James Family Has A Reunion

One of the first settlers of Wilkes county was one Joseph James, whose wife was a Miss St. Clair. They came from what is now Forsyth county, N. C., and settled in what is now Wilkesboro. This was in the latter part of the 1760's. They reared three sons: William, John and Thomas. William and John were lost in the War Between the States. Thomas alone of the family survived. He died in 1914, at the age of 85.

He left three sons, T. J. James, of Laurel Springs; W. E. James, of route 2, Wilkesboro; and J. M. James, of Richmond, Va.

Last Sunday, J. M. James, of Richmond, Va., and J. H. James, of Buckner, Va., who is a son of T. J. James, came on a visit to their old home and spent the past week visiting relatives and friends in this county and Caldwell and on Friday afternoon there was held a family reunion at the home of W. E. James and there was in attendance the following of the James family, most of which are direct descendants of Thomas B. James: T. J. James, of Laurel Springs; J. M. James and family, of Richmond, Va.; J. H. James and family, of Buckner, Va.; Mr. and Mrs. J. C. West and son, Junior, of Ferguson; Mr. and Mrs. U. A. Miller, of Wilkesboro route 2; Mr. and Mrs. I. P. Anderson and family, of Oakwoods; Mr. and Mrs. John Ellis and family, of Oakwoods; Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Anderson and family, of Oakwoods; Miss Minnie Anderson, of Oakwoods, and many others of the immediate family. They report a wonderful time having enjoyed an old fashioned country meal, prepared by hands that know how to prepare food as it should be, and a program of stirring music by a local string band, and a feast of love and good fellowship and a hope to all be together one year from now.

Virginia Rendel, double for Mae West, with Hollywood Star doubles at Liberty Munday.

North Wilkesboro will start to see double Monday when, at the Liberty Theatre, the "Hollywood Star Doubles" of Mae West, James Cagney, Dorothy Lamour, Groucho Marx, Ray Bolger, Edward Arnold and Zorina appear in person on the stage.

The "Hollywood Star Doubles" were organized about 18 months ago in the motion picture colony by Howard Bruce, who is the double for Edward Arnold. They came East for a personal appearance tour and so great was their success in theatres, that the management of the N. Y. World's Fair immediately engaged them as one of the featured attractions for that exposition. Following the close of the fair, they toured England, however their stay abroad was curtailed by the war. Since their return, they have completed a short subject entitled "Double Or Nothing" for the Warner Bros.

In the organization are Virginia Rendel who has doubled for Mae West in "She Done Him Wrong," "The Bell Of the 90's," "Goin' To Town" and other productions; Ralph Goodwin, the double for James Cagney in "Angels With Dirty Faces" and his current scene success, "The Fighting 69th"; Winnie Lighton, who has doubled for Dorothy Lamour in "Hurricane" and "Typhoon"; Ray Janis who has impersonated Groucho Marx in "A Day at the Races," "A Day at the Circus" and "Animal Crackers"; Ray Bolger's double is Eddie Hogan who will reproduce the dance that Ray did in "The Wizard of Oz," and Howard Bruce who doubled for Edward Arnold in "Diamond Jim," "Sutter's Gold" and "Come and Get It."

Also, as added attraction, there are Shirley Gay who was the understudy for Zorina in the musical productions, "I Married An Angel" and "On Your Toes" and as standin in the motion picture, "I Was An Adventuress"; and the featured stars in the Deanna Durbin picture, "Mad About Music," Leon La Fell and His Harmonica Gentlemen.

strawberries are sold to tourists and local mountain hotels at a price of 10 to 15 cents per quart in the summer, and 20 to 25 cents per quart in the fall.

Niswonger recommends that the everbearing berries be grown on new ground, which should be cleared in the fall and burnt over to kill out forest weeds and trash. The ground is plowed in March and the plants set in April. Plants are secured from an old planting, which is never allowed to remain more than two years. The plants are set 12 inches apart in three-foot rows.

All blossoms and new runner plants are pulled off until the first of June, and the fruit for the late crop develops from August 1 to as late as the middle of October. The following year, the original planting produces berries for the early crop, beginning to ripen June 1, and extending into July. In this way, two crops a year are harvested from the same planting.

DAMAGE
Bud worms are causing considerable damage in Craven county tobacco fields, according to Paul M. Cox, assistant farm agent of the N. C. State College Extension Service.

Industrial conditions affecting the domestic consumer demand for farm products are expected to continue the improvement in evidence since April if active warfare in Europe continues.

Mr. Hartley has three acres of one and two-year-old plants of the Mastodon and Gem varieties, Niswonger says. He expects to market a total of 5,000 quarts by fall from these plantings. An average of 2,000 quarts per acre is normally harvested from the first crop of the new planting. Some of the more vigorous hills will produce from 80 to 120 berries to the plant, and 48 of these will fill a quart cup.

O. B. Baird, Avery county farm agent, reports that overbearing

Zion Hill Baptist church at Boomer was the gathering place for a host of sacred song lovers, June 30th, at eleven o'clock, sponsored by the Southside Singing Association. President F. J. McDuffie presided and led the devotional. Singing master Paul B. Collins, of Lincolnton, assisted by Thomas Earl and A. E. Helton led the congregation in singing many old hymns. The Boomer choir took the first round followed by the Collins quartet and the Beaver Creek female quartet. The session adjourned for an hour at noon when a long table was spread with delicious food that was enjoyed by all.

The church was filled to capacity when the assembly call was made. Soon new choirs and quartets were enrolled and all was settled for a pleasant round of Gospel singing by the following groups: Boomer choir, Walnut Grove choir, Good Samaritan quartet, Beaver Creek choir, Collins quartet, Little Rock choir, Kings Creek quartet, Welcome Home quartet, Beaver Creek female quartet, and Walnut Grove quartet.
