SOOR TY

Sans Souci Club Met With Mrs. Ray Barnes

the numbers of the Sans Souci the and some additional guests of atful autortained by the Ray Barates at her kome on treet. Thursday grening. The costess served tempting refreshments at the beginning of the rame of bridge, which was played at four tables. High and second high score prizes within the club were won by Mrs. J. S. Zimmerman and Miss Zelle Harris, while amongst the visitors the winners of the same prizes were Mrs. Edward Podrobarae and Miss Gladys Lomax.

Executive Board Met With Mrs. Cobb

A meeting of the Executive board of the Wilkesboro Wesleyan Service Guild was held Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. H. Cobb. Mrs. George Parlier, the Mrs. T. E. Norman Is president, presided for a business session during which time plans were made for the year's work and a number of committee chairmen were named. At the close of the meeting Mrs. Cobb served light refreshments.

During the past few months, bridge club, of which she is a member, at her home in Wilkes-with her daughter, Mrs. Linney, boro Thursday evening. Miss Pat-with her daughter, Mrs. Linney, boro Thursday evening. light refreshments.

The executive officers are Mrs. Parlier, president; Mrs. Robert Dunn, vice president; Mrs. Cobb, treasurer; Mrs. Johnson Sanders, recording secretary; and Miss Irene Culler, corresponding secre-

The chairmen of the various de-

Beware Coughs from common colds That Hang On trouble to help loosen and expel germ laden phlegm, and aid nature to soothe and heal raw, tender, inflame i bronchial mucous membranes. Tell your druggist to sell you a bottle of Creomulsion with the un-derstanding you must like the way it quickly allays the cough or you are to have your money back.

CREOMULSION

BOOST YOUR BUYING!

EVERYBODY-AN EXTRA $100 WAR BOND

IN THE 4th WAR LOAN DRIVE

Your government is urging you—urging everyone with a job and an income—to buy an extra $100

That's the least being asked of every American-

And it won't be easy for most of us to set it aside! Taxes and living costs are a heavy burden. We'll just have to sacrifice and skimp and save to put this drive

Do without everything you don't need for happi-

No sacrifice you can make can approach the sacrifices of our marines on the blood-soaked sands of islands in the Pacific, or our soldiers fighting their way mile by mile towards Berlin. No sacrifice you can make can match the selfless heroism of our gallant flyers over Germany or our sailors grappling with the

Our boys are giving up their homes and their families, their sweethearts and their jobs, even their

Let's back them up by buying an extra $100 War Bond in the Fourth War Loan Drive. You'll help to keep Old Glory flying everywhere it belongs!

stealthy Japanese fleet!

ness and health. Don't waste one precious penny. And put everything you can raise into War Bonds.

War Bond in the Fourth War Loan Drive.

over and above your regular purchases.

Social Calendar

The Presbyterian Auxiliary will meet Tuesday afternoon at 3:38 o'clock in the Assembly Room of the Educational Building, and will be preceded by the executive meeting at 3 o'-clock in the Ladies' Parlor.

The Wesleyan Guilds of the Wilkesboro Methodist church will meet Tuesday evening at eight o'clock with Mrs. Robert partments of the work are: Miss Virginia Miller, Spiritual Life; Mrs. Robert Johnson, Missionary Cultivation; Mrs. Robert Gambill, Recreation; Mrs. T. E. Norman, Christian's Social Relations; and Miss Mary Charles Alexander, literature and publications.

Bridge Club Hostess

Mrs. T. E. Norman was hostess to the members of the Wilsbri ville. ty Somers was winner of the top score prize in the bridge game, which was played at three tables, and Mrs. Robert Dunn received the bingo award. The prizes were War Stamps. Refreshments followed play.

