Mrs. Frank Stafford Is Honored At Coffee

An informal coffee was the courtesy extended to Mrs. Frank Stafford, of Winston-Salem, by Miss Janie McDiarmid at her home on D street Friday afternoon. Mrs. Stafford, a bride of Thanksgiving and the former Miss Lilyan Miller, who was a teacher in the North Wilkesboro school, and a few of her intimate friends gathered at the McDiarmid home at five o'clock for a delightful hour together, during which time coffee was poured by the hostess's mother, Mrs. James C. McDiarmid. Miss Pauline Troutman, of Troutman, who was here visiting her sister, Miss Kathryn Troutman, was another out of town guest.

Benefit Card Party Held At Community House

Twelve tables of cards were in play at the benefit card party given at the Community house in Wilkesboro Friday evening by the Senior Woman's club. In the bridge game the top score prizes for the ladies and the men went to Mrs. W. J. Bason and Mr. Albert Garwood, the second high to Mrs. Russell Gray, Jr., and the low score to Dr. M. G. Edwards. In rook the winners of the high and low score awards were Mrs. C. H. Hulcher and Mr. O. K. Whittington, while in bingo the prizes were won by Mrs. N. O. Smoak and Mrs. J. F. Rogers. At the party Mrs. William Barber entertained her bridge club. Refreshments were served by Mrs. F. C. Hubbard, Sr., Mrs. W. T. Long, and Mrs. Hulcher.

Hinshaw Street Church Fidelis Class Meets

The Fidelis class of Hinshaw Street Baptist church met with Mrs. Austin Lovette Friday evening, December 5th. Mrs. Lovette has recently moved into her home on Hinshaw street and was glad to have her Sunday School class meet with her.

Mrs. Bill Snow had charge of the business session of the class in the absence of the president, Mrs. Noah Greenwood. Since this was the last meeting before Christmas, names were exchanged to buy each other gifts. Tempting refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. John Adams.
