

Here and There--Around The World With The News Camera

Wind and Rain Divide 'Honors' in Southwest

An airview of the eastern part of Kansas City, showing damage done by a tornado, is shown at left. Wreckage of the recently completed Arlington Methodist church, with only the portals remaining, can be seen right. Torrential rains flooded rivers and creeks in Oklahoma, inundating thousands of acres of farm land and forcing people from their homes. Scene shows a farm near Pryor, Okla., much of it under water.

Chiefs Meet

First meeting of the U. S. and British commanders-in-chief in the Far East. British Air Marshal Robert Brooke-Popham (left) flew to Manila, P. I., to discuss Far Eastern questions with Lieut. Gen. Douglas MacArthur (right), U. S. chief in the Far East.

'Hornets' for Uncle Sam—and Hornet's Nest

A view of the U.S.S. Hornet, the navy's newest aircraft carrier, is shown at left. The Hornet displaces 20,000 tons and has a speed in excess of 30 knots. Right: In the biggest single delivery of military planes in aviation history, 123 Vultee Valiants, basic training planes, roared over Los Angeles en route to army and navy training stations. Some of them are shown, just before the takeoff at Downey, Calif.

Scenes From Russo-German Front

The Nazis occupy a captured Russian trench (left). One of the soldiers is taking a nap on the cold ground of the bottom of the trench. The "gooiness" of the Russian terrain has had a delaying effect even on the German war machine. From Berlin comes this picture (right) showing the Nazi's own tanks with wheels smashed in huge gobs of mud.

Warm October

October has furnished some of the hottest days on record in the national capital. Cooling their tootsies in Capitol plaza on one of these record-breaking October days, with the dome of the Capitol as a backdrop, are these girls from Baltimore, Md.

First Army Goes Into 'Action' in South Carolina

For weeks to come, the country made famous by Stonewall Jackson will see thousands of troops engaged in simulated warfare, during maneuvers of the First army near Camden, S. C. At left, troops of the 131st infantry charge over a haystack. Center: Planes of the "enemy" swoop down with machine guns wide open. Right: First assault boats arrive on "enemy" shore after crossing the Wateree river.

'Baby' Legislators Honored

A delegation from the United Youth for Defense organization presented Sen. Joseph Ball of Minnesota and Rep. William Stratton of Illinois, two of the youngest legislators in congress, with medallions of the organization. Photo shows No. 1 New York debutante, Miss Betty Gordon, pinning a medal on Senator Ball, who is 34. Representative Stratton (shown) is 27.

War and Religion

General Nogues, French resident commander of Morocco, shown during a religious conference with native tribesmen, including Mousses de Zaers, facing the general.

Harriman Reports to F.D.R.

W. Averill Harriman, upon his return from Moscow, where he had been heading the U. S. mission to Moscow, called at the White House to have a further conference with the President. Photo shows him as he was talking with members of the press in the reception room in the entire offices of the White House.

Congressional Leaders Confer With F.D.R.

At National Youth Day Rally

Bulldog Queen

Champion English bulldog, Cefambley Queen, reads up on her ancestry before showing at the thirty-first annual dog show, to be held in Chicago November 29-30.

10 Help Maintain 'Freedom of Seas'

The submarine chaser, PC-490, sliding down the ways in a broadside launching at the Neville Island yards of the Drave corporation, Pittsburgh, Pa. It is the first of 15 such craft being built here for the navy, which will travel down the Ohio and Mississippi to join Uncle Sam's growing forces at sea.

Just Good 'Clean' Fun

Heavy rains, which have paralyzed auto and street car traffic in parts of Chicago, served to put the athletic field in excellent condition for the annual sophomore-freshman pushball game at Loyola university. Everybody had a lot of good "clean" fun until the fresh introduced soft tomatoes into the battle. The fresh was out.
