Site for Army

ara Dockery KENNEDY HOME CHORUS TO SING ON FRIDAY NIGHT, JULY 18 Community News

Mr. and Mrs. Juddin Key spen week-and with fire. Ker's her, Hril Meadle Johnson, an Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Wallack, of hourseylle, spent Sunday alghi-atth her brother, Mr. Lance time Qualital Abshor and web sher, of Martis, spont the Lance Jones at Hays.

Rev. L. S. Blevins preached a very spiritual sermon at Rock Creek church last Sunday.

Mrs. Mae Tyndall and Miss Archie Feits spent the week-end with their parents. Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Felts, o? Hays.

Mrs. Juddie Key is spending this week with her mother, Mrs. Meadie Johnson, at Hays.

Rev. Lester Johnson and Miss Alice Johnson, of Hays, went to Jonesville, hast Saturday night to a revival service.

Mr. Albert Byrd, of Fairplains. conducted a prayer service at the home of Mr. Jess Wiles last Sunday afternoon.

Rev. A. B. Hays, Rev. S. L Blevins and Mr. N. P. Myers visit. ed in the home of Mr. and Mrs J. A. Sebastain, Sunday.

Hays, spent Wednesday afternoon in North Wilkesboro shopping.

Rev. Lester Johnson preached at Bethel Sunday, July 13, for Rev. Clarence Miller, the pastor.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hayes and ents, Mr. and Mrs. Avery Wiles, on North Wilkesboro route 2.

Mr. and Mrs. Vern Johnson and family, of North Wilkesboro, mother, Mrs. Meadie Johnson.

Government Wants Number Laborers

The United States Civil Service Commission invites attention to the fact that an unsufficient number of applications have been received in the open competitive examination for the position of Classified Laborer (Highway Construction and Maintenance) for filling vacancies in the Public Roads Administration, the usual entrance salary being 30 to 50 cents an hour.

Applications for this position must be on file with the Secretary, Board of U. S. Civil Service Examiners, Public Roads Admin-Istration, 1523 L Street, Northwest, Washington, D. C., not later than August 14, 1941.

Competitors will not be requir. ed to report for written examination, but will be rated on their training and experience.

Full information and application blanks may be obtained from the Secretary, Board of U. S. Civil Service Examiners, Post Office, North Wilkesboro, N. C.

Use the advertising columns of this paper as your shopping guide

A. Sebastain, Sunday. Mrs. Bruce Richardson, of Kennedy Chorus A 90 Minute Laugh Coming Friday

The Kennedy Home high school chorus is to sing at the family, of Warrensville, spent the First Baptist church Friday eveweek-end with Mrs. Haynes' par- ning, July 18, This group of singers has won for themselves a unique place in the hearts of the people over North Carolina. Three years ago, they sang in the Mosroute two, spent Sunday with his que Theatre. Richmond, Virginia. also before the Southern Baptist Convention. They have broadcast over many of the radio stations of the State. One of the leading announcers recently said: "They are the first group l've heard that can-sing anything and consistently stay on pitch. Last year, the Chorus gave a special concert at "The Lost Colony" pageant, at Manteo, August 4, and were the special music feature at Ridgecrest for the South side B. T. U. Assembly, with twenty states represented. The full chorus numbering six-

v voices, ranging in ages from welve years through seventeen. has a somewhat unique apperl in their splendid renditions and marvelous repertoire. The chorus is capable of singing a four-hour program of music from memory. Many of the arrangements are made by Mrs. Verna Blow Alderman, accompanist. Only thirtytwo members of the chorus will he taken on tour as transportaion facilities are limited.

Included in the list of numbers number in which rests the fate of sung by the Chorus are: "Sanc-750,000 young Americans-were us." and "Send Out Thy Light." under heavy guard last night. Toby Gounod, "The Heavens Resound." and "Judge Me O God." fish bowl on the stage of the inby Beethoven, "The Lord's Prayer." Forsyth-Craft. "O Lord Most verdepartmental auditorium. At 7 p. m. (e.s.t.) Secretary of draft lottery.

Michigan People Impressed With Courtesy Here

Thermos Jug Left Here Mailed To Grand Rapids By C. G. Day, Fire Chief

C. G. Day, North Wilkesboro fire chief, has received a letter from Miss Emma F. Hey, of Grand Rapids, Michigan, in which she asked that a thermos jug she left here be mailed to her and in the letter she highly complimented people of this section for their courtesy and hospitality. The letter addressed to the fire department here was as follows:

> Grand Rapids, Mich. July 14, 1941.

Gentlemen: I have just returned from a grand vacation through your Carolinas and also through the Smokies and must say the hospitality and courtesy all along the route was of the finest.

