birthday Pageant

A most interesting monthly meeting was held by the Presbyterian Auxiliary Wednesday evening celebrating the annual birthday event. At seven o'clock the auxiliary members met in the hut for the usual business session with Mrs. W. J. Bason in charge. Following the business period the group along with the men and children of the church assembled in the church auditorium for the birthday pageant, which was given under the direction of Miss Jeannie Ogilvie with several of the auxiliary members and

Social Calendar

The general meeting of the Women's Missionary Union of the First Baptist church will be held at the church Wednesday evening, May 30, at 7:30 o'clock instead of Tuesday, June 4, the regular time. The Business Woman's circle will be in charge, and will have as guest speaker, Miss Frances Turner, a graduate of the Louisville W. M. U. Training School.

The Woman's Bible class of the North Wilkesboro Methodist church will meet Tuesday afternoon at 8:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Isaac Eller.

The Rendezvous Mountain chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution will meet Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the home of Mrs. C. H. Cowles in Wilkesboro. Mrs. Joe E. Johnson will be in charge of the program.

The entire offering for this occasion, which was observed throughout the Presbyterian churches, will be used for the next ten years in holding daily vacation Bible schools. The pageant portrayed the need of childhood, and of how important it was to teach children Christ.

A social hour followed in the hut during which time refreshments were served. The hut and church both were attractively decorated in peonies and red roses. On Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the church hut the Executive board met for an important session.

Union M. E. Auxiliary In Meeting Tuesday

Woman's Auxiliary of Union Methodist church met with Mrs. Worth Blackburn on Tuesday afternoon. After the call to worship Misses Mozelle and Marie Turner, sang a duet, which was followed by a hymn. Mrs. D. E. Turner was the leader and response was by members, the missionary topic being "Christians In Deed and In Truth." Short talks were made by Mrs. C. W. Mahaffey and Mrs. Earl Baker. Mrs. Mahaffey directed the prayer. The president presided over the business session. Mrs. Fred Miller and Mrs. Howard Owens are to keep flowers in the church during the month. Fifty-five visits and carrying of two trays and eight baskets of flowers to sick were reported since the last meeting of the Auxiliary.

Mrs. L. T. Barnard dismissed with prayer, after which the hostess, assisted by her little daughter, Lenna Sue and Mrs. Baker, served delicious refreshments. Next meeting will be held with Mrs. Ezel Crysel on June 11, two o'clock.

IF

If I had invested the money I had in real estate in and around North Wilkesboro when I left here 22 years ago I would have been flying with the Eagles of North Wilkesboro instead of bumping along on the ground.

Moral: IF a frog had wings he wouldn't be bumping himself along on the ground.

ANOTHER MORAL: Invest now in real estate and be an eagle soon.

IF I know values, I have some real bargains.

Wilkesboro Missionary Society

Mrs. P. J. Marshall and Mrs. Charlie Howard combined hospitality to the members of the Wilkesboro Baptist Missionary Society which was held Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Mitchell having ten members and two visitors present. Mrs. W. A. Stroud, the president, presided for the usual business session.

Mrs. Bess Doughton gave the devotion and Mrs. Stroud was in charge of the program, the theme of which was "Youth Steadfast For Children." She was assisted by several of the members. Refreshments and a social hour followed the meeting.

Birthday Dinner

A surprise dinner was given May 19, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Holbrook and Mrs. Loula Kilby and little Betty Jean Holbrook.

It was a birthday affair around which each of their birthdays centered. This celebration was an occasion of great pleasure and joy to all who participated.

About seventy friends and relatives gathered at the Holbrook home with well filled baskets to surprise Mr. and Mrs. Holbrook and Mrs. Kilby on their return from church.

A sumptuous dinner was spread on an improvised table on the lawn, and the writer will say, in the many we have attended, we believe this to be one of the best we have ever had the opportunity of partaking.

The Rev. C. M. Caudill made an interesting talk, in which he referred to each one for whom the dinner was in honor and also pointed out—that it was an old custom of Bible origin, through which days of importance were commemorated.

After the delicious dinner had been served, we believe, to the satisfying of every one present, the friends all lingered to recall old times and renew old friendships. It would be putting it very lightly to say, it was a joyous occasion for every one participating, and all felt that Paul and Lexie had played a beautiful hand in honor to their loved ones.

Now to Mr. and Mrs. Holbrook and Mrs. Kilby. May you live to enjoy many, many more happy birthdays and joyous occasions like this.—One present.

Salem College Commencement

Winston-Salem. — Observance of the 18th annual commencement at Salem College will take place this year June 1 through June 3, Dr. Howard E. Rondthaler, president, has announced.

Raimundo de Orlas, dean of St. Philip's Pro-Cathedral in Atlanta, Georgia, will deliver the commencement address Monday morning, June 3, in Memorial Hall. The baccalaureate speaker will be Dr. Byron K. Horne, pastor of the Moravian Church at Lititz, Pennsylvania.

Saturday, June 1, will be observed as Alumnae Day when out-of-town alumnae return to the campus. A meeting of the Executive Board of the Alumnae Association will immediately precede a meeting of the General Alumnae Association at noon. The annual alumnae luncheon with the reuniting classes as honor guests will follow. Officers of the Alumnae Association are: president, Mrs. Thomas V. Farrow, Greensville, S. C.; vice presidents, Mrs. Agnew Bahnsen, Winston-Salem; Mrs. Clarence Carmichael, Kappville; Dr. Rachel Davis, Kinston; Mrs. Norborne Schaum, Wilson; Miss Evelyn McCarty, Fort Pierce, Fla.; secretary, Mrs. A. James Rankin, Gastonia; treasurer, Miss Sarah Glendon, Winston-Salem.

The commencement concert presented by students of the Salem College School of Music will take place Saturday evening, after which Dr. and Mrs. Howard E. Rondthaler will entertain at the President's reception honoring the families of the seniors and the alumnae.

"Senior vespers," a traditional service at Salem, will be held on the lower campus at twilight on Sunday evening. Special music for this occasion will be provided by members of the senior class.

Miss Mary Jo Pearson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. I. E. Pearson of North Wilkesboro, is a member of the Senior class of Salem College this year. She is a candidate for the Bachelor of Arts degree.

Lenox Juice Recipe Checks Economic Fair Policy

It is a well known fact that the quality of the food that we eat is directly related to the health of our nation. The Lenox Juice Recipe, which is a combination of the best of the fruits of the South, is a most nutritious and healthful beverage. It is a most economical and healthful beverage, and is a most desirable addition to the diet of every family.

A Year of Action Results

in The Old North State's
"Clean Up or Close Up" Campaign

Twelve months ago the North Carolina beer industry went into action to commence weeding out those relatively few beer retailers who, by practices unbecoming good citizens, tended to bring reproach on the great law-abiding majority. "Clean Up or Close Up" was the ultimatum issued them and we feel that our action results speak for themselves.

To date, 78 beer licenses have been revoked—revoked because 78 beer dealers used their licenses to shield illegal activities. Thus are being removed the bad spots that, left alone, would smear the reputation of the thousands who operate within the bounds of decency and ethical business conduct.

As a new year begins, this committee states anew its determination to carry forward aggressively its now well-established program . . . and asks continuance of your alertness to patronize only decent, reputable beer outlets.
