Singing Is Held At Beaver Creek

It was a day of singing at New Hope church, in Iredell county, last Sunday, June 29th, where the Ronda singing convention was held. The following groups of singers participated: Choirs from New Hope, Bethel, Swan Creek, Bethel, in Yadkin county, Liberty, Oak Grove, and Sandy Springs from Davie county; quartets were, New Hope No. 1 and 2, Y-adkin Valley Four, Southerns, and Roberts, Swan Creek, Hamptonville, West Yadkin; New Hope duet, duet by the Cook girls and a solo by Miss Barnard from New Hope.

The chairman W. H. Jones called the meeting together at 10:30 a. m. and the congregation joined in singing a hymn. The 100th Psalm was read by Rev. E. K. Wooten and Rev. Mr. Turner of the home church led the opening prayer.

The pastor of this church, Rev. David Day, of Elkin, greeted the audience and extended a hearty welcome to all.

Mr. Richardson called the singers and kept the records for the day.

Lunch was spread on a long table at noon in the beautiful grove, where a picnic was enjoyed—much love and Christian fellowship abounded.

A prayer brought the meeting to a close at 3:45 p. m. This beautiful new church failed to furnish ample room for the great congregation that assembled there.

The next meeting will be held at Oak Grove church, near Cycle, the 5th Sunday in August.

New Romantic Team At The Liberty

Donna Reed and Robert Sterling are the answer to the cry for "new screen faces." Teamed in "The Get-Away," M-G-M's dramatic new picture opening Monday on the Liberty screen, Sterling comes to the film direct from his recent hit in "I'll Wait for You," with lovely Miss Reed making her debut as the most sensational new acting "find" of the year.

New Commission Sworn In Tuesday

Raleigh.—Major A. L. Fletcher, chairman, and six members of the Unemployment Compensation Commission of North Carolina were sworn in Tuesday morning, July 1, and entered upon their new duties, in accordance with the reorganization of the Commission provided in an act of the General Assembly.

The new Commission succeeds Charles G. Powell, chairman; Mrs. J. B. Spillman; and Commissioner of labor, Forrest H. Shuford, ex-officio member.

In addition to Major Fletcher, the six part-time Commissioners are: T. Clarence Stone of Stoneville, R. Dave Hall of Belmont, and C. A. Pink of Spencer, for two-year terms; Harry D. Wolf of Chapel Hill, Judge C. E. Cowan of Morganton, and Mrs. Frank L. Fuller, Jr. of Durham, for four-year terms.

The new Commissioners, met at the Caswell building, home of the UCC, at 11:00 o'clock Tuesday morning, had a word from Chairman Fletcher and took a tour over the building. At 12:00 o'clock, they gathered at Governor Broughton's office and were sworn in.

In the absence of Governor Broughton, plans were made for another meeting on Friday, July 10, in Raleigh, to be attended by the Commissioners, members of the Central office staff and managers or representatives of the 48 local employment offices in the state, and to be addressed by Governor Broughton and probably representatives of the Social Security Board in Washington.

Draft Boards Told To Defer All Men Over 28 Years Old

Gen. Hershey Telegraphs Order to State Selective Service Directors

Washington, July 1.—Brig. Gen. Lewis B. Hershey, deputy selective service director, today formally ordered deferment of all men now subject to induction into the army who have reached the age of 28.

General Hershey telegraphed the order to state selective service directors, telling them to advise local draft boards immediately and saying that he acted at the request of congressional leaders.

An estimated 8,000,000 between the ages of 28 and 36 are affected. They are part of the group of 16,500,000 between the ages of 21 and 36 who were signed up last October 15.

Hershey's action came as the 6,500 local boards over the country were completing registration of an estimated 750,000 youths who had reached the age of 21 since the initial registration last October.

Deferred At 28

In his telegram to the state directors, Hershey pointed out that pending legislation before the house military committee would provide for deferment of all men 28 or more years old. The bill has a provision making the deferment retroactive to July 1 and calling also for the discharge of any men of that age inducted into the army on or after that date.

In view of the fact that congressional leaders have predicted enactment of this legislation substantially unchanged, General Hershey said, further inductions in this age group should be postponed for a period of 30 days pending final action on the bill.

The legislation on the basis of which Hershey issued his directive would grant deferments only during peace time. Entrance of the United States into war would mean that the men now deferred would immediately become subject again to induction into the army.

While the rolls of registrants were slightly more than halved by Hershey's action, authorities said the reduction in the number of potential selectees was not proportionately great. It was recalled that most men inducted so far have been in their early twenties. The older men in the 21 through 35 age group have many reasons for deferment, including essential employment in defense industries, economic dependents, and physical disabilities.

WEEVILS

Cotton farmers of the state are being urged to use a pre-square mopping method of combatting the heavy threat of boll weevil infestation this year, says F. H. Jeter, agricultural editor at State College.