Current Topic Club Met Wednesday

A delightful club party of the week was the one given by Mrs. F. C. Forester and Mrs. Ira Payne at the Forester home on D street Wednesday afternoon entertaining for the members of the Current Topic Club and a few extra guests. Mrs. J. M. Crawford presided for a short business session and interesting news items, after which rook was played at three tables. Mrs. Hoyle Hutchens and Mrs. R. B. Church received the awards for high and low scores. A salad course with sweets was served at the beginning of play.

Funeral service for Mrs. Charlottè Rufina Williams Poole, age 86, who died Thursday at the Wilkes Hospital, was held Saturday afternoon, 2:30, at Hiddenite Bap-

Mrs. Poole was the wife of the late Rev. Daniel Wilcox Poole, of Alexander county, who for dec-ades was one of the best known ministers in Northwestern North Carolina. In the year prior to his death two years ago, Rev. and Mrs. Poole observed their 67th wedding anniversary.

Mrs. Poole was the daughter of saps Williams, who made their Alexander county. Surviving are 3 daughters and four sons: Mrs. Tom Barrow, Kernersville; Mrs. Lloyd Bowman, Jacksonville, Fla.; Mrs. W. E. Linney, Wilkesboro; Felix D. Poole, Wahington, D. C.; Prof. Edward Poole, Marion; Fred M. Poole, Elkin; Ralph Poole, Winston-Salem. Also surviving are one brother, Judge Wade Williams, of Charlotte, and three sisters: Mrs. Will Hampton, Taylorsville; Mrs. Kate Davis; and Mrs. Jessie Smith, States-

During the past few months. in Wilkesboro.

Rev. C. C. Holland, of Hickory, conducted the service, assisted by the pastor, Rev. H. L. Goode, Rev. Ernest Bumgarner, of Taylorsville, and Rev. Howard J. Ford, of Wilkesboro.

Mrs. Gambill, Age 83,

Mrs. Emmaline Gambill, age 83, Funeral service was held at enable you to accomplish more.

Walnut Grove church near her former home in Walnut Grove farmers are going to be confront ins, Rev. Mentor Blevins and Rev. Hule Hanks, conducted the labor and many things from time service. Mrs. Gambill leaves the following sons and daughters: Mrs. W. M. Adams, Drakes Branch, Va.: N. M. Gambill, Springfield; S. T. Gambill, Elkin; W. M. and W. S. Gambill, Springfield; H. G. Gambill, Blackstone, Va.; Mrs. J. A. Johnson, Ronda; B. G. and G. V. Gambill, North Wilkesboro.

Mrs. Hulet's Mother Died Here Friday come out victorious.

Funeral service for Mrs. Effie Ramseur Johnson, age 76, who died Friday night at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Faye Hulet, in this city, will be held on Wednesday, two p. m., at Reins-Sturdivant chapel.

Mrs. Ramseur, widow of Bascom G. Johnson, of Lenoir, had been making her home here with Mrs. Hulet since Mr. Johnson died ten years ago. She had been ill with flu for two weeks, but a heart attack was the immediate cause of death.

The only surviving members of her family are Mrs. Hulet and several grandchildren.

Rev. A. C. Waggoner will conduct the funeral service here. Burial service will be in a Lenoir

BUY MORE WAR BONDS

NOTICE OF RE-SALE OF LAND
NORTH CAROLINA,

WILKES COUNTY.

Under and by virtue of a power contained in a certain order of the Superior Court of Wilkes county, North Carolina, therein appointing the undersigned substitute trustee to take the place of J. M. Brown, Trustee, who was named trustee in a certain deed of trust executed in a certain deed of trust executed by C. J. Lambeth and wife, Anna Lee Lambeth, and recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds of Wilkes county in Book 154, page 512, to secure the payment of debts mentioned, and default hav-ing been made in the payment of ing been made in the payment of said indebiedness and demand having been made on me for the sale of said property for the satis-faction of said indebtedness, I will on the 31st day of January, at 1:00 o'clock, p. m., at the courthouse door in Wilkesboro, North Carolina, offer for re-sale to the highest bidder, for cash, the fol-lowing described real estate, to

