Big Sacrifices Made During Clean-Up Of Used and Reworked Stock

If the people of this section could fully realize what is meant by the offering of Rhodes-Day Furniture Co. in their sale of used and re-conditioned furniture, there would be a rush to the store as soon as this announcement is read.

Elsewhere in this issue will be found the firm's advertisement, which describes and prices many of the articles, which includes suites, ranges, phonographs, kitchen cabinets, odd pieces, utility cabinets, etc., offered in a sale that should bring crowds daily as long as the articles are available. As an illustration: Three-piece living room suite for $17.50; $48.00 Florence oil cook stove for $17.50; 10-piece solid oak dining room suite for $22.50, etc. This gives you an idea—now go to the store and see the remainder. The sale is being held to make room for incoming merchandise bought at the furniture show now taking place.

Dellaplane and Roaring River Route 2 News

ROARING RIVER, Route 2, July 20.—Services were held last Saturday and Sunday at Cranberry, Oak Forest, and Union Grove, the colored people's church.

Mr. B. L. Johnson returned a few weeks ago to Asheville, where he has a position with the National Park Service, after spending his vacation here.

Mrs. Frank Sparks and little granddaughters, Elaine and Donald Dean Wheeler, spent a recent week-end in Kannapolis with the children's mother, Mrs. J. E. Wheeler, daughter of Mrs. Sparks. While there, Elaine was feted at a birthday party.

Mrs. George Sparks was a patient in the Wilkes Hospital last week.

Harry Johnson and a young man called "Peanut," both of High Point, were guests last week-end in the home of their aunt, Mrs. B. L. Johnson.

Mrs. Frank Oakley has apparently recovered from a recent illness, for which she was treated in the Baptist Hospital, Winston-Salem. Before her marriage in the early summer, Mrs. Oakley was Miss Pauline Sparks, attractive third daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. Frank Sparks.

Those visiting at the old Tilley place, or Mrs. Laura Linney's, last Sunday afternoon were Mrs. D. S. Lane, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Mobley, and Miss Mary Lane, all of the Wilkesboros; Messrs. Harry Z. Tucker and Bill Young, of Stokesdale, and Mr. and Mrs. Turner Church, of Cricket. Mrs. Church is Mrs. Linney's niece.

Mrs. George R. Johnson and brother-in-law, Robert Johnson, spent Friday in North Wilkesboro. While there, she visited her mother, Mrs. Minnie Sparks, who was in the hospital.

Mrs. Celia Lane, of Wilkesboro, spent a few days last week with her sister, Mrs. Laura Linney.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sparks have returned from Reddies River and are living with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sparks.

Mr. Julius J. Johnson, Wilkesboro, Route 2, has been hauling watermelons.

Many of the family and friends enjoyed the fine birthday dinner set for Mrs. Tirzah Sparks a recent Sunday.

Pores Knob Home Club Has Meeting

The Pores Knob Home Demonstration club met July 12th, at the home of Mrs. Tom Joines, with the president, Mrs. Burtie Broynhill in charge. The devotional was led by Mrs. J. M. Bentley.

Roll call and secretary's report was by Mrs. P. M. Lowe. There were nine present for the meeting. Due to the absence of the home Demonstration Agent, Miss Harriet McGookan, members and visitors of the club discussed pickling. After the business meeting and hour of conversations, the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Rom Brock, served cakes, candy and lemonade.

New Business On Highway No. 115

T. H. Settle, local business man, has just completed a new and modern tavern on the North Wilkesboro - Statesville highway No. 115, and the place is now open for business. An announcement is made in this issue of a formal dance to be held Thursday evening of this week, and all lovers of dancing are invited to attend. Read the ad for complete details.

J. Q. Rhoades, 45, Is Taken By Death

Funeral service for J. Q. Rhoades, 45, of the Hays community, who died Friday, was held at Haymeadow church Sunday at 11 a. m.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Pearl Rhoades; and four children, Eugene, Lonnie, Ruby and J. R. Rhoades.

MASONIC NOTICE

There will be a special communication of North Wilkesboro Lodge No. 407, A. F. and A. M. Friday evening July 26, 7:30, at which time J. W. Nichols, District Deputy Grand Master, 33rd District, will be installed. J. F. Marquette, of Statesville, assistant Grand Lecturer of the Grand Lodge of North Carolina, will have charge of the installation ceremonies. A good representation from all lodges in this district is expected. GEORGE P. JOHNSON, Master.

Duke Power Co. Here Sells 168 Per Cent Quota

North Wilkesboro branch of the Duke Power company, although with a much bigger quota than some of the larger towns, ended up in third place in the recent Kelvinator sales campaign by selling 84 Kelvinators, or 168 per cent of the allotted quota of 50.

Mount Airy, with a quota of only 40, had the highest percentage with 180 and Chester, S. C., was second with 173 per cent of a quota of only 20.

J. G. Forester, of the local branch, was awarded a $40 prize for outstanding work, being eighth ranking salesman over the entire Duke Power company system in the two Carolinas.

The showing made by the North Wilkesboro branch is particularly impressive in view of the comparatively high quota set for this branch.

Your Tax Money Helps U. S. Build Battleships

As Uncle Sam's mammoth naval building program gets under way, Rear Admiral O. E. Woodward, commandant of the Third naval district, drives the first rivet to lay the keel of the new United States Battleship U. S. S. Iowa at the Brooklyn navy yard. Observing the ceremony are Captains C. A. Dunn of the navy yard, (left); T. E. Richey, production officer of the yard; and Commander J. E. Kiernan. The public was not invited to the keel-laying, because of the necessity for privacy and speed.