Lou Costello and Bud Abbott in Universay's Navy life comedy. Starts today at the Allen. While in your city, we stopped at the gas station on the corner across from you, to the left and Draft Lottery Set across from you, to the left and had our thermos jug filled with water, entered their rest room

For This Evening water, entered that to our car minus and came back to our car minus the jug. We had left it there and did not miss it until we reached Washington-Four huskies yes-

Winston-Salem. terday grabbed the ends of a tar-Will you please have the one in ong, slim capsules and all was in charge at the station send it to readiness for the opening tonight me by motor truck or the cheapof the nation's second peacetime est way they can, and if there is any charge I will be glad to refund the amount to them. I do not know the name of the gas station but do know it is across from you, as that is the lay there will be placed in a gold- first place we tried to park. Thanking you for this favor, I

> Sincerely yours. (MISS) EMMA F. HEY.

Interesting Items Summit Vicinity

The Yellow Hill Sunday school is progressing nicely under the leadership of Mr. Zeb V. Beshears.

Messrs. Edgar Spears and Junhome folks at Summit, Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Mileal visthe coming week.

ted Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Welch at Deep Gap, Sunday.

Judson Yale Car Ordered Released

inum will be valuable to the gov-A car which belonged to Jud-|ernment in making of planes and son Yale and which was taken other defense materials. over by federal officers has been People of the county are asked released by order of Judge Johnson J. Hayes, judge of the Middle any aluminum which has already North Carolina district of federal court.

The order stated that there was vassers call. no record or reputation that Yale | The aluminum will be hauled had been connected with the il- in trucks to this city to await licit liquor business and he has transport trucks to haul it to facnever been in court for liquor law tories where it is needed.

It was also learned that current reports that Yale was arrest- was a business visitor to the city the jug. We had left it there and ed with a load of liquor are false. yesterday.

violations.

Mr. F. L. Wilcox, of Deep Gap.

now to begin looking around for served its period of usefulness and have it ready when the canis for the purpose of securing aluminum to alleviate the shortage of aluminum in defense industries. Old pots, pans, picture frames, anything made of alum-

Lee's Rides Will

R. C.

the proceeds.

Be Here Through

est and most popular.' and all are invited to petronize the rides. The American Legion will share in

(Continued from page one)

ORGANIZED HERE

DEFENSE COUNCIL

some time next week.

the filling devices

C. Combs of New Hope, and Mrs. John Harrington, of Gilreath. Pall bearers were nephews of the deceased. Flowers were carried nieces.

Ads. get attention-and results.

Wednesday, 123rd Camp Selected Near Durham aich have been set up on the Firstounds for operation this book under duspices of Wilken post of the American Logion, will remain through Wednesday, July Washington.-Selection of a 50, 000-scre site in Purham, Granville and Person counties for a possible new army camp was announced yesterday by Representatives Carl most incessant rainfall this week made it impossible to ope-. Durham and John H. Folger.

One of the 14 sites selected by rate and for that reason the stay the War Department yesterday in hen was prolonged until , next Wednepday. preparation for a probable expansion sion of the army, the proposed There are several thrilling amp is planned to accommodate ides, including some of the new-between 18,000 and 22,000 men. The site selected occupies the triangle between Durham, Oxford and Henderson. t is bounded on one side by the Seaboard Railroad and on the other by the Norfolk and Western, U. S. Highway 15 traverses the area and along the south boundary is the Neuse River. The site thus has desirable trans-ing Wednesday night that the portation and water facilities read-Boy Scouts troops of the Wilkesily available. . The proximity to boros will handle collection of the three sizeable towns also will aluminum in the two towns and provide troops with recreational that Scoutmasters will call their facilities. troops together at an early date

No funds are now available for to make definite arrangements the acquisition of the sites or for for the canvass, which will be the construction of the camps, it was stressed. This and the 13 oth-The council made plans for the er locations merely have been chosaluminum canvass in the rural en so that the quartermaster corps areas of the county and is making and other interested army agenan appeal for school committee- cies could perfect plans for the men, teachers, ministers, Sunday camps if it is later necessary to school superintendents, members increase the strength of the army. Representative Durham, a memof 4-H clubs and all others interested to meet at the school ber of the House military affairs buildings in their respective committee, stated that "in all communities on Saturday aft. probability" considerable expanernoon of this week at five o'- sion would take place at an early clock, and make definite plans for date and that some or all of the tor Cornett from Lenoir, visited collection of aluminum in their sites chosen today would be utilizcommunities some time during ed.

> The aluminum collection drive R. Lee Combs Is Claimed By Death

> > Funeral service for R. Lee Combs, 65, who died from a heart attack at the home of his brother, Mr. C. C. Combs on North Wilkesboro, Route 3, Monday, was.conducted at Lewis church by Rev. Noah Hayes. His survivors include four brothers and one sister; J. P. Combs, of Wilkesboro; C. C. Combs and R. C. Combs, both of North Wilkesboro. Route 3; J.

