

Women's Church, Civic And Social Activities

MISS MAMIE SOCKWELL, Editor—Phone 215

Ladies Bible Class Has Delightful Christmas Party

A delightful Christmas party was held by the members of the Ladies Bible class of the North Wilkesboro Methodist church at the parsonage Tuesday evening. A covered dish supper was served at 6:30 o'clock buffet style, each one having brought a dish of food beginning with the first letter of the first name. After the supper a series of contests were directed by Mrs. A. C. Waggoner in which prizes were won by Mrs. Charlie Day, Mrs. E. High, Helms, and Mrs. J. D. Schafer. Each member took a small gift wrapped with name inside, and these were exchanged at the close of the evening by drawing numbers corresponding to numbers on package. About twenty-two were present.

The Francis Turner Y.W.A. Met With Mrs. Lovette

The Francis Turner Y. W. A. met with Miss Donnie Ruth Lovette Sunday night in their regular monthly meeting. Miss Lillian Kilby, the president, presided over the business session and Miss Clara Bumgarner had charge of the program. She was assisted by Pansy Reems, Lorene Martin, Grace Dean, Lois Church, Lillian Kilby and Mrs. Clate Bumgarner. At the close of the meeting Miss Lovette served delicious refreshments to the 13 members and one visitor present.

Legion Auxiliary Met Monday Evening

Mrs. Gordon Finley, Mrs. T. A. Finley, and Mrs. J. B. McCoy, combined hospitality to the members of the Legion Auxiliary in their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Gordon Finley on Monday evening. Miss Ruth Colvard, the new president, occupied the chair for the usual business session. Mrs. T. A. Finley gave an interesting article on "We Will Never Forget" pertaining to rehabilitation.

During the business part of the meeting it was decided to hold the next meeting in January at the Red Cross Sewing Room and do some sewing for the Red Cross, also to send Christmas gifts of money to five war veterans at Oteen and two at Fayetteville.

Around fourteen members were present and during the social hour were served delicious refreshments by the hostesses, while Miss Colvard poured coffee at the dining room table.

Wilkesboro Wesleyan Guild Holds Monthly Meeting

The Wesleyan Service Guild of the Wilkesboro Methodist church met Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. John Rogers with Mrs. Russell Pearson as associate hostess. Mrs. George Parlier, the president, was in charge of the business part of the meeting during which time officers for the new year were elected. Miss Eleanor Smoak is to be the new president.

The program for the evening was given by Mrs. Pearson. Mrs. William Parlier, and Miss Betty Henderson. Plans were made for the Christmas party to be held at the Community House Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Refreshments and a social hour followed the meeting. Twenty some were present.

Local People Attend Party In Greensboro Saturday

Misses Lillian Stafford, Nonie Gordon, Evelyn Sharpe, and Lucille Young went to Greensboro Saturday to attend a luncheon-bridge given by Mrs. V. U. Grose honoring her sister, Mrs. Frank Stafford, of Winston-Salem. Mrs. Stafford, the former Miss Lilyan Miller and a member of the city school faculty, and Mr. Stafford were married here in the First Baptist church Thanksgiving Day.

Luncheon was served at one o'clock after which bridge was played at three tables. The high and low score awards in the game went to Miss Gordon and Miss Stafford. Mrs. Stafford, who was accompanied to Greensboro by her mother, Mrs. E. S. Miller also of Winston-Salem, was remembered with a gift. The home for the party was attractively decorated in the Christmas colors.

North Wilkesboro Wesleyan Guild Met Tuesday Evening

All the officers for the Wesleyan Service Guild of the North Wilkesboro Methodist church were present for the installation service which was held at the home of Mrs. Edd F. Gardner Tuesday evening. Hostesses for the meeting were Mrs. Rufus Morrow and Miss Margaret Hall and at the close they served tempting refreshments.

Mrs. Otis Keeling, the chairman, led the devotionals and was in charge of the business part of the meeting. Mrs. Keeling, as chairman of the Guild, and Mrs. Gardner, as president of the Woman's Society, were remembered with attractive gifts from the Guild members. Miss Elizabeth Heath was welcomed into the Guild as a new member and Mrs. Newland Campbell was a visitor.

Fidelis Class Holds Monthly Meeting

The December meeting of the Fidelis class of the North Wilkesboro Baptist church was held at the home of Mrs. A. H. Casey Tuesday evening with Mrs. R. F. Casey, Mrs. S. L. Pardue, Mrs. C. E. Jenkins and Miss Emma Eller as hostesses. Attorney A. H. Casey led the opening prayer and made an inspirational talk on "The Influence of the Bible in America." A large number of the members were present.

