Miss Lowe Becomes Bride Of William John Hudson

Impressive in its beauty and dignity was the marriage Saturday evening, Aug. 24, 1940, at 8:00 o'clock at the home of Mr.

and Mrs. Glenn Woodie, sister of the bride, Winston-Salem, of Miss Connie Beatrice Lowe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Lowe, of Wilkesboro, and William John Hudson, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Hudson, of North Wilkesboro. Rev. W. Hutchins, pastor of the Southside Baptist church, Winston-Salem, officiating and using the impressive ring ceremony in the presence of members of the families and a few intimate friends.

The home was effectively decorated for the occasion with ferns, white gladioli and white roses. Lighted cathedral candles added soft illumination to the lovely setting.

A program of beautiful bridal music was presented by Mrs. Glenn Woodie, who played prior to the ceremony, "Ave Marie" (Schubert) and "Liebestraum" (Liszt). Just before the bridal party entered "Believe Me With All Those Endearing Young Charms", was played softly. To the strains of the traditional bridal chorus from "Lohengrin." Miss Lowe entered on the arm of her father, Mr. C. A. Lowe, who gave her in marriage. While the vows were being heard, Mrs. Woodie played softly and impressively, "Veni, Veni, Veni Love Song." Mendelssohn's wedding march was used as the recessional.

The bride was becomingly attired in a new fall handsome wool costume suit of soldier blue made along fitted lines, sweetheart neckline, with fashionable swing skirt. Graceful fitted sleeves fell in point effect to the wrist. Her accessories were of blending shades of blue, and she wore a shoulder corsage of Tallisaman roses and valley lilies.

Mrs. Hudson is the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Lowe, of Wilkesboro. She is a graduate of Wilkesboro high school and received a degree in beauty culture. She is talented and popular among the young set and very active in social and civic organizations. For the past two years she has been with the Emily Beauty Salon, North Wilkesboro.

Mr. Hudson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Hudson. He is a graduate of North Wilkesboro high school. He has always lived in North Wilkesboro where his family have been leaders in social and industrial life of the community. He is a man of sterling character and fine qualities and very popular among the social set.

Immediately following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Hudson left for an extended wedding trip after which they will be at home in North Wilkesboro, where many friends are interested in their happiness.

North Wilkesboro Methodist Women To Meet September 3
Every woman in the North Wilkesboro Methodist church should be earnestly and prayerfully anticipating the organization meeting of the Woman's Society of Christian Service, which is to be held at the church Tuesday evening, September 3rd, at 7:30 o'clock. Since this is circle day the regular meetings will not be held in the homes, but following the meeting at the church each circle will meet in a group for a business session.

At this meeting a membership offering is to be taken and in the rules and regulations of the new setup it says, "Every woman signing the membership roll of the Woman's Society of Christian Service is expected, as a token of her loyalty, to contribute a sum of money as a membership offering, which will be a part of her annual contribution to the total budget of the local society. The amount of such membership offering to be determined by the individual member."

The publicity committee this week has mailed out cards to the women of the church in regard to this meeting. The revised register of the church roll was destroyed in the flood and if anyone did not get a card please bear in mind that it was an unavoidable oversight and that you are expected to be at the church anyway. The invitation to be present goes out to all women of the church, members and non-members of the Woman's Auxiliary, and girls of high school age.

If all women of the church will "put God first" on this evening it will be a great day in the work of the church and for His cause.

Methodist Bible Classes Have Picnics On Tuesday

Two Bible classes of the North Wilkesboro Methodist church held delightful picnics this week, both taking place late Tuesday afternoon. The Women's class met at the home of Mrs. H. B. Dodson with Mrs. C. A. Forester as co-hostess. A large number of the members were present including several visitors. Following the supper the usual business session was held with Mrs. Isaac Eller in charge. The young ladies class motored out to the Pine Ridge picnic grounds on the Moravian Falls highway for their supper. Twenty-two were present.

Twenty-five jaywalkers were killed in North Carolina the first six months of this year.

Social Calendar

The Wilkes Valley Chapter of the U. D. C. will hold its first meeting for the fall season on Monday afternoon at four o'clock with Mrs. J. H. Whicker, Sr.

The first meeting for the fall season of the Junior Women's club of North Wilkesboro will be held Wednesday afternoon at four o'clock in the lawn at the home of Mrs. W. K. Stardivant. Hostesses with Mrs. Stardivant will be Mrs. George Forester and Mrs. E. C. Johnson. The garden committee will give a garden program.

Rhodes-Hicks

Mr. Earl Leonard Hicks and Miss Margie Marie Rhodes were married in Mountain City, Tenn., August 27, 1940.

Misses Theima and Rose Laws Are Hostesses

On Wednesday afternoon Misses Theima and Rose Laws entertained a number of their friends. Bridge was played at four tables amid a lovely arrangement of summer flowers. Mrs. J. G. Bentley won high score, Miss Jessie Coeheadman low score and Mrs. J. C. Critcher, Jr., won the bingo prize.

At the close of play, a delicious salad course was served.

Mrs. C. G. Yates Entertains For Son At Birthday Party

Mrs. Caswell Yates entertained a number of children at a party, at her home in Wilkesboro, on Monday afternoon, honoring her small son, Robert, on his fourth birthday. The boys and girls enjoyed a number of games on the lawn, after which they were served ice cream and cake. The little guests were given small paper hats as favors. The honoree was showered with many nice gifts.