* NEW AC-DC DOUBLE I.F. CIRCUIT. Gives you four timer the sensitivity, amazing selectivity and power. + BURT-IN SUPER AERIAL SYSTEM. MPROVED DYNAMIC SPEAKER. * BEAM POWER PENTODE AUDIO SYSTEM.

HILUMINATED HORIZONTAL DIAL. AUTOMATIC VOLUME CONTROL. + HANDSOME WALNUT CABINET.

Big Trade-in Allowance EASY TERMS! Balph Duncan LECTRICAL CONTRACTOR - Ninth Street -North Wilkesboro, N. C.

Holy." French, "Largo," and "Hallelujeh Chorus" by Haudel. Recessional." Kipling-DeKoven, folded. An official will lead him 615 McReynolds N. W. The Oratorio Redeemer." Dickson. "The Crucifixion." Stainer. nany numbers by Shelley and everal Bach Chorals. In addition number it contained. each member of the Chorus memorized several solos, sacred and sequence in which the youths who secular each year, and can sing became 21 between last October 16; an acceptable solo. Recently Mr. Alderman presented, in recital. July 1, the second, will be subject each member of the high school to call for service. It is expected cents. chorus in a solo program. litional features, avzilable on the 16,500 000 men from 21 through 35 sistance will be 19 1-2 cents. rogram. The sextette has been consumed 17 hours. heard in many churches over the State, Roy Smith, baritone sooist, has a pleasing voi a that ing at the second. President Roose-

The nation will determine the -the first registration day-and

The pellets-each carrying a

Much of the fanfare that attended the initial lottery will be missshows real possibilities. Pat Al- velt is not expected to take part. terman. Director of the Chorus, Many other high officials, burning rranges the program so that midnight oil in their offices as the nity, and vivaciousness. These so will be absent. oys and girls work on a large A large question mark hangs arm in Eastern Carolina, learn- over the second lottery which was ng the practical side of living, not there in the first-the time the and coloring that, with the de- draftees will be kept in the army. The law fixing a 12-month limit is elopment of the becuty of learnng to live a life, along with under heaviest fire. President said. Roosevelt is backing the War Department demand that selectees,

B. T. U. Workers To national guardsmen and reservists be retained for the period of the Teach Next Week emergency.

earning to make a living.

A group of Baptist Training not know when their numbers nion workers will arrive in come up how long they will re-North Wilkesboro Saturday and go to various churches throughout the Brushy Mountain and other nearby Baptist Associations to teach study courses during the venings of next week.

The workers will teach books on Training Union Methods which deal mainly with organization Mrs. C. C. Blevins as hostess. and methods in work with Junior, Intermediate, and Young People's presided and asked Mrs. Leroy groups. The workers will seek to be of whatever service possible in the churches where they will be guests for the week. The study demonstration on the preservacourses will end with the service on Friday evening. Delicious refreshments were

Two of the group of workers will teach courses at the First served by Mrs. Blevins and the Baptist church of North Wilkesmeeting adjourned to meet in August with Mrs. B. W. Pendry. boro.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Richard Smithey, of Wilkesboro, on Wed- belonged to Mr. J. B. Carter died C. Johnson, of this city, on Monnesday, July 16th, a daughter. of pneumonia Tuesday night. day, July 14th, a daughter.

to the bowl and direct his hand | Mr. Day complied with the re-The pellet will be handed to a quest and forwarded the article reading clerk. He will call out the left here. WILKES COUNTY TAX RATE IS SET AT $1.38 (Continue<sup>4</sup> from page one)

am,

ty government will be 34 1-2

The combined levy for all The trio and sextette are ad- original drawing which involved phases of welfare and public as-The school capital outlay levy was increased from 3 1-2 to four cents. The levy is based on an approximate valuation of $15,000,000 for the county, which is a smaller total than the 1940 levy was bashere will be variety, depth, dig- nation arms in a world aflame, al- ed on. The loss, the tex supervisor said, was due to destruction of valuable property by the flood last year. Had it not been for flood losses, the total assessed valuation would have shown a substantial increase, officials

The levy of $1.38 is calculated to raise a total of $207,000. The levy as divided into the several funds was released by Chairman Absher as follows:

County Health, Vital 05 Statistics ..... .02.5 Tubercular hut _____

Farm Agent, Home Demonstration agent and Fire Aid to dependent children .. .02.6 Aid to Blind ..... County Wide Debt Service _ .68 School Capital Outlay _____04

> $1.38 There will be no additional levy in North Wilkesboro township this year for the Railroad Bond Fund. One cent was added last year.

.01

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Elbert

main in the army. Club Women At Mtn. View Meet

The new crop of draftees will

The Mountain View Home Demonstration Club met July 9th with The president, Mrs. Udy Wood. Porter to give the scripture reading after which some business items were discussed and a helpful tion of vegetables was given by TOTAL Miss Elizabeth Williams.

A beautiful saddle horse which