Mrs. A. C. Chamberlain, the president, was in charge of the business session, and upon the report of the nominating committee of which Miss Lillian Stafford was chairman, the following officers were chosen: President, Miss Gladys Lomax; first vice-president, Mrs. R. T. McNeil; second vice-president, Mrs. John Hall; third vice-president, Mrs. Fred Emerson; secretary and treasurer, Mrs. J. G. Chipman; and assistant secretary and treasurer, Mrs. Glenn Greene.

An auction sale of Christmas packages which were brought by the members were auctioned off by Mrs. Chamberlain and Mrs. Rufus Church, the proceeds to be used for Christmas Cheer work. To close the meeting the group sang a number of Christmas carols after which the hostesses served refreshments.

Two Authors

Teacher: "Willie, did your father write this essay?"
"No ma'am. He started it, but mother had to write it all over again."

Morning Ride

Gen. Sir Archibald Wavell, hero of the British advance in Africa last year against Italian forces, is shown in riding attire similar to the riding chaps used on western plains of the U. S. He is wearing his yellow sweater and is giving sugar to his horse after a ride, somewhere near the Iran border.

Interesting Items From Deep Gap

Mr. Royce Lookabill, who is in the U. S. Service at Fort Meade, Maryland, spent a few days here last week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Lookabill.

Mr. Gurney Luther, who has been ill with pneumonia, is now up again. Mr. Luther is employed by the state and expect to resume work again within the next few days.

Mr. C. M. Miller and Mr. Joe Mitchell left last Monday for Alabama, where they expect to work this winter.

A son of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Wellborn, who has been ill with pneumonia and pleurisy, is now recovering. We hope to see him back in school soon.

Mrs. John E. Luther and son, Mr. G. E. Luther, visited in the home of Mr. J. E. Luther Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Rayon Wilcox is having a house built near the home of his father, Mr. F. L. Wilcox.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Luther, of Sumpter, S. C., visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John E. Luther, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Wellborn of Hickory spent the week-end with Mrs. Wellborn's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Nichols.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Alec Blecher at the Hagaman Clinic last week, a son.

Social Calendar

The Wilkes county Greensboro College Alumnae Association will hold a meeting Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. William Marlow on F Street.

The North Wilkesboro Woman's club will meet Monday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. A. H. Casey.

The Civic and Social club, a department of the North Wilkesboro Woman's club, will meet Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the Woman's club house on Trogon Street, with Mrs. R. G. Faucette, Mrs. Carl E. VanDeMan, and Mrs. C. L. Gibson as hostesses. Miss Lillian Stafford is to be program chairman. Each member will take a Christmas package, which will be sold at auction and the proceeds to go for Christmas Cheer work.

Use the advertising columns of this paper as your shopping guide.

JOIN AT SALISBURY—Notes From Navy Recruit Station

Salisbury.—Due to the increased rate of Navy enlistments, the Salisbury Navy recruiters will be unable to continue the scheduled visits to the neighboring cities and counties to secure enlistments.

All patriotically inclined young men who wish to be enlisted in the Naval service will be required to come to Salisbury in order to be enlisted. Young men between the ages of 17 and 21 must have the consent of their parent or guardian. Those having birth certificates should bring them with them. Any man may enlist in the Naval Reserve for the duration of the war. Applicants may choose the day they wish to leave for training or may be enlisted the day following their application.

NAVY RECRUITER.

FOR A THOUGHTFUL GIFT...
CHOOSE A
Smart Frocks
FROM PENNEY'S

2.98

Make this a grand Christmas by giving her a really nice dress! Choose a cheery winter pastel or a smart dark frock with plenty of glitter! The season's newest styles, 12-20-38-44.

We are Headquarters for Christmas...

CANDY, NUTS, and FRUITS

Special prices to Schools and Churches
Planning to have Christmas Treats and Entertainments. We Suggest that You Call In Now and Place Your Orders as Present Stock May Soon be Exhausted.

Larger Quarters Larger Stocks

We have moved our wholesale and retail store just one door North—to the building formerly occupied by the Gaddy Motor Company. Larger quarters enables us to carry larger stocks, and we especially invite the public to visit our...

New Grocery Department

just opened for the convenience of our many patrons. Whether you buy retail or wholesale, we can save you money on your Groceries, Flour, Meats, Feeds, and many other items to be found in our store.

North Wilkesboro Grocery Co.

WHOLESALE AND RETAIL GROCERIES AND FEEDS

Tenth Street Phone 34 North Wilkesboro, N. C.