

Friday the 13th Lives Up to Reputation But Dame Fortune Lowers Bad Luck

The traditional jinx day—Friday the 13th—produced a series of mishaps that landed some victims in jail, some in the ditch, some in the hospital, and even was blamed for keeping one man out of the army.

But the bad luck score was reduced by a streak of good fortune which struck in spots across the country.

of the day. A toy airplane weighing 11 1/2 ounces which his son was flying struck him in the head, severed an artery near the brain, and he died.

The National Safety Council at Chicago offered some suggestions for the believers in the superstition. They were:

"Walk under a ladder but don't walk against traffic lights.

"Carry a rabbit's foot, if you like, but depend on your own feet for safety.

"Light three cigarettes on a match, but three drinks before driving are three too many.

"Break a mirror, but don't break traffic laws."

Only time will tell how lucky or unlucky Friday the 13th, 1940, was for Anthony, a two-day-old resident of New Haven, Conn. He was found on the steps of Grace Hospital clinic, snugly wrapped in a blanket which bore this note:

"Please take care of baby. His name is Anthony. Will be back in two months and pay you for your services. Please baptize the baby, and God bless you."

Nazis Stripped Of Arms, Jailed In Danish Riot

Copenhagen.—Several leaders of the Danish Nazis, stripped of their uniforms and weapons, were under arrest last night in the south Jutland town of Haderslev after the worst rioting and anti-Nazi demonstrations since the German occupation of Denmark.

From midnight until 4 a. m. yesterday several thousand Danes gathered outside the Haderslev jail, jeering about 350 of the Nazis, being questioned by police after rioting in which 10 policemen were among the injured.

The demonstrating, uniformed Nazis belonging to Fritz Clausen's Danish national socialist party, were subdued by police, after tear gas bombs and fire hoses had been used against them, and were charged with attacking the police, disturbing the peace and violating a law prohibiting the wearing of uniforms.

Most of the 350 Nazis were released, after being stripped of their paraphernalia including steel helmets and their uniforms, and only the leaders and most aggressive ones remained in jail last night.

On And On

Let noble thoughts and a kind heart be a guide. Falter not from thy purpose. Live in the presence of this day. For to-morrow never comes.

Explore the realm of thy senses. Weed from the soul its vices— For to know good and practise it, Is the beginning of all virtue.

May every man be a king In the kingdom of his thoughts, May nobles be, only where Noble deeds are found.

Oh nature! Thou art the supreme creator Time is infinite on your hand; May life, like a brook Flow tirelessly on.

Let noble thoughts and a kind heart be a guide. Falter not from thy purpose. Live in the presence of this day. For to-morrow never comes.

NOTICE

By virtue of an Order of the Superior Court of Wilkes County, signed by the Clerk thereof on the 11th day of December 1940, in the case entitled, "C. A. Lowe Executor of W. C. Watts and Lucendia Watts, and C. A. Lowe, individually et al vs. Parlee", who are the Legatees under the Last Will and Testament of W. C. Watts and Lucendia Watts by reason of being Heirs at law of Mrs. Minda Lowe, deceased, appointing the undersigned Commissioner to sell the lands described in the Petition, and hereinafter described to make assets with which to pay the debts of the deceased parties special Legatees and for division among the Petitioners as Legatees under said Will, will on the 13th day of Jan. 1941, at one o'clock P. M. at the Courthouse Door in Wilkesboro, North Carolina sell to the highest bidder for cash at public auction the lands described in the Petition, which are as follows:

FIRST TRACT: Lying and being on the East side of State Highways 16 and 18, and bounded as follows: Beginning on a stake on the East side of State Highway 16 and 18, and the North West corner of the Elus Gilreath lot, on which the said Elus Gilreath lived on the 17th day of December 1899, and running East 16 poles to a stake, the Gilreath corner; thence South or near South with the Elus Gilreath line 15 poles to a post oak stump, in William Smith's line and Elus Gilreath's corner; thence South 79 degrees East with said Smith's line 60 poles to a small black oak bush in the J. P. Gilreath line; thence North with the J. P. Gilreath line 53 poles to a stake; thence West 70 1-4 poles to a stake on State Highway 16 and 18; thence a South course with the center line of State Highway 16 and 18, as now constructed and in use 25 1-2 poles to the point of beginning. Containing 19 1-5 acres more or less.

SECOND TRACT: Lying and being on the West side of State Highway 16 and 18, and bounded as follows: Beginning on a stone on the West margin of State Highway 16 and 18, and running West 47 poles to a stone; thence South 16 2-3 poles to a stone; thence East 47 poles to a stone on State Highway 16 and 18; thence a North course, with the center line of State Highway 16 and 18, as now constructed and in use, 16 2-3 poles to the point of beginning. Containing 5 acres more or less.

The above lands are located on the height of lands on Highway 16 and 18, on both sides of said Highway, one mile North of Moravian Falls and 2 1-2 miles from the Courthouse in Wilkesboro, and will be sold in parcels and as a whole, and the sale reported in the manner which constitutes the highest price for the entire lands.

This the 10th day of December, 1940.

Beer Industry Will Continue Clean Up Drive

The beer industry's "clean up or close up" campaign in North Carolina, which has resulted in the elimination of 140 undesirable beer outlets, will be pressed with increased vigor in 1941.

The executive committee of the Brewers and North Carolina Beer Distributors committee, at its 'all meeting in Raleigh, mapped plans for the new year's campaign. Continuation of the self-regulation campaign, under the supervision of State Director Edgar H. Bain of Goldsboro, was recently authorized by the United Brewers Industrial Foundation, the sponsoring organization.

Organized 19 months ago, the committee has eliminated 140 objectionable outlets through revocation, surrender and refusal of local authorities to re-license. Six dealers have been placed on probation, and 175 dealers warned to "clean up" or face "close up" action.
