

Mr. Irvin is
Mr. Damschroder
Christmas wedding was that of Miss Mildred Elmer both Irvin and Robert Edward Damschroder, which was solemnized in the Wilkesboro Methodist church, Thursday morning at nine o'clock. Dr. E. C. Jennings, pastor of the church, heard the vows in the presence of family members and a few close friends, using the impressive ritual.

Wedding music was rendered by Mrs. George Parlier, pianist, and Miss Eleanor Smith as soloist.
Prior to the ceremony Mrs.
Parlier played "Intermezzo" after which Miss Smith sang "I Love You Truly". The bridal couple, unattended, entered to the strains of Lohengrin's bridal chorus, and as the solemn vows were pledged Mrs. Parlier played muted notes of "Liebestraum".
By Miss Mendelssohn's wedding march was used as the recessional.

The bride for her nuptials was becomingly attired in a day-time dress of ice blue crepe with which she used brown accessories.
Her shoulder corsage was of Gardenias.

Mrs. Damschroder, daughter of Mr. J. T. Irvin of Wilkesboro, and the late Mrs. Irvin, is a graduate of the Hiddenite high school and attended Mitchell College in Statesville. She holds a position in the Home Demonstration Office of Wilkes county.

Mr. Damschroder, son of Mr.
and Mrs. R. F. Damschroder, of Toledo, Ohio, graduated from the Toledo high school, then went to Princeton University for three years. Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Damschroder left for their wedding trip to Toledo, Ohio, and upon their return will be at home in Wilkesboro where Mr. Damschroder is connected in business with the Tuxedo Hatchery.

After the rehearsal Wednesday evening, Mrs. Frank McNinch Jr., of Charlotte, and a sister of the bride, entertained at an informal open house at the Irvin home honoring the bridal couple.
Ices in wedding bells were served during the evening.

Cards were issued making formal announcement of the marriage.

by Reddy Kiowatt

The inventive genius of man has made it possible for me to perform all sorts of household tasks as well as industrial operations.

My job in the home a good many years ago was simply to furnish light—and it was glaring, un-diffused light at that. Today I do all sorts of jobs—operate your radio, cook your food, refrigerate your food, sweep your floors, wash and iron your clothes, keep you warm or keep you cool, curl your hair, light your cigarette, and perform a host of other tasks.

And I do all of these jobs so cheaply that I can literally say:
"I CERTAINLY CUT THE COST OF BETTER LIVING."

Your Servant,