Lying and being in Edwards Township, Wilkes County, North Carolina in the village of Roaring

Carolina in the village of Roaring River, and more particularly described and defined as follows:

FIRST TRACT—Bounded on the South by the lands of Jonah Porter; on the East by the lands of Lynette Salmon; on the North by the lands of John Parks; on the West by the lands of Coleman and Childers, formerly owned by Charlie Greenwood, which lands are the old mill site. This boundary contains 30 acres, more or less. are the old mill site. This boundary contains 30 acres, more or less. SECOND TRACT: Bounded on the North by the lands of the Duke Power Company; on the West by the lands of L. W. Smithey and the goad from Roaring River up to Gordon Mills; Inc. 101 the South by the lands of Journal Mathia and on the East by the lands of Joe Burchett, containing one acre more or less and on which is located a 5-room house. is located a 5-room house.

This the 12th day of January,

JOHN R. JONES, Substitute Trustee.

Daniel Bumgarner Claimed By Death; Last Rites Saturday

Daniel Bumparner, are 76, well-known citizen of the Millers Creek community, died Friday at his home. He had been in ill health for several months and seriously ill for the past three

Mr. Bumgarner was a member of a well known Wilkes family, being a son of the late William and Louise Wilcox Bummarner. Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Elisabeth Bumgarner, and the following sons and daughters: R. G. Bumgarner, Millers Creek; Mrs. R. B. Snyder, Wilkesboro route one; Odell Bumgarner, Millers the late David and Catherine Mill- Creek; Mrs. A. J. Lovette, Wilkesboro route one: Lin and Eisha home in Winston-Salem and in Bumgarner, Millers Creek; Harley Bumgarner, Goldsboro.

Funeral service was held Saturday, two o'clock, at Millers Creek Methodist church. Rev. J. L. A. Bumgarner, pastor, conducted the service.

Ernest R. Brown

Funeral Sunday Funeral service was held Sunday at Austin church for Ernest Robert Brown, age 35, who died in the Chatham Memorial hospital in Elkin. Rev. L. E. Sparks conducted the service. Mr. Brown is survived by his wife, Mrs. Faye Brown, three children, Dorothy, Eloise and Emmalee Brown, his father, Hardin Brown, one brother and one sister, Wilmer Brown and Mrs. Ed McGrady.

1944 Food, Feed Goals (Continued from page one)

crops might help each farmer in utilizing his labor to the best ad-Is Claimed By Death vantage. Having a plan of work before you might enable you to shift some of the work in over died at her home here Saturday crowding months to months which night after several days' illness. call for less work and by so doing

There is no doubt but what our lownship today. Rev. T. E. Blev-ed with problems such as disease, insects, weather and shortages of to time which will seem almost impossible to overcome but yet I am sure that everyone will realize that our men in the armed forces are also facing tough situations in meeting our enemies. should also realize that it is going to take everybody putting our shoulders to the wheel in order to bring about victory and peace at the earliest moment. The challenge is before us and I am sure that we are going to accept it and

SPECIAL SALE

OPA RELEASE

WOMEN'S LOW PRICED

SHOES

No Coupon Required

on sale

MONDAY, JANUARY 17th • through •

SATURDAY, JANUARY 29th

Main Floor and Basement Departments

AN INVITATION TO

WILKES COUNTY TAXPAYERS

You are invited, and urged, to pay your 1943 County Taxes on or before February 1, 1944, so that you will....

SAVE THE PENALTY OF

1 Per Cent

WHICH WILL BE ADDED AFTER THAT DATE

AND EACH MONTH THEREAFTER THE PENAL-TY INCREASES UNTIL THE TAX IS PAID! MAKE PAYMENT NOW-SAVE!

C. G. Poindexter

Sheriff and Tax Collector of Wilkes County