Mrs. William Lumsden Bundy Honored At Christmas Tea

In a beautiful Christmas setting, Mrs. Robert Marvin Brame, Jr., Mrs. Julian Stuart Deans, and Mrs. Carl Coffey received at a lovely tea at the Woman's clubhouse on Trogon Street Wednesday afternoon honoring Mrs. William Lumsden Bundy. Mrs. Bundy, a recent bride, also a newcomer to the city, Mrs. Bundy, prior to her marriage to Dr. Bundy, of North Wilkesboro, on Sunday, November 23, was Miss Beatrice Fox, of Mehane. A large number of guests called between the hours of four to six to meet the young bride and enjoy the gracious hospitality of the hostesses.

Welcoming the callers at the door were Mrs. H. B. Smith, Mrs. Claude Doughton, Mrs. R. G. Finley, and Mrs. O. D. Coffey, Jr. Receiving with the three hostesses were the honoree and Mrs. A. C. Waggoner, the new pastor's wife of the North Wilkesboro Methodist church. The guests were directed to the tea table by Mrs. Cecil Adamson, Mrs. L. M. Nelson, Mrs. W. C. Grier, and Mrs. Frank Blair, Jr. where tea was poured by Mrs. Ward Eshelman, Mrs. C. D. Coffey, Sr., Mrs. R. M. Brame, Jr., and Mrs. R. W. Gwyn, mother of Mrs. R. M. Brame, Jr., and Mrs. Carl Coffey.

Mrs. John E. Justice, Mrs. Hill Carlton, Mrs. J. B. Carter, and Mrs. Eugene Spalnhour, of Elkinton, showed the way to a second table where ices, in molds of different fruits were served. Presiding at this table, and alternating as did the others who assisted, were Miss Toby Turner, Mrs. P. M. Williams, Miss Lucy Finley, and Mrs. W. J. Bason.

Assisting with the serving were Mesdames Joe Barber, William Barber, Shoun Kerbaugh, Palmer Hordt, Lincoln Spalnhour, Fred Hubbard, Jr., Misses Florence Guigou, Frank Somers, Sue Moring Clements, Lura Coffey, Janie McDiarmid, Evelyn Sharp, and Muriel Coykendall. A musical program at the piano was rendered by Miss Lois Scroggs, and goodbyes were spoken to Mrs. Will Blair, Mrs. Weaver Starr, Mrs. Dan Carter, and Mrs. Fred Hubbard, Sr.

The spacious room of the club house was artistically decorated throughout in the Christmas colors of red and green, using quantities of red candles, red cellophane ribbons, red roses, holly and other greenery. The same color note was repeated in the refreshments. Covered with Madeira cloths, each table was lighted by four red candles in silver holders which made a flame about a silver bowl of red roses. Tiebacks for the curtains were huge bows of red cellophane ribbon in which were caught sprigs of the greenery, and placed about the room were bowls of Christmas balls in different colors. Adding a cheerful note to the setting was the glowing fire in each of the fireplaces at the ends of the room, while the mantels were banked with pine and interspersed with lighted red candles.

Eddy and Miss Stevens have an excellent supporting cast, including Nigel Bruce, as the music critic and close friend and confidant of Eddy; Florence Bates as Miss Stevens' voice coach and antagonist of Eddy; Nydia Westman as Miss Stevens' maid, Charles Judels as the Russian cafe owner, Dorothy Gilmore as Madge, a flirtatious member of "The Chocolate Soldier" company, and a host of others, including dancers.
